DAILY DOUBLE SHEET. The DAILY TELEGRAPH will appear to morrow on a mammoth sheet, DOUBLE ITS USUAL SIZE, containing in full the interesting Senate Debate on the State of the Union, the Inaugural Address of Governor Curtin, a description of the Inaugural Parade and Ceremonies, late and stirring intelligence from Charleston and the National Capital, and a great variety of interesting news, political and otherwise... Members and others wishing extra copies of our DAILY DOUBLE SHEET should send in their orders at once.

An Infamous Traitor.

Senator Toombs, of Georgia, is truly described by the "whited sepulcher" in the New Testament, which was fair to the eye, but inwardly, "full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness." A man who will deliberately take his seat in the Senate of the United States, take a solemn oath to support the Constitution and laws wof the country, and then telegraph to the Governor of his own State (Georgia) to seize the Government forts, is a doubledyed traitor; and, as such, should be ar-American Government, it is necessary to commit an "overt act." That act Senator Toombs has perpetrated. He did not, it is true, lead a band of soldiers against the forts, but he gave "aid and comfort" to the enemy; he secretly contrived a plan for the overthrow of the United States authority; he advised an act of war; he was and is in league with actual conspira-United States. The Third Section of the Third Article of the Constitution is as follows :----

1. Treason against the United States shall consist only in levying war against them, or in adhering to to their Enemies, giving them Aid and Comfort. No Person shall be convicted of Treason, unless on the Testimony of two Wit-nesses to the same overt Act, or on Confession the pen Court, 2. The Congress shall have Power to declare the Punishment of Treason, but no Attainder of Treason shall work Corruption of Blood, or For-feiture, except during the Life of the Person attainted If the evidence against Toombs is as clear, or half as clear, as represented by all the correspondents at Washington, his will not be necessary to await the opera- other sources.

NEW YORK AND THE CRISIS. - A military organization has been effected in New York city, under the title of the "Union Volunteers." The purpose of the organization is to assist in the preservation of the Union, by enforcing the Constitution DAILY TELEGRAPH. and the laws, whenever their services may be called into requisition. Some of the most substantial men of the city, among whom are several officers of the army, were present when the association was formed. The resolutions under which the association is pledged to operate, denounce, in the strongest terms, the sectionalism that would divide the interests of of the country, and the fanaticism by which that sectionalism is rendered furious in the accomplishment of its purpose. The pledge of the "Union Volunteers" is the motto of Jackson: "THE UNION MUST BE PRESERVED."

MRS. ANDERSON has started for Charleston, for the purpose of joining her hustors against the peace and dignity of the band. Whether she intends to remain, and share with her husband the dangers of the approaching struggle, we do not know. The "Revolutionary Committee" of Charleston will probably be very watchful of her movements, even though she be a woman. Mrs. Anderson has certainly much reason to be proud of the manner in which the Major has conducted himself in the perilous situation he holds.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14. 1861. HOUSE.-MT. ENGLISH (Ind.) asked leave to offer the following resolution, which was read for information:

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes. Sr. Louis, July 10, 1860. O. J. WOOD, Esq.: Dear Sir -- Vilow me the pleasure i and satisfaction to transmit to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of five years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which tims I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one-third gray. A few applications stopped its turning, and in three weeks time there was not a gray hair to be noticed, neither has there been up to this time. After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times per month. My hair has ever c ninued healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandroff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advan-tage to yon, or even flatter your vanity at this late day, as I am well awart they are all known already and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have oc-cupied my time in traveling the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pride and pleasure in regommending your Restorative, and exhibiting its effects in my own case. In several instances I have net oupled my lime in traveling the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pride and pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting its effects in my own case. In several instances I have met with geolie that have pronounced its humburg; saying they have used it and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had used some new article said to be as good as yours, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles my-self advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astours, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is notishing that people will patronize an a ticle of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt. Apparently some of those charitans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours word for word in several instances, merely inserting some other name in place of yours. I have, within the past five years, seen and tailed with more than two thousand persons that have used your preparation with perfect success—some for baldness, gray hair, scald head, dandruff, and every disense the scalp and head are subject to. I called to see you personally at your original place of business here, but learned you were now living in New York. Charleston, Jan. 13.-The last news in relation

