On motion of Mr. SMTPH, the Senate proceeded to the consideration of bill entitled "a supplement to an Act to incorporate the Me-chanics' Insurance Company, of Philadelphia," reported from the Committee on Corporations, dispensing with going into Committee of the Whole. The first and only section of the bill was read.

Mr. FINNEY inquired relative to the object of the bill.

Mr. SMITH. The object of this bill is to reduce the actual capital of the company, so that they may have no apparent capital which is not really possessed by them. This company proposes to do, legally, what some of the companies have done illegally; that is, reduce the reduce of their stock. of the bill.
