BALTIMORE, Dec. 28. The meeting held at Barnum's Hotel last night; so far from being a secession gathering, as was reported, was an informal assemblage of our merchants, members of the bar, and others, to devise such measures as might be deemed necessary to the honor and interests of Maryland in the present threatening aspect of affairs. It was composed of conservative Unionloving citizens, but the privacy with which the proceedings were conducted gave an impression that it was of an opposite character.

fact we copy the following letter, published in the Baltimore "American," written by a Charleston correspondent. We commend it to the "conservative" gentlemen who participated in the late Union meeting in this city, and made such a humiliating plea to the South Carolina traitors to stay in the Union. They will no doubt read the letter with interest :

"I have heard a great deal said of the 'Union' or 'Southern Concession' meetings they are having up in the North. For all the good they will do they may as well never have been held and the breath expended on them may as well have been put to some better use. The people of South Carolina have determined their course. The die has been cast-the Rubicon is passedand the shouts of tens of millions of people. nay, the united voices of every man, woman and child living north of Maron and Dixon's line, would avail nothing in bringing about a re-action of sentiment. The late Philadelphia meeting, represented in the dispatches to have been attended by tens of thousands of people, is laughed at, as are all other efforts tending to conciliate the South. The people here claim to be above compromise. They stand upon digni-ty, and refuse to compromise themselves. Pride and love of power is a characteristic of the South Carolinian. He cannot be driven, and he won't be cajoled. If he can't hold the reins, he will let the steeds dash on to destruction. Thus it is now; pride rejects all overtures of concilia-tion. It is thought that you must be reduced to direful straits to advance concessions, and the spirit of revenge alone would induce a rejection of proposals of every kind."

A Coward and Traitor.

The chivalric Mr. Miles, who recently left his seat in Congress to take his seat in the South Carolina Secession Convention, said in that body, that in a conversation, and subsequently in a written by the South Carolina members, "If you send a solitary soldier to these parts, the instant the intelligence reaches our people -and we will take care that it does reach us before he reaches the forts—THE FORTS WILL BE TAKEN, because it is necessary to miscrable old imbecile who occupies the post of Chief Magistrate of this great Republic, and Commander-in-Chief of its

The Right Spirit.

We learn from the Pittsburg papers that large and enthusiastic meetings of the people have been held in various parts of Allegheny county, at which resolutions against any concession of Republican principles in the present crisis were adopted. Our friends in old Allegheny take the right position. A Union meeting was also held'in Washington county a few days ago. It was attended by men of all parties, and the proceedings indicate a determination to vindicate the Constitution and the Laws, by the prompt suppression of "revolutionary resistance to the Government of the Union." It cannot be denied that ninetenths of the people of this State are opposed to making any concessions to the South, either by yielding all their rights to personal liberty, or by suffering a disruption of the Confederacy, in open violation of the letter and spirit of the Constitution. We hope there will be no cowardly bending of the knee at this important period, when the "rule or ruin" party is trembling at the handwriting on the wall. In this "impending orisis" we want communication, Mr. Buchanan was told men of nerve, men of integrity and spirit, to maintain the supremacy of the laws, and repel the invaders of our personal lib erty.

ALAS! POOR TEXAS! This State has been begging from the United States for years past, and her public debt has been paid by the freemen of the North. She our safety and self-preservation." And is now one of the States that threatens to it was to this insolent menace that the secede. Let her go, in God's name! Six months hence she will, like South Carolina, be knocking at the door of the old family circle of States, praying for re-ad. mission into this Union, after having dis-Army and Navy, basely succumbed, and graced and ruined herself politically and ionominiously shrunk from his duty.

LIGHT IN A DARK PLACE,-A meeting in the Spartansburg District, South Carolina, a few days previous to the election, adopted the following resolution :

Resolved, That, according to our opinion; South Carolina is now acting rather hastily; that the Convention was called prematurely that the meeting of the Convention should not have taken place until the middle of January or the first of February, so that the course the other Southern States will pursue might be known.

SAN FRANCISCO TAKES THE HAT .-- The latest mention of the fertile Golden State is a plan to make white dogs useful. Your San Franciscan seizes his white cur, and with stencil-plate and black ink, inscribes his business card upon each side of the wretched pup, and sends him forth, a quadrupedal locomotive advertisement -a doggerotype of the fast people of a fast country, in a fast age. It is reckoned that a lively dog will be worth five dollars per day, or equal to a quarter of a column in a newspaper.

Union Meeting at Memphis. LOUISVILLE, Dec. 28.

A dispatch from Memphis states that an im-mense and enthusiastic Union Meeting was held there last night, and addressed by Neill S. Brown and others. Resolutions were passed opposing reparate State secession and coercion, and in favor of a Convention ot Southern States to demand their rights. If refused, then to take action.

Speech of Senator Baker at the Home of President Lincoln.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., Dec. 28. Senator Baker, of Oregon, was publicly received by his friends yesterday afternoon, at the Court House. The hall was densely crowd-ed. In an address occupying three-quarters of Union; scouted the idea of an independent Pacific republic, and declared, emphatically, that the Union would be preserved, and the Federal laws executed both North and South. His remarks were warmly applauded.

Mass Meeting at Pittsburg.

From the Commercial Journal of this morning-]

The greatest meeting that was ever held in Pittsburg, assembled at the Court House yes-terday. Not less than ten thousand men were on the ground—men who are prepared to de fend the Union, the Constitution and the laws We point with pride to the resolutions which appear in another column of this morning's paper. There speaks the heart of the great Republican party. The LAW, gentlemen of South Carolins, the law as promulgated by the authorities which we and you helped to elect! By their decrees, though disagreeable to us, we abide, and we shall see you doing the same thing within a year. We plant our feet, we the mighty mass of people in this great hive of industry, plant our feet firmly on the rock of the Constitution, and the gates of hell shal not prevail against it. Rebels, traitors every where may rest assured that if the country shall call upon us to turn out and defend the Union when it shall be attacked by them, as we said yesterday, we shall be there.

Thrice is he armed, who has his quarrel just. And he is naked though locked up in steel Whose conscience with injustice is corrupted.
