No Surrender of Principle.

The home organ of the President elect which no doubt speaks "by authority," fought over the question of slavery extension. The Republicans took ground in with the solemnity of the scene. The favor of free territories and the right and chaplain made an earnest prayer—such an duty of Congress to exclude slavery therefrom. On that ground it conquered, and its representatives should see to it that there is no flinching from that positionno surrender of principle. We want the President elect and the Republican members of Congress to say to the South and to the world, that slavery shall not pollute derson drew the "Star Spangled Banner" another inch of free soil belonging to this up to the top of the staff, the band broke Government, if it is in their power to out with the national air of "Hail Columprevent it. We have steadily opposed the restoration of the Missouri Compromise line, and are equally opposed to any the officers, soldiers and workmen. "If," other Tegislation that shall surrender any says the narrator, "South Carolina had at free territory to slavery. We are just that moment attacked the fort, there selfish enough to want it all for freedom. would have been no hesitation upon the When States are to be formed out of the part of any man within it about defending Territories, then let the people framing that flag." those States say whether they will or will not have slavery, and let Congress respect their decision; but until that time let the Republican party use all its power to keep the territories free. We are oppossed to any amendment of the Constitution that shall give to slavery further guaranties, rights or privileges beyond those now given. We want to see our government turned back into the chan nel in which its framers originally placed it a channel leading it to free. dom-and we are utterly opposed to legislation looking or tending in any other direction. Slavery is the creature of local law, and slave-holders, as such, have no rights or privileges under the Constitution -except a Congressional representation of their peculiar property, and a national law for the rendition of fugitives-and these are all the rights they ever ought to rience of the latter in military affairs, and have, and, in our humble opinion, all that does not attempt to set up an arbitrary they will ever got. Republican members of Congress have pledged themselves to this policy, and they must live up to it or basely betray the trust reposed in them by their constituents. We believe that Mr. Lincoln is planted firmly on this ground, and will not abandon it. So far as he and the Republican party can accomplish it, the TERRITORIES shall be free. The character of the States to be formed out of the Territories must be determined by the people who frame and adopt their Constitutions. There will be -there can be-no abandonment of this position by Mr. Lincoln or his party."

gentleman who recently returned from Fort Sumter, details in a Baltimore paper an impressive incident that took place there on Major Anderson taking possession. It is known that the American flag, brought away from Fort Moultrie, was raised at Sumter precisely at noon on the 27th ult., but the incidents of that "flag raising" have not been related. It was a scene that will be a memorable reminiscence in the lives of those who witnessed it. A short time before noon Major Anderson assembled the whole of his little force, with the work men employed on the fort, around the foot of the flag-staff. The national ensign was attached to the cord, and Major Anderson, holding the end of the lines in his hands. them on their knees, all deeply impressed appeal for support, encouragement and mercy as one would make who felt that "man's extremity is God's opportunity." Important Message from the President.

OLD BUCK SHOWING BACK BONE.

THE UNION SHALL BE PRESERVED.

WASHINGTON, Jan 9. HOUSE .- Mr. STRATION, (N. J.,) asked leave to present the memorial of the citizens of Princeton, New Jersey, on the subject of National affairs, containing practical suggestions.

Mr. Burnett, (Ky.,) objected.

The Spraker laid before the House a message from the President. The President says at the opening of the session he called attention to in an article under the above caption says knelt reverently down. The officers, solt the dangers to the Union, and recommended that "the recent Presidential battle was diers and men clustered around, many of have the effect of tranquilizing the country and saving it from the perils in which it had been needlessly and unfortunately placed. His convictions then expressed remain unchanged.

He regrets to say that matters instead of being better, are still worse, and hope is diminished. Alluding to the condition of South Care ished. Alluding to the condition of South Car-olina, he says he has no other alternative but to collect the revenue and protect the public property as far as practicable. He appeals to Congress to say, in their might, that "THE UNION SHALL AND MUST BE PRESERVED," by all Constitutional means. He recommends Congress to devote themselves to prompt action with a view to peace. He, the President, had warned his country of the danger. He felt that the duty devolving upon him had been faithfully though imperfectly performed, and he was himself conscious that he had meant well for

A division of the Territory in the line of 86 degrees 30 minutes, is suggested, as calculated to produce an adjustment. It was an imputato produce an adjustment. It was an imputa-tion on the members to say they will hesitate for a moment. The danger is upon us. In several of the States the Forts and Arsenals of the U.S. have been seized by aggressive acts. Congress should endeavor to give the difficul-ties a peaceful solution. He states the reasons why he had refrained from sending troops to Charleston harbor, believing this would have furnished a pretext, if not a provocation, on the part of South Carolina.

SENATE.—A message was recieved from the resident of the United States. Mr. Simenic presented a resolution of inquiry, that the President inform the Senate whether

John B. Floyd at present fills the post of Secretary of War, and if not who fills the office, and if the appointment as acting or Secretary had been made and when, and by what authority it was made, and why the fact of such appoint-ment has not been communicated to the Senate?

Important from the National Capital. WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.

There seems to be a mistake or misapprehenor man under my command to admit the sion somewhere. It is denied by gentlemen very intimately related to the Administration, possibility of disunion, and if I hear that the recruits to Fort Sumter were ordered any one has spoken in favor of it, I will without the previous sanction of the President; any one has spoken in layor of 16, 1 will and further, that the subject was discussed in court martial him with all possible expe-the cabinet, and acting Secretary of War Holt, as well as some of the other members of the of the President that the recruits should at once be sent.

The War Department is in possession of information that the Governor of South Carolina Secretary Holt and Gen. Scott, as the has forbidden the United States sub-Treasurer at Charleston, from paying the drafts of the Paymaster in favor of Major Anderson and his command, and the sub-Treasurer has refused accordingly. Half a million in specie is daily expected from New York by the Treasury Department.

Commander Maury says the long passage of the Levant does not, in his judgment, justify the supposition of her loss, and gives the reason for his belief in her safety.

Resignation of Secretary Thompson.

Washington, January 8. Mr. Thompson to-day resigned to the President his commission as Secretary of the Interior, on the ground that after the order to reinforce Major Anderson was countermanded on the 31st of December, there was a distinct understanding that no troops should be ordered South without the subject being considered and knowledge of Secretary Thompson, sent 250 men in the Star of the West, to reinforce Major Anderson. Not learning of this till this morn-ing, he resigned forthwith.

Weakness and Debility.—All who suffer from weakness or debility, where there is a want of energy, should at once have recourse to JUSSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS. They immediately purify the blood, and act upon the mainspring of life, glvong strength, and vigor to the system. Young persons entering into wo manbood, with a derangement of the functions; and to mothers at the turn of life, these Pills will be most efficacious in correcting the tide of life that may be on the urn. Young and eluerly men suffer in a similar manner at the same periods, when there is always danger, they should therefore undergo a course of this purifying medicine, which ensures lasting health.

This great Household Medicine ranks among the leading nocessaries of life, as it is well known to the world that it cures complaints other remedies cannot reach; this fact is as well established as that the Sun lights the World.

Sold by all medicine dealers.
