THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE LEGISLA-TURE. - We are again compelled to omit the regular proceedings of the Legislature owing to the great length of the debates Both Houses are earnestly engaged upon resolutions referring to the present crisis of the country, and several able speeches were made to-day both in the Senate and House of Representatives.

Cameron and the Cabinet.

None of the Cabinet appointments made by Mr. Lincoln has been received with more favor throughout the country than that of our distinguished Senator, Gen. Simon Cameron. His selection is heartily endorsed by nearly all the Republican journals, and commended by many of the most prominent conservative Democratic papers. The Washington Star, alluding to the tender of the Treasuryship to Gen. CAMERON, "hopes that he may see fit to accept the position, not only because no other member of his party is better fitted to discharge its immediate duties, but because he is well known to all who know the antecedents of the public men of the times, as being eminently conservative upon the slavery question. He is a gentleman of proverbial sacharacter, and the fact that he has been invited to become a member of the new administration will do much to assure the South that it will not prove ultra upon the slavery question."

The Lafayette Courier, published in the State of Indiana, in announcing Gen. CAMERON's appointment, says, "the integrity of purpose and financial ability of Gen. CAMERON, peculiarly fit him to preside over the Treasury Department of the Steamer General Church discovered the steamer Star of the West, and signalled the Government. Should Mr. Lincoln be equally fortunate in his other appointments, the country will feel assured of They remained in anxious suspense, but ready having an enlightened and patriotic administration, that will soon restore peace and prosperity to our distracted country."

The Mob Rules the South.

It certainly requires but little insigh ino Southern society to see that the cotton States are now entirely ruled by the mob. fired.

At the South those who such that the steamer was trifling, only two out of seventeen shots taking effect, but there is no idea as to the extent of the damage. Fort Sumpter made no demonstration except that clamor most about Southern rights are the men who own neither land or negroes. The New York Heraid, the most clamorous of Northern secession papers, contains Pickens, and was afterward escorted to the boat in its money article the following letter and re-embarked for Fort Sumpter. written by a large planter slave owner:

I am not notified that poor whites; the slaveholders are compelled to fall in with it for fear of having their property configured. The largest slave owner in this State was warned, the other day, that if he gave vent to his Union sentiments he would be lynched and his property confiscated. He took the thint and left the State. It is so in every county, and also in Alabama, Lousiana and Georgia. The interests of the owners of slaves, and property of every kind, make them friends of the Union; but in the present state of feeling in these States, they cannot declare themselves without running more risk than they care to encounter. The hope of us slave holders is that the Government will at last do something to check the present revolutionary tide, so as to range of the guns of my fort. In order to save, as far as in my power, the shedding of blood give us a chance to organize a reectionary party without endangering ourselves, our cotton, or our necks. If people here felt certain that the United States Government would fight vigor-onsly, a submissionist party would soon make itself heard.

Position of Maryland.

The State of Maryland is true to the The State of Maryland is true to the Union now as she has ever been. Her voice is heard through a letter from her ted States, and that any attempt to send United States, and that any attempt to send United States troops to Charleston harbor to reinforce the forts would be regarded as gallant Governor Hicks, in one of those passionate and soul stirring appeals which arouse the enthusiasm and patriotism of the masses. Dropping the formalism of office, he throws himself at once on the hearts of the people, on their State pride, their fidelity to the Union, and their own right to act independently of foreign dictation. #### Carrying Out the Programme.

The seizure of the Forts and Arsenals in Georgia, Alabama and North Carolina, is only a part of the programme long since blocked out at Washington, and with connivence of spies and traitors in the Cabinet. Secretary Floyd ungarrisoned them purposely to aid the conspiracy, and the Disunion Governors were fully apprised of their intended condition. The plan was to make a simultaneous movement through the South, but that has failed. Every one of these forts will be retaken in thirty days after the 4th of property and execute the laws. And so far as the revenue is concerned, it will six should be extended to the bearer of distillar the collected of the revenue to the rest of t has passed, and the traitors who are stimulating disunion may as well know it now as hereafter.

Departure of a Special Messenger for Washington.

[The following dispatch was received at ten clock last night, and issued in an extra edition of the Telegraph at an early hour this morn-

Augusta, Jan. 10. This morning's Charleston Courier gives the following particulars in relation to the attack upon the steamer Star of the West: About half past six o'clock yesterday even-for what they believed was sure to comenamely, a volley from Fort Sumpter.

