HARRISBURG

Wednesday Afternoon, February 6 1861.

On His Way.—The Hon. David Wilmot, one of the Commissioners appointed by the Governor, arrived here to-day en route for Washington.

Re-Appointed.—Geo. W. Boyd was this morning re-appointed Superintendent of the Public Grounds by the joint committee of the Legisture, for the term of one year.

Asking for Pardon.—We understand that petitions are already in circulation asking for the pardon of Mr. Seltzer, convicted of assault and battery and sentenced yesterday to an imprisonment of fifteen days and a fine of one hundred dollars.

Fire at Hollidaysburg.—A large building occupied by Col. R. M. Lemon, as an establishment for the manufacture of medicine, was consumed on last Thursday evening. The loss of Mr. Lemon will reach over $2000 over and above his insurance.

Attention! Mount Vernon!—A stated meeting of the Mount Vernon Hook and Ladder Company, No. 1, will be held in their hall this (Wednesday) evening, Feb. 6th, at 7½ o'clock. A full attendance is desired as business of importance will be transacted.

President Lincoln will arrive here on the 20th or 21st of this month. We hope the Committee of arrangement will arrange it in such a manner so as to detain him over the 22d in order to participate or view the raising of the American Flag over the State Capitol.

Citizen, Attention!—A special meeting of the Citizen Engine and Hose Company will be held this (Wednesday) evening at their hall, at seven o'clock. Punctual attendance is desired, as business of interest to each individual member will be transacted. By order,

C. Seiler, President.

State Capital Section No. 21, C. of T., will hold a regular stated meeting this evening at the section room, at 7½ o'clock. Members are requested to be punctual in their attendance. Candidates for membership will please present themselves. Business of importance will be transacted. George W. Fenn, W. A.

The Twenty-Second of February.—Several companies from abroad have already accepted the invitations extended to them to participate in raising the "Stars and Stripes" on the dome of the Capitol, and we anticipate a very large assemblage of people in the city on that day. The Democratic State Convention meets on the 21st, which will also attract a number of people to this city.

How to Make a Candle Burn.—To make a candle burn all night, in case of sickness, or when a dull light is wished, or when matches happen to be mislaid, put finely powdered salt on a candle till it reaches the black part of the wick. In this way a mild and steady light may be kept through the night, by a small piece of candle, besides having a light so blue and sepulchral that if there happens to be a sick person in the room he or she will be likely to die from horror before morning, and a healthy person, happening to wake, will be very certain to go into hysterics.

Prisoners Sentenced.—The Court, yesterday afternoon passed sentence upon a number of persons convicted at the last term of Court, as follows:—

Joseph C. Seltzer, assault and battery upon Walter Graham, was sentenced to a fine of $100 and costs; be imprisoned for fifteen days and give security in the sum of $500 to keep the peace for one year towards all men, and in particular towards Walter Graham.

Henry Schneider, selling liquor to minors. $10 fine, costs of suit and imprisonment for ten days.

John Brooks, selling liquor to minors. A fine of $10, costs of suit, and imprisonment for ten days.

William Small, assault and battery upon a woman, $5.00 fine, costs of suit, and imprisonment for five days.

A. Harris, assault and battery on his wife, a fine of $1.00, costs of suit, and imprisonment for thirty days.

Christian Spayd, stealing eggs and produce from a market wagon, a fine of $1.00, costs of suit, and imprisonment for thirty days.

Andrew Wilhelm, horse stealing. Six months imprisonment, and a fine of $1.00 and costs.

Fanny Jones, keeping a disorderly house, a fine of $1.00 and costs, and imprisoment for fifteen days.

Margaret Brett, forgery, in passing forged paper, and in stealing a piece of lawn, fifteen month imprisonment, $3.00 fine, and costs of proceedings.

Robert Parker, assault and battery on two different indictments, $6.00 fine and costs, and five days imprisonment.

Joseph Scott, assault and battery by throwing a woman in the canal, fifteen days imprisonment, and $1.00 fine and costs.

Joseph Scott, assault and battery, five days imprisonment, and $1.00 fine and costs.

Charles Leedy, assault and battery, fifteen days imprisonment, a fine of $1.00 and costs.

