Brrndies and Wines. His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land mare up their minds to discard the poisonors stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Logons.

We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of Where and there and the works, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Whese and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of op-ponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imita tions, ruinous alike to health and human happlness.
