More Military Reported.—Three companies of the first regiment, Chambersburg district, and four companies of the first regiment, Lancaster district, have reported to Major General Keim, and will be on parade next Friday. From indications the military force will not be less than four or five thousand.

NORTHERN CENTRAL RAILROAD. - The Locofoco member of the House from this county has introduced a bill to compel the Northern Central Railroad Company to fence their track in Dauphin county. We do not know what motive prompted this action on the part of Dr. Heck, but the proposition is so monstrously unjust that it is not likely to meet with much favor. We venture to say that if the facts were known A PATRIOTIC SUGGESTION.—It is suggested that | they would place the criginator of the bill in while the old soldiers are running up the "Stars | a very contemptible position. If there was no personal malice in the matter, why did not Dr. Heck include the other railroads passing through our county? We have no idea that the Legislature will commit an act of such gross injustice as to pass the bill alluded to.

> WASHINGTON'S BIRTH DAY, -As the most welcome and sacred day in our national history is near at hand, we are rejoiced to see that arrangements are being made throughout the entire country to celebrate that day—the twenty-second of February—with more than usual demonstrations of affection and loyalty. This is as it should be. Let us all unite in giving to the illustrious dead the honor which is due to the great services he has rendered to our our side. For in the 12th chapter and 19th country and to the world. All over the civilized world, the name of Washington is held in veneration, as a great benefactor of the human race, the friend of human liberty, the founder of the only free Republic on the face of the earth, the father of our own prosperous, and, grant that the return of this day may awaken remembrances of the past, whose hallowed associations shall tend to open all eyes to the magnitude of the interests which are now imperilled. All honor, devotion, and love to the birth-day of our ever-revered and illustrious Washington, who, under the guidance of that Almighty Power in whom he trusted, led our armies to victory, and our fathers to the creation of a system of government which has been our glory and the admiration of the world. May the dark clouds which threaten our peace be dispelled through the influence of the patriotic recollections which cluster around the coming birth-day of the man who was "first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

VANDEVER VS. THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD COMPANY .- This was an action on the case by Sarah Vandever, the widow of John Vandever, deceased, against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, for an alleged injury inflicted by the defendants' agents upon the plaintiff's hussome display. A similar demonstration will take place in Philadelphia at suarise on Friday morning, when the "stars and stripes" are to kis seat in the car of the Pennsylvania a large stock of Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings Railroad Company, as a passenger from Philadelphia to Parkesburg, where he resided. Soon after leaving West Philadelphia, the conductor which he will be escorted to the depot and take and the State agent applied to him for his ticket, which he failed to produce, alleging that he had paid his fare. They told him it would be necessary to produce his ticket, or TRIEGRAPH, containing a full and lively account pay his fare, or that they would be obliged to put him off the train. They told him to search for his ticket, and proceeded to collect the tickets from other passengers. After some time they returned, and he being still unable to produce his ticket, and refusing to pay his fare, they proceeded to remove him from the train. He was under the influence of liquor, but not so much as not to know what he was doing. The train was stopped at Paschall's Station, and was standing still when they removed him. The State agent, the conductor and Vandever passed out at the rear end of the car, on the platform, and the conductor got off upon the ground first. Vandever went down the steps backwards, holding by the railing on each side. He had one foot on the ground and the other FARHIONABLY DEBSED CHILDREN.—The absurd on the lower step of the platform; still holding

CORNER LOUNGING. -The Chief of Police last evening arrested an individual from the rural districts for corner lounging and improper conduct. The Chief informs us that he intends to enforce the ordinance against all the "nice young men" who make a practice of blocka ding the corners of our principal thoroughfares every evening, to the annoyance of lady pedestrians, whose feelings they frequently outrage by indulgence in obscene language. If the Chief abates this long-complained of nuisance he will receive the thanks of the community

THE BIBLE ON SECESSION.—We find in a South ern paper the following striking paragraph which proves conclusively that the prophe Joel was in favor of secession:

Who among us can conscienciously say, "the Lord being my helper, I have done what I could to relieve the suf fering?" It is said, with truthfulness, "we have poor enough to take care of in our own city;' but, like the blessed rays of the sun, which but, like the blessed rays of the sun, which give light to all, so unrestrained charity can to gladden the whole world. It may be a comfort to those who are alarmed by this, to be assured that Jeremiah is on our side. For in the 12th chapter and 19th verse he says: "The cities of the South shall be shut up, and none shall open them." Jeremiah being one of the greater prophets, and Joel only one of the minor prophets, the advantage is clearly with us.

Wood's Hair Restorative.—Among all Wood's HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Among all preparations for the hair that have been introduced as infallible, none has ever given the satisfaction or gained the popularity that Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative now has. His Restorative has passed the ordeal of innumerable fashionable toilets, and the ladies, wherever they have tested it, pronounce it a peerless article. They find, where the hair is thinned, that it creates a fresh growth—that it fully restores the vegetative power of the roots on the denuded places, and causes the fibres to sho of forth anew—that the disolves and removes dandruff, prevents grayness, restores the hair to its original color when grayness, as actually supervened, gives a rich lustre, imparts the softness and faribility of silk to the hair, and keeps it a laways luxrish, healthy and in full vigor.—"N.
