HARRISBURG

Saturday Alternoon, February 2, 1861.

THE LEGISLATURE was not in session to day. both Houses having adjourned over until Monday next. Many of the members are now absent from the city.

THE FREE LECTURE announced to come off in the Methodist Church this evening, will not take place, Dr. Robinson having been unexpectedly called from the city.

OIL SHIPMENTS - During the last fourteen months, as appears by a statement from the Vice President of the Sunbury and Eric Railroad, the enormous amount of 22,119 barrels of Oil was shipped over that road for Erie. This shows conclusively the productiveness of the wells in the Venango district.

HARRISBURGERS AT PRINCETON. - Among the students in Princeton College are six young men from this city, all of whom occupy creditable positions in that old and excellent institution. They are John A. Winebrenner, John De Witt, Charles C. Rawn, Jr., W. S. Purviance, Wm. R. Murray and Isaac K. Casey. The four first named gentlemen expect to graduate next June; and that they will do so with honor to themselves and credit to the institution, we do not doubt.

OLD PETER CARTWIGHT, the venerable and eccentric Methodist preacher, who delivered a he discovered, when about five miles out, a fine now in command of Fort Sumter, an honoralecture here some months ago, made a speech in New York city recently. He related some anecdotes of General Jackson, and he wished to God such a man as Jackson was at the head of the affairs of our Government. He said he was a comfortable ride. New Music .- "Tuscan Girls Crowning the Sea," Adrett, founded on the annual custom prevailing in Tuscany of crowning the sea with flowers, with words by Mrs. Crawford and music by Stephen Glover, "Roses, Roses, beautiful as Day", by C. Marsh, and "Love's Sweet Summer," by Alfred Merlin, are two new and very pretty songs, and the "Blue Bells of Scotland," one of Westrop's pretty airs for little fingers and arranged for small hands, comprises some of the latest publications of O. Dixon & Co. Boston, and are for sale with a great variety of sheet and book music and musical merchandise generally at Mr. O. C. B. Carters, No. 98 Market street.

SLIPPERY-AMUSING STREET SCENES,-The rain which fell during the night immediately congealed, and this morning the streets and pavements were coated with an icy surface smooth as glass, rendering locomotion a very unpleasant and dangerous operation for market goers. A number of amusing feats of ground and lofty tumbling occurred, and we noticed the contents of a great many well-filled market baskets lying about loose on the street. Two or three persons, one of them a lady, were seriously injured by falling upon the icy pavements. The Book says, "the wicked stand on slippery places:" but this morning both saints and sinners found it difficult to stand, much less walk, on alippery places. We heard one lady remark she went. Her ample crinoline, however, gracefully without sustaining any damage, exmore amusing street scenes occurred which we have not time or room to describe.

Losr.-Yesterday morning, the weigh beam ered, but the weight is still among the missing, discharged and ordered to leave the city. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at this office.

WENT TO PETSON.—One George Robinson was arrested for disorderly conduct in John Shearer's tavern, where he purchased a quart of tanglefoot and refused to pay for it. In default of bail Alderman Kline committed him to prison for trial.

Dred in Prison.—The insane man Martin Wolf, who has given the prison keeper so much trouble for some months past, died about eleven o'clock this forenoon. He had been unwell for participate in the ceremonies incident to raisome two weeks, and was regularly attended by the prison physician. He partook of a hearty breakfast this morning, but the keeper on visiting the cell at the hour above named found him dead. We presume his remains will be interred in the pauper burial ground at the noor house.

OLD BUILER WAKING UP .- An oil company has been organized in Butler, with the intention of boring on the Connequessing, near that town. Nearly one hundred shares are already subscribed, and the work is expected to advance at once. The company have determined to go to the depth of eight hundred feet to test the matter. Oil has also been discovered in Mercer county.

MUSICAL.-We are indebted to Mr. Wm. Knoche for copies of the new and beautiful songs, "Hark! I Hear an Angel Sing," "Still been judicially decided in New York that where in My Dreams," "Happy be Thy Dreams," and a husband knocks his wife down twice by blows the other popular ballads sung at Tom Thumb's on the nose, once by a blow on the cheek, and concerts. The bill is a meritorious one, and we doubt not it will pass the Senate, receive the approbation of the Executive, and become a law. It will give laborers that protection to which they are justly entitled, and which should have been extended to them long ago.

