Mr. LEISENRING, (when his name was called.) I am opposed to the adoption of this resolution, simply because I think such a declaration unwise and impolitic at this time.— Under other circumstances I should vote for it with great pleasure. I vote no.

The fifth resolution was read as follows:

5 Resolved, That all plots, conspiracies and warlike demonstrations against the United States, in any section of the country, are treasonable in their character, and whatever power of the government is necessary for their sup-pression, should be applied to that purpose without hesitation or delay.

Mr. ABBOT (when his name was called.) I consider this amendment entirely out of place this offered with the view of testing the sense of this House with regard to the subject which it involves; there will be ample opportunity to do so on a more proper occasion. Such amenddo so on a more proper occasion. Such amendments simply embarrass the resolutions in their passage. Our object is to pass them as speedily as possible. The amendment is scarcely even germane to the resolution before us. Therefore I wish it to be distinctly understood that in voting against this amendment I do so

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby resolved:

1st. That the Constitution of the United States of America was ordained and established, as set forth in its preamble, by the people of the union, establish justice, insure domestic tran-quility, provide for the common defence, pro-mote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to themselves and their posterity and if the people of any State in this Union are not in the full enjoyment of all the benefits intended to be secured to them by the said Constitution; if their rights under it are disregarded, their tranquility disturbed, their pros-perity retarded, or their liberties imperilled by the people of any other State, full and adequate redress can and ought to be provided for such grievances through the action of Congress and other proper departments of the National Gov ernmei

2nd. Resolved, That the people of Pennsylva nia entertain, and desire to cherish, the most fraternal sentiments for their brethren of other States, and are ready now, as they have ever been, to co-operate in all measures needful for their welfare, security and happiness under the Constitution which makes us one people; That while they cannot surrender their love of liberty, inherited from the founders of their State, sealed with the blood of the Revolution, and from a view of its impropriety at this time, and not for the purpose of expressing any sentiment with regard to the subject which it involves.

3d. Resolved, That that we adopt the sentiment and language of President Andrew Jack-son, expressed in his message to Congress on the sixteenth of January, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, that the right of the people of a single State to absolve them selves at will, and without the consent of the other States, from their most solemn obligations other States, from their most solemn obligations, and hazard the liberties and happiness of the millions composing this Union, cannot be acknowledged, and that such authority is utterly repugnant both to the principles upon which the general government is constituted and the objects which it was expressly formed to attain.

4th. Resolved, That the Constitution of the United States of America, contains all the powers necessary to the maintenance of its authoriers necessary to the maintenance of its authority, and it is the solemn and most imperative duty of the governme, t to adopt and carry into effect whatever measures may be necessary to that end; and the faith and the power of Pennsylvania are hereby pledged to the support of such measures, in any manner, and to any extent that may be required of her by the constituted authorities of the United States.

The Amalgamation of Languages.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headeche remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrity and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common asage until they seem "native and to the manor born"

**Headache is the fav.rite tign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be liouked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise e-cape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should nev. To be neglected. Headach is may be classified under two names, viz.—Symptomatic and Idiopathic Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of classes; among which are Apoplexy, Gout, kheunaitism and all febrile, diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of bepatie disease censtituting bill hous headache, it worms, on the ation and other discorders of the bowels, as well as retial and uterine affections. Biseases of the heart are very frequently attended with He-daches, America and plettora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at each the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or but heyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralyia.

For the treatment of either class of Heauache the Ocphalic Pilis have been found a sure and sale remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a tew minuter, and by its subtile power eradicating the disease-of which Headache is the uncring index.

FRIDGET.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of Prepared Pills,—but I'm to hisking that's not just it naither; but perhaps ye'll be after knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that came as relaived her botore.

Bridget.—Och I sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarter and giv me the Pills and don't be all day about it aither.

Constination or Costiveness.

Unstination or Uostiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carele sness, 'r sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of two little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early cradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave.—Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Youl Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignani Favers, Aboesses, Dysentery, Diarrhosa. Dyspepsy, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Molancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in C-nstipation, but take on an independent existence; unless the cause is cradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Caebalie Pills on the first amexance of the complaint. wer it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box if Cephalic Fills on the first appearance of the complain t, so their timely use will expect the insiduous approach o tisease and destrey this dargerous f e to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician .- Well, Mrs. Jones, how is that hea dache? Physician.—Well, Mrs. Jones, now is that hen dacto?
Mrs. Jones.—Gone I Doctor, all gone I the pill you scut cired me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.

Physician.—You can get them at any Duggists. Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never iafl, and I recom mend them in all cases of Headache.

Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

TWENTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS SAVED .- Mr. Spalding has TWENTY MILLIONS OF DIGILARS FAVED.—Mr. Spading has sold two millions of botties of his celebrated Prepared Glue and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least endollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his Glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world stil greater service by ouring all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his Glue, Head aches will soon vanish away like snowin July.

AT OVER EXCITEMENT, and the mental care and apxiety incident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of Nervous Headache. The disordered state of mind and body incudent to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can elways obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks by using one of the tephalis Pilis whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of, the stomach which always accompanies and aggravaces the disordered condition of the brain.

FACT WORTH KNOWING .- Spaiding's Cephalic Pills are

EGREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of ail the great medical discoveries of this age may be con-sidered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Fill for relief of headache, and the use of Quinine for the prevention of Fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experi-enced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

Pur Did you ever have the Sick Headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the leathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study. One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

By the use of these Pil the periodic attacks of Ner vous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken a the commencement of an attack immediate relief fro pain and sickness may be obtained. They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headach to which females are so subject. They act gently upon the bowels,-removing Costiveness For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedeniary habits, they are valuable as a Lazaive, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investi gation and carefully conducted experiments, having been n use in many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating m the nervous sys tem or from a deranged state of the slomach. They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disa rresable taste renders it easy to administer them to children. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!
