Pennsylvania Daily Telegraph, Monday Afternoon, December 31, 1860.

HARRISBURG, PA.

Nonday Atternoon, December 31 1860.

SEE advertisement "Ho, for the Holidays."

WIDE AWAKE. - A stated meeting of the State Capital Wide Awake Club will be held at their hall in Eby's building this evening. Every member is desired to attend, as business of importance will be laid before the club.

WILD TURKEYS. - Mr. Jacob Early, near Manada Furnace, recently shot three wild turkeys, weighing from filteen to twenty-two pounds .-These "birds" are said to be abundant and in gold condition. ----

COLD WEATHER. - There is an old saying that, "as the days begin to lenthen, the cold begins to strengthen. This is likely to prove true the present season, nothwithstanding the sec ssion movement has thrown almost every other settled institution out of its regular routine move

MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATURE, and others remaining in the city during the winter, can have any or all of the New York, Philadelphia or Baltimore daily papers served regularly to them by leaving their addresses at Bergner's Cheap Bookstore 51 Market street.

Methodist Churches. Services will commence about half-past eight o'clock, and continue until the advent of the New Year. A prayer yet learned. meeting will also be held in the English Lutheran Church, commencing at nine o'clock. -----

SNOW AND SLEIGHING .--- Snow fell here yesterday to the depth of three or four inches, making tolerable good sleighing, which some of our citizens are improving, to the pecuniary benefit of livery stable keepers. Should the snow lie until to-morrow evening, fancy turn-outs and fast nags will be in demand, and New Year's will be a lively day in this city.

Mone Large Hogs .- A few days ago Mr. John Early (miller) residing near Manada Furpace, slaughtered two hogs, fifteen months old, which weighed, when dressed, nine hundred and eighty-nine pounds. The same gentleman recently shot a large black bear near Stony Creek Forge. This kind of "game" is said to be abundant in that region, several bears having been shot within a few weeks.

THE COLORED PRESBYLERIAN CHURCH .--- The members of the congregation will make a donation call upon their pastor, the Rev. C. Gardiner, at their Hall, on to-morrow afternoon and evening. It will be a proper token of respect and regard for a worthy and useful minister of the Gospel, and may help, to some extent, in providing for his wants and comfort in his old age. It will afford an opportunity to any persons to contilbute something in this way, and thus aid this newly organized church in maintaining its services among this people.

NATIONAL FAST DAY .--- The proclamation of the President appointing Friday next as a day of "humiliation, fasting and prayer," was read by the pastors of most of our churches yesterday, who suggested a general compliance with its recommendations. There will be appropriate sermons delivered in the various churches on the morning of that day, and a general Union Prayer Meeting in the New School Presbyterian Church at three o'clock in the afternoon. We presume our citizens generally will swering but a single good purpose-increasing observe the day. Without claiming any right to suggest what will be most conducive to the right uses of this fast, we trust that all irritating and exasperating comments on political affairs will be carefully secluded from religious assemblages on that day. The public mind needs soothing, and not inflaming. THE TIME FOR CHARITY. -- Now, the night o the year has come-the sun has attained its lowest decleusion in the southern heavens-the trees have cast their foliage-the grass is seared and dead-the birds have flown to sunnier climes, and external nature has sunk to repose Now, in sympathy with the gloom and desolation around, let us take thought of the suffering poor. Ye who have no unsatisfied wantye who do not feel the pinching hand of winter -out of your abundance feed the hurgry, clothe the naked, and do God's work in tempering the wind to the shorn lamb. Sad indeed is the present lot of scores of the lonely and destitute poor in this city, who, hungry and unemployed, are shivering in the cold, while they count over and over again the long, weary months, weeks and days, that must elapse ere the comforts of a more genial atmosphere can be restored to them. Would to God that during this season of festivity among the rich and well to do, an awakened and Christian charity might prevail sufficient to carry comfort into the homes of all the children of want in our midst! Now is the season for the exercise of true charity, and the cultivation of effective benevolence towards the destitute.

