AMBROTYPES FOR TWENTY-FIVE CENTS .- If you wish a fine and cheap Ambrotype of yourself or friend, go to PARKER's Gallery, south-east corner of Market Square, over Kelker's hardware store. GEO. R. PARKER, Ambrotypist.

THE GOOD WILL FIRE COMPANY will hold a special meeting this evening to make arrangements for attending the funeral of Nelson Hudson, late a member of the Mount Vernon Hook and Ladder company.

ANOTHER BUTTON ENGINE.-The Good Will Fire company contemplate ordering a Button engine, similar to that of the Citizen company. Mr. Button, the manufacturer, is now in the city, and will be present at the special menting this evening. A full attendance of the members is, therefore, earnestly desired.

AT HALF MAST .- The flag on the Mount Vernon Hook and Ladder house is floating at halfmast to-day; in token of respect to the memory of a late member of the company, Mr. Nelson Hudson, who departed this life yesterday. The funeral, to take place to-morrow forenoon, will be attended by our firemen generally.

THE CITY HOSPITAL WAS crowded last hight the occupants comprising thirteen of the most miserable specimens of humanity we have even seen in that institution since its inauguration. This morning eleven of them, regular perambulating vagrants, were discharged. The other two were held for a further hearing on suspicion of being thieves.

FUNEBAL NOTICE.-The members of the Mt. Vernon Hook and Ladder Company will meet at their truck house to-morrow (Friday) morning, at 81 o'clock, to attend the funeral of their late fellow member Nelson Hudson, which takes place at 10 o'clock from his late residence in South street near Second.

STILL ABSENT .--- Most of the members of the Legislature are still absent, and the Capitol halls and principal hotels are comparatively deserted. Both houses re-assemble next Tuesday, Third street, the head of a family, makes a and we look for a busy time until the close of the session, which will probably be protracted until the first of May. _Among the important measures yet to be disposed of are the apportionment and appropriation bills.

Sr. PATRICK'S DAY .- The recurrence of St. Patrick's Day, as every son of Erin well knows, takes place on the 17th inst. We hear of no preparations for the celebration of the day here, and presume it will pass by unobserved and unhonored by our Irish citizens. In the principal cities the sons of the Emerald Isle will commemorate the occasion with the usual pomp and circumstance.

HOPE FIRE COMPANY .--- A special meeting will be held this evening at seven o'clock, to make arrangements for attending the funeral of Mr. Nelson Hudson, late a member of the fire dedartment of this city.

MYSTERIOUS .- We heard this morning that ome boys had found a bonnet, genteel in appearance and pearly new, on the river shore between the two bridges. Whether it belonged to a suicide, or was placed there for the purpose of creating a "sensation," remains to pany will be held this evening, at 7 o'clock, to be developed. The most probable solution of ring worm, scorvy, scrofulous eruptions, and all inflam the mystery is, that during the wind-storm which prevailed last evening, the bonnet was blown from some woman's head while passing along Front street, and carried to the spot where it was found this morning, the darkness preventing the owner from recovering it.

THE CITY ELECTION .- The municipal election takes place on Friday of next week, and the said ward. Punctual attendance is requested. Democrats are making arrangements for the nomination of partizan tickets. In days of yore politics did not enter into our spring elections, but within a few years it has showed itmeet in the Union Church, Philadelphia, on self prominently, especially in the contest for the 20th inst.
