PIOTORIAL BROTHER JOHNATHAN for the Christprotoklan New Year Holidays—full of pictures of this day? This is, to a great degree, lost in mus and for sale at Bergner's cheap Bookstore, obscurity. The best authorities in history give No. 51 Market street.

BAND PARADE.—The members of the State Capital Band intend making a parade in uniform to-morrow afternoon, and will treat our citizens to some excellent music.

THE TYCOONS will hold a special meeting this evening at the usual time and place. Every church. There were several heathen festivals ocmember is desired to be in attendance. By order of the Chief Tycoon.

G. W. GRETY, Secretary.

A STATED MEETING of the State Capital Guard will be held at their room in Eby's buildings Market street, this evening at the usual hour. All the members are desired to be punctually in attendence.

THE CAMERON GUARD paraded on Saturday afternoon. There was a small turn out, no christianity had introduced the true golden age doubt owing to the very muddy condition of by the advent of Christ, who had procured true streets, but the company made a fine appear- liberty both for the freeman and the slave. ance. Members of the Guard inform us that Then came a festival still more analagous to they expect to parade at least thirty-five men on inauguration day.

NEWSPAPER THIEVES. - Our carriers recommend the following squib to the notice of those who-"do likewise :"

"Sonny, does your father take a paper?" "Yes, sir, two of them. One belongs to Mr. Smith, and the other to Mr. Thompson. I hooks them off the stoop.

CHRISTMAS EVE BALL .- A grand cotillion soirree will be given in Exchange Hall this evening under the management of Mr. Frank Mather. Our young folks, of both sexes, who are fond of "tripping the light fantastic," can spend the evening very pleasantly by attending this party.

THE CONCERT given by the State Capital Band on Saturday evening was tolerably well attend, and all present seemed to be highly pleased with the entertainment. The new and beautiful uniforms, in which the Band appeared for the first time, were very much admired. This city can now boast the best and most elegantly equipped Band in the interior of the State. It should be generously sustained.

OLD SANTA CLAUS .- If any of our juvenile friends have been troubled with doubts about images. Christmas was therefore regarded as the coming of old Santa Claus this year, they the festival of the children. From these anneed only go to Felix's in Market Square to be assured that their old friend and patron saint the peculiar features of our Christmas. How has no intention of absenting himself, but is wonderful are the links that bind us to a far actually here, "as large as life and twice as distant age. How strange that the festival we natural." Now let the youngsters only see are about to celebrate should have descended to that papa and mama make an early call on the jolly old chap, and all will be well.

SELINSGROVE STATION.—The Norviern Central Railroad Company have put up a large and comfortable house at the Selins Grove station. The building, which is just completed, contains fourteen rooms and is calculated to accommo. date strangers and others over night. This station is an important one and this improvement was much needed at that point were youth do not come trooping back :crossing at night is sometimes difficult and inconvenient.

No Paper on Tuesday.—In order to afford all hands in our office an opportunity of participating in the festivities incident to Christmas, crisp, all freshly cooked;—when little Willie, the Telegraph will not be issued to morrow - from over the brook, was to come and see us We tender all our readers the compliments of and stay all day long, and bring his new jackthe season, and wish them a "merry Christmas." May those who are blessed with an abundance of good things kindly remember their less fortunate neighbors, and be more generous than usual in the bestowel of gifts.

CHRISTMAS WEDDINGS.—The financial panic does not seem to affect the matrimonial market, for weddings are of almost daily occurtence, here and elsewhere. We learn that three young gentlemen of this city intend to celebrate Christmas by leading the same number of fair ladies to the altar to-morrow morning. A very sensible and commendable moveing. A very sensible and commendable movement. We tender the parties our congratulagathered? To be sure, Willie has gone away, tions, in advance, and wish them a very happy and merry Christmas :-

COERCION has been urged, first or last, for nearly every description of delinquents, from little John who won't go to school and needs to be spanked to urge him in that direction, to big South Carolina that won't stay in the Union and needs some such operation to produce a similar obedience. But here is the first instance we have ever heard of coercing hens. A lady correspondent of the Mobile Advertiser, a compensation. No, no! away with sickly writing from Kanena relates the following ex- thoughts of what has been!—thank God fer traordinary proceeding :

aordinary proceeding:

After breakfast I was surprised to see my this day who cannot look back upon the bud-After breaklast 1 was surprised to see my landlady go out, and, catching her hens, tie each one's legs together, and throw them upon the ground with "there, be good." "What did you do that for?" I asked. "To make 'em lar "she answered" "I asked." "To make 'em lar "she answered" "What have "she answered" lay," she answered. "Make 'em lay, will that do it," I inquired. "La, yes," she said, "didn't you ever hearn tell of that before?" I confessed that I had not. In an hour she went out again, and picking up the hens, sure enough, some bad laid; those she let go, and they ran off, not even cackling their gratitude. But those hens which seemed disposed to be contrary, she struck on the back, saying "you had better lay—you'd better lay, for you won't go until you do," and in a little while they, too, bad recompensed their mistress for feeding them. had recompensed their mistress for feeding them so bountifully. She says she does so every morning, and the hens know well enough that "they have got to lay."

will have other owners soon. You cannot long find the olden faces grouped around the winte fires. One more glance at the Christmas times of old, before they pass away forever!

