Another Secret Association.

We understand that in many of the Western counties associations have been organized under the motto: "The Union, Constitution, and enforcement of the Laws as they are." We are not advised of the object of the association, but judging from the motto, there can be nothing objection- the Republican party is responsible for able in them.

The New York Tribune Correspondent.

The New York Tribune of yesterday publishes a letter, said to have been written by their "own Correspondent," in which a most unjustifiable attack is made upon Mr. Armstrong of Lycoming; Mr. Patterson, of Juniata; Mr. Harvey, of Delaware; Gen. Wilson, of Beaver; Gideon J. Ball, of Erie; all the members from the city of Philadelphia except Dr. Seltzer, and Mr. Bartholomew of Schuylkill, by classifying them as having joined with the radical Democrats. These assertions made by their "own Correspondent" are false in every respect. No vote whatever has been given by these gentlemen which can ever be construed by the moat ultra Republicans into an abandonment of any principle advocated by the Republican party during the last canvass. It will be time enough to make a denunciation of gentlemen occupying seats in the House of Representatives when they actually desert their party; and we shall be the first to do so whenever party men forsake their principles; but we cannot for a moment believe that any of the gentlemen named have ever dreamed of joining the Democratic party. The correspondence in the Tribune is false in every respect, and we have no doubt if the proprietors of that paper were personally acquainted with the character of their correspondent here they would at once discharge him.

JOHN BELL AND THE UNION .- Solon Borland, formerly a Senator from Arkansas, made a disunion speech in Nashville a few nights ago. He said, in the course of his remarks, that the "Consitutional Union party," and its acknowledged champion, John Bell, had held the doctrine that the election of Lincoln would be a just cause for the dissolution of the Union. John Bell, who was in the audience, rose and denied the charge. Upon this, says satisfying us of the predominant Union

THE SUPREME COURT VACANCY. --- The President still inclines to nominate Judge Black for the late Judge Daniel's vacancy on the Bench of the Supreme Court, but the declining Democratic strength in the Senate, and Southern opposition to the appointment, do not afford much encouragement for his confirmation. That place belongs properly to the next Administration, and will be so treated, after the examples of Messrs. Crittenden and Badger, who were suspended by Democratic majorities when nominated for this Court by Mr. Adams and Mr. Fillmore until General Jackson and Mr. Pierce eame into office. Their own medicine, judicionaly administered, will do them good.

AN EQUIVOCAL COMPLIMENT .--- We percieve that Lieut. North has received his appointment as Chief or Admiral of the Navy of South Carolina, instead of Mr. Lawrence, who was understood to cherish aspirations for that exalted dignity. The profound distaste of the chivalry bursts of applause greeted him, and loud must have dictated the bestowing of this very equivocal compliment. While congratulating Lieut. North upon his budding prodigal King Doloroso when he proposes to create Fortunio Royal Treasurer :

A GOOD SIGN .- The Washington Constitution, the weakest as well as the most violent of disunion papers, has died .--There was too much patriotic oxygen in the air of Washington to sustain it, and it has suspended with the hope of revival somewhere "within the limits of the Southern Confederacy," "I go hence," exclaims the editor-let us add, in pious hope, the epitaphical conclusion-" to be heard of no more forever." Perhaps it would be proper to suggest the prayer that the Southern Confederacy, amidst the trials and dangers that wait upon the birth of nations, may not have the crowning misfortune of the Constitution for an organ.
