SKATING.—The great Philadelphia skater, Peter Weaver, is now sojourning in our city. Yesterday afternoon he was at the canal basin testing his activity and skill on its crystal surface, in presence of a large crowd of admiring spectators. Mr. Weaver is "some" on skates.

WIDE-AWAKE !-- A meeting of the State Capital Wide Awake Club will be held in the Wigwam on Monday evening at seven o'clock.— Every member of the Club is desired to be in attendance, as special business of importance will be submitted for action.

FUNERAL SERMON.—The funeral sermon of Frederick Heiny, deceased, will be preached tomorrow morning in the Vine Street Methodist Church. The Paxton Hose Company, of which he was a member, have resolved to attend in a body, and invite the entire fire department to join with them. The procession will leave the Paxton Hose house at ten o'clock.

Official Visit.—Hon. Thomas H. Burrows, Superintendent of the Common Schools of the Commonwealth, with four Commissioners appointed by the Governor, will visit the Normal School at Edinboro, Erie county, on the 23d inst., for the purpose of making the necessary inspection preparatory to its recognition by the State authorities.

THE INAUGURATION BALL of the Hope Fire Company comes off on Monday evening in Brant's spacious hall, which has been elegantly decorated for the occasion. Strangers in the city who design attending should procure tickets at once, as they are in great demand. The "Hivers" are determined to make this the most brilliant party of the season, and they seldom fail to accomplish whatever they undertake.

RECEPTION OF VISITING MILITARY.-The members of the Cameron Guard are ordered to meet at their armory on Monday at twelve o'clock. fully equipped, for the purpose of receiving risiting companies. It is understood that at least three companies from abroad will arrive by the trains reaching here about one o'clock. Others are expected to arrive by the evening trains. It is probable there will be eight or ten companies in attendance, most of them accompanied by equipped bands of music.

WEEK OF PRAYER .- The closing services of the "week of prayer" will take place this evening in the New School Presbyterian Church, corner of Market Square. Subject-"The speedy overthrow of all false religions, and the full accomplishment of the prayer, "Thy Kingdom come." These meetings commenced on Monday evening last, and have been continued nightly throughout the week, no doubt with great profit to all who participated in them, and benefit to the cause of religion.

INFANTICIDE.—On Wednesday last a child, ap-An inquest was held upon the body, and a verdict of "murder by some person unknown to the jury," was rendered. A colored girl, who has been living at the Altoona House, was suspeected of being the mother of the child and its murderer. She was forthwith arrested, when to fail to await a trial.

Another Robbery .- On Thursday night a sleigh and sett of harness were stolen from the stable of H. W. Hoffman, Esq., residing about two miles west of this city in Susquehanna township. It is supposed they were taken by the same fellow who stole Mr. Hoke's horse, an account of which we published yesterday. The Chief of Police last evening telegraphed to officers of neighboring towns, giving a description of the stolen articles, and we trust the thief will be captured.

After writing the above we learned of the arrest, at Elizabethtown, of a man answering to the name of Samuel Washington Minney, with and lodged in prison. This morning he had a hearing before the Mayor, who committed him for trial. The man is evidently insane; and from his incoherent raving while under examithe State Lunatic Hospital. He says he stole the horse and sleigh with the intention of pro-President Buchanan to report himself there ject for a lunatic asylum than a prison.

RESIGNATION AND APPOINTMENT.—Our friend Dr. Wm. H. Egle, recently appointed to a clerkship in the Post Office, finding the duties so laborious as to interfere greatly with his professional practice, resigned the position a day or two ago. The vacancy thus created was filled by the appointment of a young man named Whitman, of Halifax, brother of the former clerk of that name.