SELLING LIQUOR TO A MINOR .- On Saturday afternoon the keeper of a restaurant in the basement of Wyeth's building, named Brooks, was arrested, on the oath of Mrs. McCollum, for selling liquor to her son, and robbing him while drunk. After a hearing before the Mayor, Brooks was committed to answer the charge.---He remained in prison until to-day, when he was discharged on bail.

CHIRF OF POLICE. - Officer Fleck has been discharging the duties of Chief of Police for several days past, in the absence of Mr. Water- of applicants for office here, all of whom are bury, who was summoned to Hagerstown as a pressing their claims with a degree of induswitness in the case of the woman who recently WATCH MEETINGS will be held to night in the eloped from that place with a colored man, and some of the hotels are decidedly refreshing, Fourth Street Bethel, Locust and Vine Street who was captured by him in Philadelphia .--The woman was tried on a charge of abducting the "chattel," with what result we have not look out for some terrific "howls" from the > GOOD MOVEMENT .- An effort is about to be made to change the Wide Awake club of this city into a military organization. The club now numbers about sixty active and publicspirited young men, most of whom are willing to equip. Should the movement succeed, which we do not doubt, the Capital City will soon be able to boast a first class military company. The proposition will be laid before the club at their meeting this evening.

HON. DAVID WILMOT is now in this city, stopping at the Jones House. He is a candidate for United States Senator, and his claims are being warmly pressed by his friends, who are here in large numbers from the northern section of the State. At present the popular current seems to run strongly in favor of Mr. Cowan of Westmoreland county. From the indications at this time there will be a spirited and exciting contest. ' with Lottery Circulars, in which they are told that a brilliant prize awaits them on the receipt of $10 or more. The swindle is so palpable. that a majority of the people see through it, but occasionally a "green one" is found so really verdant that he follows the direction of the Circular, encloses his money and dispatches it through the Post Office or Express. That is the end-the fool and his money parted. These circulars are sent all through the country, an the revenue of the Post Office Department.

LOTTERY SWINDLES. -- Our people are surfeited

ARRIVALS. - The Railroad trains from various ARRIVALS.—The Railroad trains from various directions continue to bring large accessions of strangers to the city, and our principal hotels are already filled. By to-morrow morning the crowd of visitors will be greatly increased, and for several days to come the hotel keepers will for several days to come the hotel keepers will are a rich pecuniary harvest. There is a host of applicants for office here, all of whom are pressing their claims with a degree of indus-try and energy rarely equalled. SEATING .- Reader, do you skate? Of course you do. Old and young, wise and simple, male and female, rich and poor, all indulge in this most health-giving and enlivening recreation. Who wouldn't skate? Recreations of all kinds. gymnasiums, ball playing, the dumb bell, &c., have become very popular and fashionable. And among others, skating has become a favorite, and this is one of the few things that must be permanent. And why? It imparts a healthful glow to the cheeks, a fresher tingle to the blood, and affords an endless fund of amusement. It is fashionable, and all can indulge in it without fear of reproof. And well is it that it is so. The winter was formerly a season when the feminine portion of the community were obliged to remain within doors the greater part of the time, and though anthracite may be a very convenient thing in its place, it is not a remarkably beneficials near neighbor. Now, good buy to sleepy days, warm parlors, and ruddy grates for a time; take the skates, and go to the nearest pond, on with them, and glide away over the glassy surface. You don't need fire to keep you warm; exercise of all the muscles and limbs will furnish natural heat enough. What if you do feel a little weary and limb-sore the next day? 'ti only nature, showing that she appreciates what you are dolog. May skating Lever die out, so long as there is water, and cold weather enough to freeze it.

He is thoroughly familiar with the business and bakes first quality bread and cakes. We commend him to public patronage.

