Pennsylvania Daily Telegraph, Monday Afternoon, Lebruary 18, 1861.

Monday Afternoon, February 18, 1861.

A SPECIAL MEETING of the Citizen Fire Com pany will be held at their hall this (Monday) evening, at seven o'clock. A full and prompt attendance is desired.

WORKINGMEN'S MEETING .- The officers of the Workingmen's meeting are requested to assemble in the hall of the Hope engine house this evening at seven o'clock.

A SPECIAL MEETING of the Good Will Fire Company will be held at the Engine House this evening at seven o'clock. Punctual attendance is desired, as business of importance is to be transacted.

PICK POCKETS .- Information has been received by the Chief of Police to the effect that a number of Philad-lphia and Baltimore pickpockets are making arrangements to visit this city on Friday next, to operate professionally. The Chief has personal descriptions of most of these fellows; and will be on the look out for them

THE PRESIDENT'S QUARTERS -The Committee have procured quarters for the President and his suite at the Jones House. The large parlors on the second floor, known as the Governor's rooms, will be used by the President for the reception of his friends. Ool Coverly is making argangements to entertain the distinguished visitor in the most elegant style.

REV. ALFRED COOKMAN, the former popular pastor of the Locust street Methodist Church of this city, will lecture in Lancaster next Wed nesday evening, on the subject of "Concentrated Energy." No doubt Mr. Cookman would accept an invitation to lecture in Harrisburg. The reputation he made while residing here in a ministerial capacity would not fail to attract Flags, and made to order at the lowest prices. the parade : National Guard Regiment, (ten a large audience.

CAVALBY SQUADBON. - The meeting for drill on Saturday last, notwithstanding the bad state of the roads, was quite well attended, and the exercises highly satisfactory to all concerned. Major L. N. Ott was elected instructor, E. C. Jordon First Lieutenant, and Col. D. J. Unger First Sergeant. The other officers are to be appointed at the next meeting and all are to serve until the Squadron is uniformed and organized into companies, when permanent officers will be elected. We were not present during the drill on Paxton street, but understand that there, as well as through the city generally, the exercises were highly creditable, the man and horses exhibiting an aptness truly astonishing, and promising a degree of efficiency in drill in a short time that will render the Squadron an institution to be proud of. The next meeting will be held at Hogan's, on Paxton street in in the morning to join the procession in the ceremonies of the day."

HARRISBURG CORN EXCHANGE.-In pursuance of a call published in the DAILY TELEGRAPH, the Commissioners of the Harrisburg Corn Exchange Association met at the store of A. Patterson on Saturday evening last.

On motion of J. R. Eby, Dr. Patterson was chosen President, pro tem. On motion of J. G. Lauck, J. Wallower, Jr., was chosen Secretary, pro tem. The President announced that the Association was fully organized and ready to proceed to the election of permanent officers.

HERE IS A GOOD DOMESTIC TOAST :--- "May your coffee and the slanders against you be ever alike, without the least grounds.'

THE EDITORIAL CONVENTION which was to have met at Lancaster on Wednesday, the 20th instant, has been postponed until further notice.

BODY FOUND .- The body of the Irishman who fell through the railroad bridge at Northumberland and drowned, last October, was found near Selinsgrove a few days ago.

CLOSING OF BANKS .--- All the banks of this city will be closed on the 22d inst. We mention the fact now for the benefit of business men who may have notes falling due on that day.

UNION BALL .- The festivities on Friday will close with a grand Union Ball in the Cameron Guard Armory. It will be a gay and recherche affair, and largely attended by sie "youth and that has accumulated is evidence that its beauty" of the city.

WRIT OF EXECUTION ISJUED .- The Governor | making money too fast. The road is managed has issued his writ for the execution of Cathcart, convicted of murder in Clearfield county. The condemned will suffer the penalty on Friday its stock, and are thus enriching themselves at the 12th day of April next.

THE TYCOONS .- A meeting of the Tycoon nesday evening, to make arrangements for a and young Tycoons are desired to attend the preliminary meeting.

THE CITY HOSPITAL contained six patients on Saturday night, all of them strangers. On Sunday morning the Mayor reprimanded and next Friday, on the occasion of raising the discharged them. Every few days a swarm of American Flag on the dome of the Capitol, straggling vagrants come along, many of whom will be the most extensive and splendid defind their way to the poor house.

CUMBERLAND VALLEY RAILROAD.-In House of Representatives, a few days since,

The Carlisle Volunteer favors the passage of this supplement for various reasons. It says the "Cumberland Valley Railroad, having no competition, its charges for freight are exorbiant, and amount to an imposition, if not direct robbery. It receives for carrying the mail, too, four times as much as it should receive, thus imposing upon the Government. 6 A Good TIME .-- The local of the Lynchburg flesh, fowl and poteen in abundance-and all to himself too. Lucky fellow ! How we envied her away. The poor wanderer is a German first water-splendid opening for just such a man as "Joe" in Harrisburg. If he can't come himself, let him send one of his friends:

A REGULAR TRUMP.—Our friend, Joe Smith of the Malta, is a trump, a regular trump, and no mistake, and if he says he ain't we'll 'lam'' cles and mourning over the poverty which had prevented our buying anything to eat for a week, Joseph entered the holy place, wrapped in his great coat, and behind came "Archie," bearing on his head a waiter which contained all the good things the human stomach can crave. Fish, flesh and fowl were there in abundance, and, to crown all, Joe "hisself" drew from under his coat a bottle of "old poteen," which would almost have made a teetotaller foreswear his pledge, could he have got a taste. We immediately "fell too," and in short order the enibles and drinkables were sent to that "bourne whence no such travelers ever return." After we had filled ourself to our content, and put away enough to last us until Joe sends some more, we resolved ourself into a committee of the whole on the state of and seconded, and upon being put to the vote, was unanimously adopted—ayes 1, noes 0, de-claring Joseph B. Smith of the Malta a "regu-iar trump." Three cheers were then given for Joe, and three times three for the Malta, after which the meeting adjourned to meet again when it should be called together. does not be the the space of the capital City look as gay and attractive as possible.

> An Insant Woman, named Susan Yesger arrived here on Saturday, in the cars, with a little girl four or five years of age, and stopped at Erb's tavern, near the depot. During the evening she wandered away from the house, and at a late hour was found somewhere on Front street. From the condition of her clothing, she had evidently been in the river. The were appointed to draft by-laws for the govern. Chief of Police took her to the prison, where she was comfortably provided for and kept until this morning. In reply to questions asked her, she stated that she came from New York, and had lived in this city some years ago, with a family named Reever. Her mind was affected to such a degree that she could give no satisfactory account of her wanderings, where her friends lived, or whither she was going. She had on her person five dollars in money, some keys, and a railroad baggage check. Her trunk contained a quantity of excellent wearing apparel, all in good condition. She seemed to be greatly troubled about her Republican had a "good time" lately-fish, child, a very interesting little girl, and repeatedly expressed fears that somebody would take