Religious Revivals in Lykenstown.—The last Journal has the following item relative to the progress of the several religious revival meetings in that village:

A revival meeting of some seven weeks continuance, under the auspices of the Evangelical denomination at this place, has just been closed which was attended with very satisfactory results. We learned that over thirty persons have already joined that church, and others contemplate doing so. In the Methodist church, a very interesting work is now in progress; quite a respectable number have already professed to have experienced a change of heart, while anxious penitents continue flocking to the altar of mercy, and with genuine tears of repentance are inquiring "what must I do to be saved?" Rev. Mr. Lane, of the Lutheran church, has also commenced a series of revival meetings, which we hope, will be crowned with abundant success.

The Celebration on the Twenty-Second.—The following report has been made to the two Houses on the subject of the celebration on the 22d of this month, viz.:

Mr. WILSON from the joint Committee appointed by the Senate and House of Representatives to make arrangements for the raising of the flag on the dome of the Capitol, reported that they have agreed on the following:

The flag to be raised on Friday, the 22d inst., at 11½ A.M.

A general invitation has been given to the uniformed Military, Firemen and civic associations of the State. Also, special invitations to the Governor and Heads of Departments, and to the Military and other civic associations of the city of Harrisburg, and the soldiers of the War of 1812, to participate.

Gen. Wm. H. Keim has been appointed to take charge of the Military, and to act as Chief Marshal of the day.

Maj. David Mumma has been appointed Marshal of the Fire Companies, with power to appoint Assistants from the several companies participating.

R. A. Lamberton, Esq., has been appointed Marshal of other civic associations.

The Hon. Robert M. Palmer has been selected to deliver an oration, and E. W. Rauch to read Washington's Farewell Address.

A sub-Committee has been appointed to confer with the several railroad companies in order to secure a reduction of rates of fare chargeable to the organizations from other parts of the State wishing to participate.

The cannon now in the Arsenal will be fired alternately every half minute during the raising of the flag to the number of thirteen guns.

The services of a band will be engaged for the occasion.

Cathcart to be Executed.—The Supreme Court in session at Philadelphia, has given its decision in the case of the man Cathcart, under sentence of death for the murder of his wife in Clearfield county. One of the principal assignments of error was that gross mistakes had been committed in trying the prisoner, but as they did not appear on the record, the Court decided that it could not take them into consideration, and that no relief could be afforded the prisoner on these grounds. Justice Strong, through whom the decision of the Court was rendered, alluded to the case of the Commonwealth vs. Fife, Jones and Stewart, both tried in Pittsburg, to show that an error not apparent on the face of the record proceedings, however gross and improper it may have been, is not a subject of review, and that a prisoner has no more right to expect relief on account of such irregularities from the Supreme Court than from any other five citizens of the State, who are invested with no judical authority at all. The Court affirmed the judgment of the Court below, so that Cathcart will have to pay the penalty of his crime on the gallows, unless the Governor should see fit to pardon him.

Spontaneous Combustion.—A curious case of spontaneous combustion was discoverd a week or so ago, in the barn on the premises of Daniel Althouse, deceased, in Exeter township, Berks county. The hay in the centre of the mow was found to be in a charred state, from which it was evident that it had taken fire by spontaneous combustion, but for want of air had afterwards been extinguished, without any damage. Cases of spontaneous combustion, where hay is put away not properly cured, are not unfrequent.

Fire in Clearfield.—We regret to learn that the residence of Judge Barrett, in Clearfield, was totally destroyed by fire on Thursday evening last. His furniture was saved, but much of it in a damaged condition.