ARREST FOR MURDER. - This forenoon a man named John Trump, of Fishing Creek Valley, was brought to this city on a charge of having, about four years ago, caused the death, by strangulation, of the wife of his brother Samuel, Mrs. Sarah Trump. The information was made by another brother named George Trump, upon whose oath the defendant was committed to prison by Alderman Peffer for trial at the next Court. It appears that family difficulties and altercations led to the exposure of the crime with which the prisoner stands charged; and circumstances, recently developed, are strongly PASSAGE OF TROOPS .- The troops from Fort Leavenworth arrived here about nine o'clock this morning over the Pennsylvania Railway. The force comprised two hundred and thirty-two equipped men and one hundred and twenty-seven horses, filling twenty-two cars. The party remained here about half an hour, and were provided with refreshments in the depot dining saloon. Their arrival attracted an immense crowd of people, who were anxious to get a sight of so large a force of Uncle Sam's soldiers. The troops left at half-past nine o'clock, on the Northern Central Railway for Baltimore, under command of Colonel Brown, who had been dispatched here for that purpose by the War Department. A portion of them go to Fort McHenry, and the balance to Washington city. We have seldom seen a finer looking body of soldiery. Col. Brown, in conversation with some of our citizens, very freely expressed his opinion of the runaway-secretary Floyd, who has long been engaged in supplying the South with arms and sacking the Southern forts and arsenals, with a view to the present treasonable movements, and denounced him as an archtraitor who richly deserves to be hung. The Colonel is an intelligent and courteous gentleman, an experienced and brave officer, who "keeps step to the music of the Union," and can be relied upon in any emergency.

A "LAGER BEER" DENOMINATION. -In a recent prosecution in New York city against the keeper of a lager beer saloon which has been crowded every Sunday by pleasure loving Germans, the proprietor set up a novel defence. He claimed that his saloon was a meeting house for the "German Shaker Association," and that dramatic representations and drinking formed a part of their social worship. The court set aside this line of defence very summarily, and the ingenious proprietor suffered the full severity of the law. Our readers may be curious to know the "creed" of this new denomination, of which the theater and lager beer form so important a part. Here it is:

Constitution of the Religious Sect called the "Geran Shaker Association."—The undersigned hereby form a Society for the passing of a day of the week called Sunday, in a manner worthy of cultivated and thinking men, to rest from the labor of the preceding days, and to gather strength for the following. THAT SERENADE TO THE GOVERNOR .- The Wide-Awake Club of this city had made arrangements morning, having been picked up on the streets to turn out in full equipments, with lighted torches, and a band of music, to-night, on the The Mayor reprimanded and ordered them to arrival of the Governor elect, and honor him with a welcome serenade. The course, however, of the Committee of Arrangements for the Inauguration, induced our Wide-Awake brethren to rescind their action, and the contemplated parade and serenade will not come off. They fear that such a demonstration, by a "political organization," might, in the eloquent and classic language of a gentleman of the House of Representatives, "be unsuitable to the occasion, tending to make it a burlesque and a disgraceful cene!" The Wide-Awakes, therefore, having no desire either to "compromise" the Governor elect, or to increase the "weakness of knees" exhibited by certain Republicans who owe all they are politically to the organization, reconsidered their action, as above stated, and will preserve their coal oil for a demonstration on some future and more appropriate occasion.

> OUR COAL REGIONS .- We glean from the Lykenstown Journal some items of interest relative to our coal regions. The productions of coal from the Lykens Valley region, during the past year, was about thirty-nine thousand tons more than that of the preceding year, the entire production of 1859 being one hundred and thirty-eight thousand seven hundred and twelve tons, and that of 1860 nearly one hundred and seventy-eight thousand. The bulk of the increase is from the colliery worked by Henry Thomas, Esq., on the Short Mountain company's property. We anticipate next year, the production of more than two hundred thousand tons. The Shamokin region has produced two hundred thousand four hundred and thirtyeight tons, being an increase of nearly thirty thousand tons over the production of 1850. thousand tons. We learn that this decrease has been owing to arrangements for a reorganization of the company, but little coal having sive authority to legislate for the Territories, and while I certainly shall never directly or in any State. cut, in the mines. The reorganization, we learn, will shortly be completed, when operations will be commenced on a large scale and its production largely increased. The entire production of the three regions is nearly four hundred and eighty thousand tons, being an increase, as compared with 1859, of about thirty Preparations to Return and Effect a Landing at all Hazards!

New York, Jan. 12. The steamship Star of the West arrived here, during the night, on her return from the unsuc-cessful attempt to reinforce Fort Sumpter. The SECOND DISPATCH.