THE CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL. - We are now on the eve of another Christmas festival, and thousands of little hearts beat happily in anticipation of the gifts that will be showered upon them to-morrow. Their dreams to-night will be of presents gay and beautiful-of visits and sports. Christmas is emphatically the children's festival. Surely no one needs to be told what Christmas day commemorates Every child of a christian family, or of the Sunday School, knows it. But who knows the origin

no definite or certain account of it. The best historians fix its origin in the fourth century.

become known there less than ten years before. It was first originated in the western or Roman curring about the same time of year, which could admit of being spiritualized, and with some changes, transformed into a christian sense.-

The first of these was the saturnalia which re presented the peaceful times of the golden age

in which Saturn reigned, and also anticipated

the return of that age. It abolished, for a while, the distinction of rank between servants

transition to a christian sense, when Christ,

that of the natural. For, as in the material world, it is after the darkness has reached its highest point that the end of its dominion is near and the light begins to acquire fresh power;

ness had reached its utmost height, Christ, the spiritual sun, appears to make an end to the kingdom of darkness. The celebration of Christmas was, therefore, placed on the 25th of December, not because Christ was born on that day, but because it took the place of certain heathen festivals occurring about that time,

and especially that of the "Invincible Sun,"

which occurred on the 25th of December .-

There was also a custom prevalent at these festivals of presenting presents, which passed over to the Christmas festival. There was also the "Festival of the Infants," which was a part of and concluded the festival of Saturnalia,

There were, on those very Christmas mornings,

HYMN FOR CHRISTMAS EVE.

Eve of the morn our Christ was born,
A babe in Bethlehem's manger sleeping;
Eve of the night whose heavenly light
Illumes a world its festal keeping;
Eve of the day, when, far away,
In fields where lonely sheperds tended,
An angel's word, of men was heard,
To spread the joy from heaven-descended

To spread the joy was and the same and receiving—
The simple herdsmen feared receiving—
'Glory to heaven, the highest given,
And neace unto the earth believing.'

And neace unto the earth believing.' Peace and good-will to mortals," still, The angel voice through earth is crying, Har, like as when the ears of men Heard, where the heaven-born child was lying.

The night is cold, the Year is old. The night is cold, the Year is old,
The pulse of time is beating slowly;
But Christmas cheer to-night is near,
And Christmas thoughts are high and holy.
We weep no tears for dying years;
Be theirs of life the common story;
But give to truth ctornal youth,
Aud crown its natal day with glory.

The heart is warm, though fleroe with storm.
The bitter wind without be blowing;
For Christmas time's the tropic effme.
Of hearts with cheerful homage glowing.
The winter grieves o'er withered leaves,
And leafless branches si, h and quiver;
But green shall be our Caristmas Take,
And besutiful, in faith, forever.

PROFESSOR ANDERSON, the unrivelled "Wizard and freemen, and was devoted to mirth and of the World." gives his opening exhibition hospitality. Early christians thought that this evening. He comes very highly recommended by the Philadelphia papers, and we have no doubt his feats of magic and pschycological experiments will interest and amuse all who go to witness them. The reputation of the Professor should be a guarantee that the entertainment will be a first class one. The programme for this evening embraces some of the Wigard's selections from his reportoire of magic. etc. The stage has been decorated in a style that will enchant all who behold it. The gold and silver apparatus is beyond description. the Sun of the spiritual world, is compared to Magic, mystery and mirth are all combined in the entertainments of Prof. Anderson, Jr. He should be seen to be appreciated. On to-morrow (Christmas day,) two performances, afternoon and evening. A rich Holiday treat for paso, too, in the spiritual world, after the dark rents to give their children.

CHRISTMAS FRSTIVAL .- The ladies of the St. Lawrence church are giving a Christmas festival, which opened this afternoon at three o'clock and will close at nine to-night. Among the attractions is a magnificent Christmas Tree, which fairly groans under the profusion of rich and rare embellishments. All the delicacies of the season will be served up in fine style, and they will offer for sale a great variety of fancy articles suitable for holiday gifts. The ladies and gentlemen, and last though not least the children of our city, we hope will give them a call in the basement of their church on Front street. Price of admission, to suit the times, only five cents.

THE EUROPEAN HOTEL RESTAURANT has been re-opened for the season under the management of Gen. E. C. Williams. In every respect this is a first class restaurant, fully equal to the best establishments of the kind in any of the large cities. It is fitted up in elegant style, and supplied with all the delicacies of the season to be had in our markets The culinary department is in charge of experienced cooks, who will serve up oysters, game and other eatables, in a way to suit the tastes of the most fastidious epicures.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES .- We presume most of the churches in our city will be open to-morrow for religious worship, as has been customary here in times past. The Episcopal and Catholic churches are handsomely decorated for the occasion, and the services will be very imposing and impressive. The latter will celebrate High Mass at five o'clock in the morning, with appropriate music by the Choir.

HARMONIC SOCIETY. - The Harmonic Society will meet as usual this evening, at half past seven, in the Lecture-Room of the Baptist Church. The attendance of every active member is desired, as important business will be brought before the Society.

DAVID HAYNES, Pres't.

H. K. Parsons, Sec'y.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquous, imported by Udolpho Wolfe, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated Schiedam Scharfs. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquous, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves.—

REV. S. J. P. ANDERSON, St. Louis. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive Warehouse, Nos. 13. 20 and 22 Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Markettleid street. His stock of Schnapps on hand resdy for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to mundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brrndies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land maxe up their minds to discard the poisbonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of St. Louis.
