SATURDAY, Feb. 9, 1861.

THE GIGGIOUS STARS AND STRIPES.—Many of our contemporaries in various sections of the State are demonstrating their devotion to the Union by displaying the Stars and Stripes over their respective establishments.

IN these days of national degeneracy, when the flag that our fathers have taught us to revere, in a portion of our land is ruthlessly torn from its fastenings and trampled in the dust.

ONE OF THE REV. MR. ROBINSON SUSPECTED OF BEING TOO INTIMATE WITH A CERTAIN YOUNG LADY, and was he not watched by yourself and certain prominent men in your church; and was it not ascertained that he had taken walks on the old bridge at an unusual hour of the evening with the lady in question?
