HARRISBURG

Friday Afternoon, March 1, 1861.

THE USION PRAYER MEETING will be held in the Presbyterian Church, corner of Market four o'clock, as usual.

A STATED MEETING of the Washington Hose Company, will be held at the hose house this (Friday) evening, at 7½ o'clock. Punctual attendance is required.

Should any partizan demonstrations be attempted, it will become the duty of all good citizens to unite upon and elect reliable and competent men for the various official positions, irrespective of political considerations.

NORTHERN CENTRAL RAILBOAD.—The express train has been replaced upon this road. This will be a great accommodation to the traveling public generally, and especially to people living along the line of the northern end of the road, and the Sunbury and Eric road, whose business requires them to visit this city frequently. Under the present arrangement they can reach here at noon, transact their business, and return home the same night. An adverdisconent in another column gives the time of crival and departure of the various trains North and South.

MORATLITY IN YORK COURTS.-The "red de non of the nursery," scarlet fever, and typhoid nd interrhal fevers, have been quite prevalent or some time past in the neighboring county York. We are informed of one case, or ather a house full of cases, of typhoid characar, now under treatment in Lower Windsor penship, under peculiarly distressing circumances. Six persons in the family of Mr. Ja-Hertzier, are at present prostrated with at disease, and one other member of the mily died a short time since, leaving a young He and infant.

A Working Man .- Our efficient County thool Superintendent, Samuel D. Ingram, Esq. emphatically a working man.