The Star of the West brings back the troops destined for the relief of Fort Sumpter. The report from Charleston was correct in relation to two of the balls fired at her taking effect and the engine-beam. No person was hurt. She struck on the bar twice in coming out. At night, steamers were seen coming out of the harbor, supposed to be in pursuit. The same night she spoke the ship Emily St. Pierre, from Liverpool to Charleston, and refused admittance in consequence of the American flag being displayed. When leaving Charleston Harbor, the Star of the West received several parting shots from the battery on Morris Island, and they all fell short. The general feeling on board now is to return to Charleston, with proper means of defence, and effect a landing at all hazards.

speech, related a conversation with the President, showing a breach of faith on the part of the latter, as leading to his resignation. He counselled resistance to federal coercion. cession speeches were also delivered by Lieuten-ant General Montague, Attorney General Tucker, James A. Siddon and others. The temporizing policy of the State Legislature was severely commented on. Great enthusiasm was manifested

It cannot be saved by proving secession illegal or unconsti-tutional; nor can anything be gained by dis-cussing the right of the Federal Government to coerce States. If disunion is to go on, this question will give place to the more practical one, whether the many seceding States shall coerce the remaining members to acquiesce in a dissolution. He argues against the folly of separation, its effect upon the standing of the United States among the nations of the world, the difficulties a new Southern Confederacy would encounter in forming treaties, and liable at any time to become the prey of stronger powers. In summing up his arguments, he

HOUSE.—Mr. CLARK, (Mo.) said that after reading the telegraphic accounts that the Post-Office Sub-treasury and Custom House had been taken possession of by the U.S. troops, he desired to explain for fear the account might lead the people to presume that these offices were located in the same building. As to what condition of things at St. Louis could justify such an act, he knew not. The people there, so far, have been quiet and loyal to the Union. The legislature of Missouri is now in session, and will consider what measures may be necessary for the perpetuation of the Union. She makes no threats, while she is determined to take such steps as her honor and safety require; and this she will do in her own way and in her own

SEWARD'S GREAT UNION SPEECH.

GEN. DIX'S NOMINATION CONFIRMED.

UNITY OF THE NEW CABINET. DIFFICULTY BETWEEN TOOMBS AND GEN. SCOTT.

Washington, Jan. 12.

CABINET MEETING. There was a Cabinet meeting last night, which was continued up to a late hour. The subject under consideration was the dispatches brought by Lieut, Talbot from Major Anderson. There s no reason to believe that anything farther will be yielded to South Carolina. THE ST. LOUIS SUB-TREASURY, &C.

It is believed that the bill introduced in the Legislature of Missouri, prohibiting the Mayor or Sheriff of St. Louis from using the military force to suppress riot, looked to the seizuse of the public property; and hence the U.S. troops were ordered thither for its protection.

SEWARD'S GREAT UNION SPEECH. The galleries of all the avenues leading t the Senate chamber were densely thronged at an early hour this morning by persons anxious to hear the great speech of Senator Seward.

TOOMBS AND GENERAL SCOTT. At a private dinner party, yesterday, high words passed between Senator Toombs and Lieutenant-General Scott. According to the relations of the scene in Congressionol circles, the conversation turned on the sending of troops to Charleston, when Mr. Toombs expres sed a hope that the people there would sink the Star of the West. General Scott, with much earnestness, asked if it was possible that he (Toombs) as an American, desired such an event. Mr. Toombs replied affirmatively, and that those who sent the vessel there should be sink with her. General Scott thereupon said he was responsible for what he said, and Mr. Toombs remarked, "You have known me for twenty five years, and are aware that I, too, am responsible." The matter here ended, but the subject, it is said, is now in the hands of the friends of the parties.

CONFIRMATION OF GENERAL DIX. General Dix, of New York, was, as stated yesterday, tendered the position of Secretary of War, but preferring that of the Treasury, the President, to-day, sent his nomination to the Senate for this office, Mr. Thomas having resigned. The rule requiring a reference of nom-inations to the appropriate committee is always courteously suspended when the nominee is an ex-Senator, as is General Dix, on the ground that his character and qualifications are sufficiently known without a special investigation. The rule on this occasion was unanimously sus pended, and the appointment of General Dix immediately confirmed.

THE NEW CABINET.

The members now in the Cabinet are a unit on the present political questions, all those claiming the right of secession having retired. The Cabinet, as reconstructed, is as follows:
