HARRISBURG.

Tuesday Atternoon, January 8 1861.

Y. M. C. A.—A stated meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held at tendance is earnestly requested.

THE WEEK OF PRAYER.—The opening services of the week of prayer for the conversion of the world, took place in the Fourth Street Bethel last evening. Persons who were present inform us that the meeting was well attended, and the exercises interesting and impressive,-The meeting this evening will be held in the First Lutheran Church. Subject-"The attainment of a higher standard of holiness by the children of God."

THE EIGHTH OF JANUARY .-- There was no general observance by our citizens to-day of the anhotels, during the entire day.

VIOLATING AN ORDINANCE. -In the case of Mr Charles S. Segelbaum, indicted for violating the ordinance which prohibits the obstruction of pavements, a hearing took place before Mayor nothing is held sacred, and people for a shadow Kepner last evening. A number of witnesses were examined, and the complaint being fully of Liberty, like midnight burglars robbing sustained. Mr. Segelbaum was ordered to pay five dollars fine and costs, amounting in the aggregate to $8 61. This was his second offence, and the probability is that he will be with municipal laws, after due official notice, it is proper that they should be punished.

CHIEF OF POLICE.—RESIGNATION AND APPOINT-CHIEF OF POLICE.—RESIGNATION AND APPOINTMENT.—This morning Col. Isaac S. Waterbury resigned the office of Chief of Police, with the view of taking a more lucrative position on one of our principal Railroads. The Mayor at appointment of Mr. Henry Radabaugh, who was sworn in and entered upon the duties of the office. For some years past he has been one of office. For some years past he has been one of among the nations of the earth, grant that we our most competent and efficient detective conmay be enabled to show our gratitude for Thy stables, and is just the man for Chief of Police. We congratulate Mr. Radabaugh upon his promoted for the position.

EDITORIAL VISITOR.—Our good looking cotemporary of the Centre Democrat is now in the city, and this morning illuminated the TELEGRAPH sanctum with the light of his blooming countenance. He survives the attack made upon him in this morning's Patriot and Union, and says his "voice is still for war." Should circumstances require it, Colonel Brisbin is ready to go "away down Souf to Dixie," at the head of a regiment of armed Wide-Awakes, to crush out the fireeating traitors, and "save the Union." The Colonel is probably a little over-zealous in a appropriately observed the day, as a testimony good cause, but he is a clever gentleman whose of their respect and veneration for the memory fine social qualities render him a favorite in of the departed hero and patriot who, whether private circles.

The present indications are that the inauguration of try; and subsequently, in a crisis like the prethe incoming Governor will be attended with sent, crushed out the "domestic traitors" who the same degree of "pomp and circumstance" that characterized similar occasions in times The action of the Legislature to-day, therefore, past. Gen. Williams states that but two milital and the reading of Jackson's memorable Prory companies, outside of this county, have ordered quarters to be provided. We have reason to believe, however, that there will be several handsome military companies from abroad, which, in connection with those of our city and county, will make a creditable display. The Wide-Awakes have determined, for justifiable reasons, not to take any part in the demonstration as equipped organizations.

PREMATURE ANNOUNCEMENT.—We have reliable authority for saying that the announcement of Gen. Negley's appointment to the position of Adjutant General, recently copied into this paper from the Centre Democrat, was premature and mauthorized. The term of the present incumpent, General Wilson, does not expire for some nonths; and in view of this fact it is said that overnor Curtin will take time to canvass careilly and deliberately the claims of the various ival candidates. While not doubting the cometency of any of the gentlemen who aspire to the position of Adjutant General, we preferand have repeatedly expressed our preferenceeneral E. C. WILLIAMS, of this city, whose laims, on the score of merit at least, are fully qual if not superior to those of most of his rials. He is an accomplished soldier, thoroughy posted in military affairs, eminently qualified or the position, and by his gallant services on the tented field during a long and bloody camaign in Mexico, entitled to the gratitute and dmiration of the people of his native State. Large and beautiful American Flags the ballotings: also floated over the European Hotel and Jones House during the day, in honor of the occasion.

THE AGONY OVER.—The spirited but friendly contest for United States Senator, which has kept the Republican politicians in a state of unceasing excitement for two weeks past, was ended to-day at twelve o'clock, by the election of Hon. EDGAR COWAN, of Westmoreland county, one of the representative men of the age, who will fill the exalted position with credit to niversary of the battle of New Orleans, but the himself and honor to the old Keystone State. Mr. Cowan, who is now in this city, received the hearty congratulations of his Philadelphia, was placed in nomination by a friends, at the Jones House this afternoon.

WASHINGTON'S PRAYER.—In these days when are ready to break open and destroy the Temple church, everything in the least calculated to bring them back to a realization of their condition is a gain on the side of right, justice and humanity. IN MEMORIUM.—This being the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans, on which occasion the beloved and lamented Andrew Jackson achieved one of the most brilliant victories over the British troops, on record, the members of both branches of the Legislature assembled in the Hall of the House at eleven o'clock, and as the leader of victorious hosts on the battlefield, or at the head of the Republic as its Chief GOVERNOR CURTIN, we are informed, will reach Magistrate, served his country with a devotion the Union. The reading of the document, so well suited to the present condition of affairs, and so replete with Union-loving sentiments, was listened to with marked attention made a good impression, and encouraged all present to pledge anew their fidelity to a Union, purchased by the blood and treasure of our forefathers, and to adopt the language of the author of the Proclamation : "THE UNION MUST AND SHALL BE PRESERVED." When the Clerk finished the reading of the document, a large number of copies were ordered to be printed for circulation among the people.

> COMMON SCHOOLS.—We are under obligations to the Superintendent of Common Schools for a copy of his annual report, embodying a wellwritten and interesting review of the past history and present condition of the system, with reports of County Superintendents, and tabular statements of the various districts. From this document we glean the following statistics relative to the common schools of our own county

THE FAT CATTLE, a description of which ap peared in our columns yesterday, arrived here this morning and were quartered in the stable attached to Mr. Buck's hotel, where they have deen visited during the day by admiring crowds. They are the finest specimens of young Durhams we have seen for a long time. To-morrow morning they will be publicly exhibited in the market place. In the afternoon they will be slaughtered at Mr. ALEXANDER KOSER'S butcher shop, corner of Mary's alley and Second street, and on Saturday morning served up to his customers in market, at prices to suit the times. We expect to see a grand rush for choice "cuts" of these splendid specimens of the bovine genus.

Losr.—On Thursday last, a Muff of dark mink sable. It has a white string in one end and a small piece of yellow silk sewed on the inside, for a mark. The finder will be rewarded by leaving it at this office.