HOME CONVERSATION.—Children hunger perpetually for new ideas, and the most pleasant way of reception is by the voice and the ear, not the eye and the printed page. The one mode is natural and the other artificial. Who would not rather listen than read? We not unfrequently pass by in the papers a full report of a lecture, and then go and pay our money to another, "take heed lest you fall," and she to hear the self same words uttered. An achad scarcely finished the sentence when down dience will listen closely from the beginning to the end of an address which not one in broke the force of the fall, and she descended twenty of those present would read with the same attention. COMING TO HARRISBURG. - We learn from the Altoona papers that the Mountain Commandery No. 10 Knights Templar, will visit Harrisburg on the twenty-second of February, and ing the American flag on the dome of the Captol, provided they receive an invitation from the Committee. Of course the invitation will be extended at once.

COURT OF COMMONPLEAS. -Since our last report, the following cases have been disposed of: Dr. Lee W. Buffington and others vs. the heirs of Henry Buehler, dec'd. LETTER FROM MAJOR ANDERSON.—A short time ago the Hope Fire Company, of this city, unanimously elected Major Robert Anderson, ry member of the company. The Secretary wrote to the Major informing him of the fact, and enclosing a series of complimentary resocompliment paid him by the "Hivers," received a few days ago, read at the stated meeting of the company last evening, and ordered to be published:—

FORT SUMTER, S. C. Jan. 24, 1861. LENTINE B. HUMMEL, Esq.,

Sir: I will thank you to make my acknowledgments to your company for the honor they have conferred upon me by their electing me an honorary member of the same idential conversations, even under the shetter of comfortable buffalo robes!

AN IMPORTANT BILL.—A bill of very great importance to laborers throughout the State has passed the Hanse and hear cent to the short state of the short state and hear cent to the short state of the shor duties at the "brakes," to be occupied in civil strife. I am, Sir, yours very respectfully,

A SHORT SERMON ON PREACHING.—It has been aptly remarked that there are some things that preach besides men. Sometimes it is a book sometimes an unwritten life, and sometimes boys grow spendthrifts, and go reeling through the streets, it is an exposition of the text with which he started—"Am I my brother's keeper?"—more forcible than any divine could give by a score of arguments. When a fashionable mother teaches her daughters to dispise labor and ignore mental attainments, and lives to see them taking in washing and sewing, there is an inference to be drawn from such education more potent than any pulpit could portray. When a young man makes beautiful prayers in the social meeting, and refuses to comfort the widow and the fatherless, and locks his the widow and the fatherless, and locks his to comfort the widow and the fatherless, and locks his to comfort the widow and the fatherless, and locks his to comfort the widow and the fatherless, and locks his to comfort the widow and the fatherless, and locks his to comfort the widow and the fatherless, and locks his to comfort the widow and the fatherless, and locks his to comfort the widow and the fatherless, and locks his to comfort the widow and the fatherless, and locks his to comfort the widow and the fatherless, and locks his to comfort the widow and the fatherless, and locks his to comfort the widow and the fatherless, and locks his to comfort the widow and the fatherless, and locks his to comfort the widow and the fatherless, and locks his the widow and the fatherless that the company to the measure from the runting the form anything in the social meeting, and refuse to comfort the widow and the fatherless, and locks his the widow and the fatherless that the company to the measure from the runting the fatherless the widow and the fatherless that the company to the underline to the fatherless the company to the widow and the fatherless the comfort t who extemporized a county town somewhere shall not impair or affect the right of the widow or children of any decedent to retain by a score of arguments. When a fashionable three hundred dollars, as provided by existing mother teaches her daughters to dispise labor closet" door except on the first day of the week, his six days preaching not only eclipse the seventh, but give rise to the question whether Pharisees are obsolete. When a government officer betrays his trust, and absconds with a hundred thousand dollars wanting on with a hundred thousand dollars wanting on the records, which with he gave great dinners, and lived like a nabob, and finds instead of a state prison, a false, sickly sympathy among brother politicians, there is a comment upon fast living and false morality more powerful than any exposition upon the life of Dives, from a theologian's pen. Of many it would be wisdom to say, as the lady did, when asked of a student, whose life was a burlesque upon his preaching, whether he was preaching—"no, cept the breaking of her steel hoops.