The Star of the West rounded the point and took the ship channel inside of the bar, and proceeded the interest of the part of the bar, and proceeded the interest of the bar. seeded straight forward until she was opposit Morris' Island, three quarters of a mile from the battery, when a ball was fired athwart the bows of the steamer. The Star of the West displayed the stars and stripes, and as soon as it was unfurled a succession of heavy shots was the guns were run out of the embrasures bearing on Morris Island and Kort Moultrie.

About 11 o'clock a boat from Fort Sumpter, bearing Lieut. Hall, with a white flag, approached the city. He had an interview with Govern

Major Anderson to Governor Pickens. The communication from Major Anderson is as follows:

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR OF SOUTH

CAROLINA :-Sir-Two of your batteries fired this morne war has been declared by South Carolina against the United States, and I cannot but think that this hostile act was committed without your sanction or authority. Under that hope, I refrained from opening fire upon your battery. I have the honor, therefore, respectfully to ask whether the above-mentioned act—one I believe without parallel in the history of our country, or any other civilized government was consistent. other civilized government was commit as far as in my power, the shedding of blood, I beg you will have due notification made of my decision to all concerned. Hoping, however, that your answer may justify a further continuance of forbearance on my part, I am Respectfully, ROBT. ANDERSON.

Reply of Governor Pickens.

Governor Pickens in his reply, after stating names that have been ennobled in this struggle with treason, that of Govornor the harbor has been tolerated by the authorities of this State, and while the act of which you complain is in perfect consistence with the rights and duties of the State, it is not perceived how far the conduct you purpose to adopt can find a parallel in the history of any country, or reconcile it with any other purpose of your government than imposing on the State the condiernment than imposing on the tion of a conquered province.

F. W. Pickens.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11. House.—Mr. Coohran, (N. Y.) presented a emorial from the New York Chamber of Comnerce, for the encouragement of mail facilities through subsidies, the steamer lines between San Fransisco and Shanghae, etc. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

Mr. Lovejov, (Ill.) asked leave to offer a reso lution declaring as the judgment of the House, that in the present state of the country it would be wise and patriotic for the President to confer temporarily the power of Commanderin-chief of the Army and Navy on Lieut. Gen. Scott, and charge him to see that the Republic receives no detriment. Mr. Jones (Ga.) and others objected.

Mr. Curris, (Iowa,) suggested that the President could delegate no such power.

The Speaker said the resolution had not been received by the House, but was merely read for information; besides objection had been made to its introduction, therefore there could be no debate on its merits.

Mr. Branch, (N. C.) hoped the resolution would be voted on by yeas and nays.

There were no further proceedings on the

Mr. Hickman, (Pa.) asked and was excused from serving on the select committee to which was referred the President's special message; he said he had a great many reasons for the request, but it was not necessary to repeat them. The House then proceeded to the consideration of private bills. SENATE.—Mr. BIGLER presented memorials from citizens of Lancaster county, asking for the restoration of peace and the preservation of the Union, and favoring the proposition of the Senator from Kentucky; also three memorials of a similar import from Philadelphia. Mr. Cameron presented eight memorials from citizens of Pennsylvania favorable to the Crittenden resolutions. Mr. Davis, (Miss.) from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported a bill, inquiring into the expenses of military establishments and forts. A debate sprung up on the order of bu Mr. Bigler called for the yeas and nays on taking up the Crittenden resolutions. The vote resulted in yeas 15, nays 31. resulted tu yeas 10, nays 31.

Mr. Hunter, (Va.) obtained the floor. He said before the end of this month six or seven States will have seceded from the Union. It is no more now a question of saving or pre-serving the old Union. We will reconstruct a new government and a new Union, which we hope and propose to be primanent. In 1820, the North declared war against the social system of the South; considering it to be founded in sin. Personal liber-ty bills have been passed to annul the Con-stitution of the United States. A sectional President has been nominated and elected, and is to come to power, who once declared that is no more now a question of saying or preis to come to power, who once declared that the country must be all free or all slave, the object being to create a servile war among us. The social system of the people affect the mora peing. The south has all the elements to found an empire both great and prosperous.— To avoid this there must be the following amendments of the Constitution: First-Congress must have no power to abolish slavery in any State, the District of Colum-bia, the dock yards, forts and arsenals of the United States Second—No power to obstruct the slave trade between the States.

Third—It shall be the duty of each State to suppress within its jurisdiction all armed invasion of another.

Fourth—Any State should be admitted with or without slavery, according to the inclination of its people.

Fifth.—It should be the duty of a State to restore fugitives or pay the value of the same to the States from which they fled. Sixth.—Fugitives from justice should be deemed to be those offending the laws within the jurisdiction of a State and who escape there-Seventh-Congress should recognize and protect property wherever the United States has exclusive jurisdiction.
