HARRISBURG, Feb. 21, 1861. MESSES. EDITORS :-- Your appeal in yester-day's paper for the suffering people of Kansas has induced me to enclose you twenty dollars, with a hope that many of our charitable citizens, who are noted for liberal gifts, may be constrained to send to your care their contributions at once, as your proposition in reference to a committee may be delayed too long. I trust that the papers of this city may urge the State Legislature to give (or loan, if please,) to that needy people, at least thirty thousand dollars, which will doubtless be re-turned again more than ten-fold by Him who "tempers the wind to the shorn lamb." I firmly believe that if such a noble act was passed, the tax payers and citizens of this great Commonwealth, (some exceptions,) in the generosity of their hearts, would rejoice. I have no direct interest in Kansas, therefore you will not impugn my motives. J. R. EBY. Yours truly.

Soon every inch of ground was occupied by a large number of ladies, the weather being cool and bracing. At eleven o'clock Mr. Lincoln was escorted to the Hall. Mr. Lincoln was received by Theodore Cuyler, who warmly welcomed him to the venerable walls in an hour of national peril and distress, when the great work achieved by the wisdom and patriotism of our fathers, seemed threatened with instant ruin.

Mr. Lincoln responded as follows:--Mr. Cuyler-I am filled with deep emotion at finding myself standing here in this place, where were collected the wisdom, patriotism and devotion to principle from which sprang institutions under which we live. You have kindly suggested to me that in my hands is the task of restoring peace to the present distracted condition of the country. I can say in return, sir, that all the political sentiments I enter-tain have been drawn, so far as I have been able to draw them, from sentiments which originated and were given to the world from this Hall. I have never had any feeling po-litically that did not spring from sentiments embodied in the Declaration of Independence. I have often pondered over the dangers which were incurred by men who assembled here and framed and adopted that Declaration of Independence. I have pondered over the toils that were endured by the officers and sol-diers of the army who achieved that independ. I have often inquired of myself what ence. great principle or idea it was that kept this confederacy so long together. It was not the mere matter of a separation of the colonies from Prepared from a Prescription of Sir J. Clarke, M. D., Physician Extraordinary to the Quien.
