HARRISBURG

Thursday Afternoon, February 28, 1861.

THE BLUE BIRDS, which always come to tell us of the arrival of Spring, are here, and make most charming music.

THE CAMBRON GUARD will meet at the Armory this evening at seven o'clock, to make arrangements for attending the funeral of the late Thomas L. Wilson, a soldier of the war of 1812. A full and prompt attendance is desired. By order of the Captain.

CITY ELECTION. - We publish in another column the proclamation of the Mayor for the city election, to take place on Friday, the 15th of March. We learn that a movement will shortly be inaugurated to get up a Citizens' ticket for city officers, irrespective of party. This is right. Politics should not be allowed to enter into our local elections.

SERVED RIGHT.—Last night a "lewd fellow of the baser sort," who insulted a respectable female on Market street, was followed by a male relative of the young lady and severely chasmay have the mortification of seeing their names in print, accompanied by a lecture upon race, we should answer in the negative. street loafing and ill breeding. "A word to the wise." &c.

COMPLIMENTARY .- Our good looking and clever cotemporary of the Wilkesbarre Record of the Times, Mr. Miner, who was at Harrisburg on Friday last, gives the Repass Cornet Band of Williamsport a highly complimentary notice. He evidently has a soul that is "moved by concord of sweet sound," and knows how to day, and found him to be a "trump." Long Peace to his ashes! may he wave!

YOUTHFUL CANDIDATES FOR THE PENITENTIARY. For some time past a number of boys have been a source of great annoyance to the resilanguage, and frequently insult passers by .-Recently they have been amusing themselves by pulling door bells at night and throwing stones into the windows of the German Catholic church and the untenanted house recently glass of the street lamps. Some of these boys are known to be the children of respectable parents, who seem to care little in what company their children are or how they conduct themselves. Though young in years, such is the malice and recklessness of some of these boys, when reproved for their wickedness, that we should not be surprised if some of them would end their days in the penitentiary.

THE LOTTERY ABOMINATION.—There is a swindler at Wilmington, named Flerchen, who is is most emphatically what the ladies would flooding the land with his lottery circulars, of a most infamously lying description. These circulars are sent to everybody whose address can be obtained; and it is presumed, in rural districts, where no directories exist, agents are sently form of a large lot of pants and soft as any Italian sky poet ever dreamed of. Union Victories in Cambria County .- Elec tions were held on Friday in the different districts of Cambria county for borough and township officers Union tickets had been formed in the greater portion of them, and were for the most part successful.

CURE FOR VAGRANCY .- Day after day vagrants continue to annoy our citizens. Set them to work, and the result will be astonishing, for in nine cases out of ten they prove themselves impostors, and the antidote works better than arsenic for rats.

THE HARMONIC SOCIETY will meet this (Thursday) evening, at 7½ o'clock, in the Baptist Lecture Room, for special rehearsal, preparatory for the forthcoming concert. Punctual attendance is very necessary on the part of active members, as the concert must take place within the next two weeks, at farthest.

Dogs VERSUS SHEEP. - Some of the Agricultural papers are discussing the relative value of dogs and sheep. It appears from a statement in one of the papers, that over a million doltised. We could name several more corner- lars worth of sheep are annually destroyed by loungers of the same class who deserve similar dogs in the United States—and the question is on Hanover street, was broken open, at punishment. DEMAND FOR HOUSES.—The demand for dwelling houses in this city seems to be on the increase, as "moving day" approaches. It is been accustomed to congregate on Front street evident that a large number of families are in the neighborhood of Locust street, who have still unsupplied with "local habitations" for the coming year. As an evidence of this, we dents of that neighborhood. During their may mention that an advertisement appeared play they use the most profane and unbecoming in the columns of the Telegraph last evening, offering a pleasantly located brick house for rent; and within a few hours after the issue of the paper fifteen or twenty persons visited our sanctum to ascertain the location of the dwelling and the terms upon which it could be occupied by Mr. Peacock, and breaking the leased. There is an unusual demand for small and cheap houses, and citizens who have such to rent should advertise them in the TELEGRAPH if they wish to secure occupants for them.

SPLENDID WEATHER. - We are now in the enjoyment of the most pleasant weather ever experienced in this region in the month of February. The Old Winter King, who has swayed an icy sceptre and frowned and stormed for months past, is now in his most amiable mood, and smiles upon us as he takes his departure Yesterday the weather was delightful, and this flooding the land with his lottery circulars, of a style "a love of a day." The American Volunteer of yesterday contains the following article relative to the detection and exposure of the "upper ten" burglars, and the modus operand by which they obtained supplies of jewelry, segars and tobacco, pistols and knives, and other "laxuries." One of the burglarious gang is the son of a prominent and highly respectable citizen of Dauphin county, and another belongs to an aristocratic Carlisle family. About the same time, line of business. About the same time, the book and stationery room of Professor Marshall, of Dickinson College, was forced, and robbed of books, paper, postage stamps, &c., to the value of about $100. Wm. Wetzel's carpenter shop was subsequently robbed of numerous tools, and several students lost articles from their rooms. No one could conjechowever, the mystery was explained, and the harglars discovered. A student of the College was suspected, and, during his absence on Saturday last, (he was on a visit home.) his room was searched by an officer. The carpet being removed, a loose board or trap-door in the floor was discovered. This was raised, and the stolen booty found—watches, jewelry, segars, books, stationery, carpenter's tools, pistols, knives, &c. The articles were all identified by those who had lost them. In addition to the stolen articles, a complete set of burglar's tools, was found secreted in the same place—night keys, skeleton keys, nippers, chisels, &c. This student had accomplices.
