Our old printer friend Mr. Gant, of Philadelphia, is here with a supply of these up in another train. The Rifles will be accom beautiful badges and will no doubt find ready sale for them. . A

PHILADELPHIA MILITARY .-- In addition to the National Guard, the National Grays have accepted an invitation to participate in the parade here on Friday. Both companies will arrive in a special train about five o'clock on Friday morning. We have reliable information that the first named company will parade two hundred and fifty men, including officers and musicians. The Greys expect to turn out $2 00; Gold Heart Charm, $1 00; Gold Cross about sixty rank and file.

THE TWO MILITARY COMPANIES from Hollidaysburg-the Fencibles and Rifles-will par ticipate in the parade here on Friday. At Altoona they will be joined by the Knights Templar and the Brass Band of that place. Several of the Huntingdon county companies town Cavalry, are expected to come in the same train at two o'clock Friday morning.

DINNER FOR THE OLD SOLDIERS .- A resolu tion was offered by Col. Gregg, in the Senate this morning, and adopted, authorizing the Legislative Committee of Arrangements to provide a dinner, on Friday, at the expense of the State, for all the Old Soldiers who participate in the flag raising demonstration. Of course, the Committee will do the honors gallantly, and give the veterans a handsome entertainment.
