EVERYBODY CAR be supplied with U. S. Flags t Bergner's Bookstore, 51 Market Street. All rices and sizes.

FRIENDSHIP FIRE COMPANY.—The Members the Friendship Fire Company, No. 1, who ntend to participate in the parade to-morrow, will meet at their hall at the usual hour.

THE TYCOONS. -- A novel feature of the deonstration to-morrow, will be the parade of the Tycoons in the evening. They are making reparations to turn out in full force.

SHOULD a skunk read Shakspeare's Hamlet, that line would he choose for a motto? We ive the answer :

"Mothinks I scent the morning air." We get this from a young man who starts in ne pefumery business next week.

RECEPTION OF THE PRESIDENT .- The train ontaining the President and suite will stop at he lower end of Second street, where he will received by the Committee, and the Military nd Civic escort. The procession will form and ountermarch on Second street, proceed up scond to State, and thence to the Capitol.

CURE FOR NEURALGIA, FACEACHE AND TOOTH-THE. —Wrap in a piece of linen a small quanty of salt, dip it in water, then apply one of here to each nostril, inhale with some vigor, flosing the mouth the while. In a few minutes copious discharge of water will flow from the yes, nostrils and mouth. One or two applicalons will cure the severest attack.

THE PEOPLE ARE COMING. - Our hotels are rapidly filling up with strangers. The Demogratic Convention is largely attended, and we presume most of the delegates will hold over o witness the display to-morrow. The various milroad trains to-night will bring crowds of people, and by ten o'clock to-morrow the city will be full to overflowing. Our hotels, numerous and capacious as they are, cannot believe many are prepared to do.

THE STARS AND STRIPES are floating in various localities this afternoon, and the city already begins to present a fourth of July aspect. also hung out at the Jones House, the Brady House, the Franklin House, the Buehler House, and other hotels. Flags are in great demand, large quantities, of all sizes, having been sold within a few days. Long may they wave majestically over

Sumner Rifles, Carlisle. The Cadets, (juvenile company,) Carliele. Two Companies from Franklin county. Defenders of the War of 1812. Other military companies, not reported, will probably be here. The civic feature of the parade will comprise the Knights Templar, Free Masons and Odd Fellows, in the rich regalias of their respective orders; the Steuben Lodge and Harrisburg Beneficial Society; the entire Fire Department of this city, numbering seven handsomely equipped companies, with their machines gorgeously decorated; two Fire Companies from Lancaster; the Governor, Heads of Departments and Members of the Legislature; Judges of the Court and Members of the Bar; Mayor and City Council; and citizens generally. After passing over the route laid down, and reaching the Capitol, an oration will be delivered, the Farewell Address of Washington read, and the Flag elevated to its place over the dome by the Defenders of 1812. A national cations, the Capital City will be literally covered with flags.

GONE TO PHILADELPHIA. - The Legislative Committee appointed to receive President Lincoln, left to-day for Philadelphia, where they will meet the distinguished gentleman, and accompany him to this city.

THE CITY HOSPITAL contained six lodgers last night, all perambulating vagrants. Dan expects a large number of guests to-morrow night, and is making the necessary preparations for their accommodation.

Mount VERMON. - The members of the Mount Vernon Hook and Ladder Company, No. 1, will meet at the truck house, on to-morrow morning, at 8 o'clock, fully equipped for S. D. INGRAM, Pres't.

FIRE COMPANIES COMING.—The American and Union Fire Companies, of Lancaster city, intend participating in the parade to-morrow. and will come here about nine o'clock. It is reported that the Mechanicsburg and Carlisle Fire Companies will also be here, and probably two or three from other places.

ARRIVAL OF MILITARY. - Several visiting military companies will reach here this evening, and be received by the Cameron Guard, now on duty for that purpose. Between six and nine o'clock to-morrow morning, some eighteen or twenty companies will arrive in the various trains from the east and west.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM .- Several of the light-fingered fraternity from Philadelphia, are now in this city, with a view of operating professionally to-morrow. We caution all persons, strangers especially, to "beware of pickpockets." The Chief of Police has photographic likenesses of some of these fellows, and will no doubt capture them.

THE "HIVERS" extend a general invitation to the firemen of the city to meet at the Hope accommodate one-third of the visitors, and Engine House to-morrow morning at eight hundreds of them will fare badly, unless pri- o'clock, and participate with them in the cerevate citizens hang out their latch strings and monies incident to the raising of their new exhibit their hospitality on the occasion, as we American Flag. Our friend Mr. Jacob M. Barr will deliver an oration on the occasion.

THE DINNER TO THE OLD SOLDIERS.—The resolution passed by the Senate yesterday, authorising the Committee of arrangements to provide a free dinner for the old Defenders, to-morrow, was defeated in the House. This does not speak well for the patriotism of those members who voted against the resolution. Our Legislators appropriate a good deal of the public money for less worthy purgous. We hope the citizens of Harrisburg will no harrisburg arrangements to give the old soldiem a complimentary entertainment. Let us receive kindly and treat hospitably the veterans'who so nobly served their country in the second was of independence.

Frig Basungs.—The new American Eleg propured for the Cotton Mill will be flung to the breeze to morrow morning. An interesting feature of the occasion will be the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" and "E. Pluribus Unum," by the female operatives. The new Flag of the Hope Fire Company will also be raised at eight o'clock with appropriate ceremonies, comprising an oration, national music &c. The large and handsome Flag presented to the Citizen Fire Company by the ladies of this city, will be unfurled over the engine house at an early hour. The other engine houses, the Rolling Mill, Car Factory, Eagle Works, several of the hotels, and a number of stores and private dwellings, will also display the "Stars and Stripes."