Recreation.—A spicy newspaper correspondend says that "recreation" is one of the best abused words in the English language: How absurd the applications that are made of it! A man who has been crooked over like an interrogation point, over some heavy book or other, goes solemnly out and cuts a quarter of a cord of wood with a dull saw. Straightening up like a note of exclamation, he returns to his affectionate friends, and announces that he has been indulging in "recreation!" That is, he has been making himself over, and has the sweet assurance that he is another and a better man, in the name and by virtue of—sawing wood! Just as if the evil spirit of dullness would go out of a man into a saw or a growing wood pile; just as if he could sunder the thread of his thought with the small round sticks he cuts in two. Those who break away, now and then, from sedentary pursuits, let themselves down into long boots and go hunting, do not always get what they go for, but the cheerfulness, the life, the mental elasticity they come back with, are worth more than the powder they waste. A real tired ache is sometimes a luxury; it gives a new value to rest, and puts more than one feather into a hard pillow. Some men's heads are full of acute angled ideas, every one of them "a fretful porcunine" with one quill. Now, put such a man on a high trotting horse; a fox, or, if nothing nobler, a prairie wolf, in the distance, and ten miles to catch him in, and those ugly angles will be so tossed about and triturated, that you can handle one of his ideas without gloves. A good shaking has been known to rattle out an atom of knowledge that rolled away, like a bead from a broken string, into some dark corner of a man's mind, and had been given up for lost. We believe it was Tom Moore whose verse came to a three day's halt for want of a word. A rude jolt in a rough going vehicle shook the missing syllables out into the light, and so the encamped verse folded up its tent, and moved musically on. "Exercise" is sometimes more than work; it is working out; and the most natural question in the world, waits answer, out of what? Why, out of the old round of a man's thinkings; out of the mental straight jacket; out of the shell of self. "Amusement," "diversion," "elation," as any respectable Dictionary will tell you, all convey, and most admirably, the act of doctrine: if you want to be recreated, and be "brand new," run away from yourself. Be a fugitive from the Muses, that is, from sober study, counsels "amuse;" turn aside from the old path, is urged in "divert;" leap out of yourself, exclaims "exult;" at least be lifted out pleads "elate," if you are too lazy to leap. Such words, if one will only listen to them, are as wise as a whole armful of "Physiologies." They involve the precept, and tell you how to practice it. Some one has said, and well said, that Gray's young man of whom "some hoary-headed swain" says,

Hard by yon wood, now smiling as in scorn,
Muttering his wayward fancies he would rove—
Now drooping, woeful wan, like one forlorn,
Or crazed with care, or crossed in hopeless love,

would not have been missed one morn, "on the customed hill," if he had understood the true philosophy of recreation. Neither would his epitaph have borne such a line as this, if his digestive organs had been in good working order:

"And Melancholy marked him for her own."

Roman Catholic Regulations for Lent.—Lent commences on the 18th inst. The Catholic Telegraph publishes the following regulations for the season:

1. All persons who have completed their twenty-first year, and who are not exempted from the obligation of fasting by sickness, debility, old age, hard labor, or for other well known reasons, are obliged to observe all the days of Lent, (Sundays excepted,) as fasting days.

2. On those days but one meal is allowed, which should be taken about noon.

3. A cup of tea, coffee, or thin chocolate, with a bit of bread, or a cracker, may be taken in the morning; and a collation of food, not more than the fourth part of an ordinary meal, or not exceeding eight ounces, may be eaten in the evening.

4. Warm fish is not permitted at the collation.

5. Abstinence from flesh meat is enjoined on all the Wednesdays and Fridays of Lent, and on the two Saturdays of the Ember and the Holy Week.

6. The use of flesh meat is allowed, by dispensation, at every meal on Sundays; and at one meal on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, with the exception of the two Saturdays above named.

7. Those exempt from fasting are allowed the use of flesh meat at every meal on the days on which it is allowed to others but once.

8. Fish and flesh are not allowed on any day of Lent at the same meal; oysters are fish.

9. Eggs, milk, cheese, butter, can be used without distinction of days; but abstinence from all of these is recommended on Good Friday.

Short Lived Honeymoon.—A Miss White, of M'Kean, who was married to a gentleman from Mississippi, a few weeks ago, and accompanied her husband to that State, which she intended making her future residence, returned to this city, on Tuesday afternoon, having been ordered to leave the Southern domain at a certain date, before the expiration of ten hours. It seems that she made too free use of her Northern sentiments to suit the Southern chivalry, and hence was ordered out of the country. If this is not anarchy and oppression we would like to know in what country it can be found. What was done with the husband we do not learn.