JAMES WHITE, M. D: WARM SPRINCS, Perry Co., Pa., June 7, 1850. Prof. WOOD, Dear Sir:--I was induced more than a year ago to try your valuable Hair Restorative for the purpose of cleupsing my bead of dandruff. I had suffered with it upon my head for years, and bad mover been able to get anything to do me any good in removing it, al though I had tried many preparations, until I saw your advertisement in Harrisburg paper. Being there at the time, I called at Gross & Kunklo's drug store, and bought a bothle, and now am prepared to recommend it to universatuse, for it has completely removedall dand-ruff from my head, and au application once in two weeks keeps it free from any itching or other unpleasantness.--I must also state that my hair had become quite while in places, and, by the use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color. I am now 50 years of age, and although I haye used two bothles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, as I allow a few gray hairs to remain in order to have my appearance com-port with my age. My head is now or less trouble to me in keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, although I haye toyne, it is worth any parie of it is any shape you think proper, if it is worth any thing to you. Kours, &c., H. H. ETTER, you are entitled to the benefit of. I am a resident of Blosmington, and have been here for over thirty years. Iam now over fifty years of age. For about twenty years near my hair hes been turning considerabily gray, and was atmost entirely while and very stiff and unpliant. I had seen a number of cortificates of the very wonderful effect of your Hair Restorative but supposed there was more flotion than truth in them: but entertaining a strong desire to have my hair, if cossible, restored to its origi-nal color and finances, as it was in my younger days a beautiful black. I coecluded I would make the experi-ment commencing in a small way. I purchased one of your small bottles, at one dollar, and commenced using, following directions as nearly as I could. I soon discor-ered the dandruff removed, and my he'r, that was falling of in large quantities, was considerably tightened, and a radical charge taking place in the color. I have couti-ned to use it, till have u:ed three of your small bottles and just begun on the fourth. I have now cs preity a head of dark brown, or light bleck hair as any man, or as I had in my youtful days, when a boy in the hills of Western Virginia. My head is entirely clear of dandruff and the hair cemped entirely falling of and is as soft and fine, and feels as ofly as though it was just from the hands of a Freuch champoorer. Many of my acquisitan-ces frequently say to me. We are no longer in the midst of peace; war is actually begun; and men like Tooms and Wigfall may well tremble in their boots while traversing Pennsylvania Avenue. They may yet learn, and at an early day, that there is power in this country to punish treason, and to execute all the decrees of Legislative, Judicial and Military tribunals.

THE POPULAR REACTION .- The precipitate course of South Carolina in refusing to await the action of the North, but at once plunging the country into all the perils of civil war, (says the New York Journal of Commerce.) has alienated the sympathies of many patriotic men who have hitherto remained her steadfast friends, ready to vindicate the justice of her cause at any sacrafice. We have one illustration of this in the case of the veteran Commodore Lawrence Kearney, who stands second on the active service list of the United States navy, and whose resignation was announced a few days ago. In a private letter Commodore Kearney

Wood's HAIB RESTORATIVE has a quired a reputation WOUND ALL test and experiment which cannot be en-hanced by newspaper pulls. In our vicinity it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and received the universal endorsement of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few mostrums which accompliants all it profess-es, and all tho bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Svu. Spy.

Prov. Woon's Hau RESTORATYS.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its origi-nal color. The Hair Restorative also cure a dutapeous eruptions, and prevents the bair failing off. We have seen many authenito testimonials in proor of these assec-tions some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many veers as aperson of the most reliable crown for many years as persons of the most reliable haracter. Don't dye till you have tried this Restorative oston Olive Branch.

Woon's HAIR RESTORATIVE .--- We are not in the habit puffing every new discovery, for in nice cases out of they are quack nostrums, but we take great pleasure racommending Professor Wood's article to all whose has racommending Professor Wood's article to all whose halt is falling off or turning gray. Our well known contribu-tor, Frinley Johnson, E.g., has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtues Let all try it, and beld heads will be as rare as show ir summer,—Baltimere Paniel.

Wood's HAIR REFORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to pristine vigor. Where the head had become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable prepara-tion for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effect ally eradicates dandruff and other impurities, which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative properties of another description. In many cases pim-ples and other disfurements of the skin disappear wher-ever it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of his remedy, and its effects can only be beenficial, as the compound if it does not cause a minifest improve-ments are perfectly innocuous.—Boiton Transcript, April 22, 1859. A GENUME BOON.-In our capacity as conductor of a public journal, we are called upon to advertise the cure-alls of the day, each of which claims to be unadulterated in its composition and infailible in its curative effects, with what justice we leave our readers to deterwine. In one instance, however-Frof. Wood's Hair Restorative -we are so well essured of the notable qualities of the article, that we give it our indorsement as all that its in-ventor and vender claim it to be. Its effect upon a failing head of hair is universally known to be magical. Like lime or gnamo on exhausted land, it brings its crop wher-ever applied. Our own thatch is fortunative y beal-thy, but we advise our friends with sparseiy-growing hair to try the Restorative.-Columbia Spy.

hair to try the Kestorative.—Columbia Spy. ALL HAIR DTES ANANDONED.—Word's Great Article has Tuken the Field.—Professor Wood stands on an emine ner-no chemist, whose attention has been turned to invonting a hair tonic, has ever before reached. His fame is sud-den but world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been baid for years are now, through the use of his proparation, wearing their own natural and luxuriant head covering. So much for chemistry, the chemistry of human life, and the laws which apply to the functions of the system. Frof. Wood studied out the human hair, its character, its properties and diseases, and how to re-store the decaying vitality to that of nament; he saw, as in his own case, that gray hair is unnatural unless the age of the individual has reached four score, and he ba-lieved that the hair could be naturally revitalized. He tried his own case, - her restored his own hair in color, strength and kuzuriance, and the article he did it with he gave to the world.