AN EXPLANATION .- Mr. Joslah B. Hicks takes exception to our recent notice of his arrest, on this city. We give him the full benefit of his statement, which is as follows :--

In the first place, I am no preacher nor did I ever profess to be. Secondly, I am no thief, as will be very conclusively established at our risburg. The next day I gave security to make my appearance at the next term of Court, where I will appear with pleasure and prove my innccence, by respectable citizens of this coun-ty, to the satisfaction of all who feel an interest in this matter and to the discomfiture of the man whom you choose to call Mr. Same Now man whom you choose to call Mr. S raw. Now, have never been attacked upon any occasion, and it is injustice to them as well as to myself thing that I am not guilty of, and for which he will hereafter have to suffer the consequences. JOSIAH B, HICKS.

action of the Mayor is highly commendable. and it is to be hoped the police officers will do their duty in the premises.

CARRIER'S ADDRESS .- The Carrier of the DAILY TELEGRAPH requests us to say to the patrons of the paper in this city, whom he has faithfully served during the past year, that on New Year's morning he will pay his respects New Year's morning he will pay his respects and present them with a copy of his annual Bigler, whose term of office will expire on the address. It is the production of one of the best writers in our city; and as the present "crisis" is prolific of stirring themes, we have no doubt it will be read with more than ordi-the different the late election has secured in our Legislature, ensures to our party the privi-lege of elevating one of our political faith to the high office of United States Senator for the nary interest. The Carrier is confident that his natrons will reasond in a manner satisfac. his patrons will respond in a manner satisfac-field, all of whom have contributed in a greattory to themselves and gratifying to him.

SLIDING .- They must have some jolly good fellows, as well as sensible men, in the City Council of Bangor, to judge by the following model paper. A resolution to restrict the boys

It would be very difficult for your committee to place any limits to the disposition of sliding and letting things slide, which is so prevalent a charge of larceny, made by a Mr. Straw, of pensity for sliding was introduced into the world by our first parents, who, for filding from the path of virtue into the gully of dis-obedience, were obliged to slide out of Paradise; and their descendants have been addicted to the same practice. The church was instituted to reclaim men and maintain virtue and religion by officer Fleck at Fredericksburg, Lebanon county, on the 19th inst, and brought to Harfruit in a race of backsliders. Of late years this propensity has broken out and made rapid progress in the political world. Goy. Banks originated the famous phrase-"Let the Union slide !" Since then there has sprung up a large party at the Scuth, which, strange as it may seem, has adopted the motto of the chief of friends the justice to correct your error in your this county who are old, well tried and respect-tizens and whose remutation and respectable citizens and whose reputation and character have never been attacked upon any occasion side !"-as it is to hear that other equally portentous phrase-"let her rip !"-your committhat it is hould be now, because this man Straw saw fit to have me unjustly arrested for some-thing the tree feel that it would be a great assumption on their part to limit the facilities for "Young "Young America" to emulate the example of the elders, and we have come to the conclusion to let the boys slide and everybody look out for their shins,

United States Senator.

One of the most important duties to be performed by our State Legislature during the approaching session will be the election of a er or less degree to our late glotious triumph, and deserve to be well rewarded for their labor and zeal at the hands of our party. Only one of the number, however, can be chosen United States Senator, and it therefore be comes the members of the Legislature, while from sliding in certain streets had been refer-red to a committee, who thus gaily reported in favor of "letting 'em slide:" serving of the honor by reason of his faithfulness to the principles of our party. Among the prominent candidates, whose names have been mentioned in connection with the office is the Hon. THADEUS STEVENS, the present representative in Congress from Lancaster county. Mr. Stevens is one of the pioneer Republicans in this State, and has labored long and ardently in the front ranks of the party. His whole life has been devoted to opposing the black tide of Locofocoism, and to his friends it seems strange that he has never heretofore been justly rewarded for his valuable services by the party whose principles he has so earnestly labored to establish and maintain. What more fitting reward could we offer him at the present sime than the one above alluded to, and what better opportunity do we want to pay a and serve the State at the debt we owe him, same time !- York Rep.
