Pennsylvania Daily Telegraph, Monday Afternoon, Ianuary 28, 186t.

THE ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION of the Good emplars, this evening, will not commence matil eight o'clock. We make the announcement for the information of ticket holders.

JOHN B. GOUGH, the world-renowned temperarice lecturer, is now in Pittsburg and discourse nightly to large audiences. It is expected that he will visit this city some time during the winter and deliver a series of lectures.

Took for another swarm of strolling vagrants existing for comment and for reformation -the tax-payers that we have a lock-up for the commodation of this class, otherwise they would all go to prison at double the expense it now costs to provide shelter for them.

FUNERAL SERMON.-List evening Rev. James Celder, of the Fourth street Bethel, preached a why instructive discourse on the death of John Boyer, lately deceased, to a large congrega. The members of the Citizen F.re Comto the fire department.

CANNON GONE EAST - Within a few day several pieces of artillery have been sent to Philaa from the United States Arsenal at Lawille. They are of the heaviest calibre, ware, near the mouth of the Delaware ter, on Wednesday, the 20th of February next, late term, which excited considerable interest DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PILLS over the Pennsylvania Railroad, and by this time reached their destination.

HE OIL TRADE.-We learn from the Erie geners that twenty-one car loads of oil, aggre-genng about eleven hundred barrels, were received at that point over the Sunbury and Erie Railroad one evening last week. It came, in nearly equal proportions, from Titusville and Tidioute, and indicates a rapid increase in the oil yield of those localities. It is manifest that the kind of freight will, in itself, ere long take the carrying capacity of the road.

THE CAMERON GUARD will meet at the armory this vening for drill. It affords us much satisfaction to announce that this handsome military corps has largely increased in membership, and greatly improved in drill. The next public parade will be made on the twenty-second of Feb-