A Large Calf.—Mr. Benjamin Eshleman, of Conestoga township, Lancaster county, is the owner of a calf, now a few days old, which, when three hours old, weighed one hundred and twenty-three pounds. It is of the ordinary Lancaster county stock, but is claimed to be the heaviest of its age ever weighed in the county. We suggest that Mr. Eshleman keep this for the "fatted calf" to kill for the feast to be given to Uncle Sam's prodigal daughter, Carolina, when she returns from wasting her substance in "riotous living."—Express.

Marshals for the 22d of February.—We understand that the joint committee of the two Houses of the Legislature, to make arrangements for the grand civic and military parade in this city on the 22d inst., have appointed David Mumma, Esq., Chief Marshal of the Firemen, and Robert Lamberton, Esq., Chief Marshal of the civic portion of the procession.

Salute.—A salute of thirty-four guns was fired last night in honor of the result of the Virginia election.

Ball at Brant's Hall.—Our German citizens will have a regular ball on the 14th of this month. It will, no doubt, be a grand affair. Tickets $1. feb6 td

CHICKERING'S PIANOS.

In no branch of the mechanic arts in this country has more rapid strides been made than in the manufacture of Piano-Fortes, the favorite, and, we may say, the universal musical instrument of the household. Every well-regulated establishment must have its Piano; indeed, the parlor, with its gorgeous and luxurious furniture, its pictures, its bronzes, its parians, would be badly appointed without one. And it behoves every man in selecting an instrument, not to fail in obtaining one of good tone and finish; for, like furnaces, ranges and cooking-stoves, the cheapest are by far the most expensive. We know by experience—by pocket experience—for, within a term of six years, we purchased three of as many different makers, and although it would have puzzled any but an expert to have pointed out why they were not equal to anything in the market, yet they turned out to be miserable rattletraps and tinkling cymbals compared to those of which we write; and all the skill and ingenuity of good workmen failed in rendering them fit for an amateur artist to play Yankee Doodle upon in a satisfactory manner. We got rid of our "bad bargains" one after another, at a sacrifice of course, and were recommended to purchase one of Chickering's Parlor Grands, which we did, three years ago, and we can now asseverate that it was the only "good bargain" in the Piano line we ever made. It is truly a magnificent instrument, and one that we are proud to have our friends listen to; and, moreover, it has not required a cent to keep it in good condition, except the slight expense of tuning it semi-annually. But while we are boasting of possessing a superior instrument, we have found, on inquiry, that all who possess a Chickering Piano are so proud of theirs as we of ours. We find no exception to the rule.—The truth is, the Chickering Piano has never found its rival in this country, and if we can put full credence in the great musical celebrities from abroad, Europe has failed to produce a more perfect instrument. It is, therefore, by no means singular that to the Messrs. Chickering were awarded the Gold Medal at the late Mechanics' Fair, held in this city, as has been invariably done at previous Exhibitions, not only here, but wherever they have competed for the prize. The number of Gold and Silver Medals which they have from time to time received, forms quite a rich and interesting numismatic collection, and it is generally admitted that they have never bore away a prize that they were not fully entitled to.

It is, indeed, a great satisfaction to possess a good and reliable instrument, and there is little danger of obtaining any other if it bears the name of Chickering & Sons.

W. Knoche, 92 Market street, East side, is sole agent for the Chickering Pianos, and can furnish such in prices varying from $225 to $1000, according to size and finish.

He also can furnish Pianos from inferior makers for the low price of $175, finely finished, but without taking any responsibility for the durability of the same. d3t.

Mitchell's New General Atlas for 1861.—This is Mitchell's latest and best attempt to furnish the American people with a complete Atlas, comprising a series of seventy-six maps and plans of different cities in the United States, with a full and accurate list of post offices, arranged in alphabetical order, numbering some twenty-five thousand, and corrected census of the principal towns and cities according to the latest returns, and other statistical knowledge so important to every man of business. Its maps are clear and distinct. The boundaries of each county and State are plain and distinct, the coloring beautiful, all combining to make it one of the most attractive and desirable works for the drawing-room or center table—a work every family ought to possess—while the low price at which it is furnished, places it within the reach of families of moderate means The engravings are entirely new, being gotten up expressly for this work, and give a clearness to the lettering and lines of demarkation of the different countries, seldom met with.

The work is sold only by agents and can be procured of the agent who is now visiting this city.
