A Long and Eventful Life. In noticing the fact that the inauguration of Mr. LINCOLN was the eighth ceremony of the kind at which Chief Justice TANEY had officiated, the Cincinnati ced from the accession of MARTIN VAN BUREN to the Presidency up to the pre-States Senate when the United States mark his Presidential career. Bank was made an issue by the Whig par-JACKSON'S Administration, but whose ministration, and sustained it on the floor murmur that it was not worthily bestowed, after momentary political rancor had done its worst, until the Dred Scott decission, conflicting with the political views of party, again submitted the venerable statesman and jurist to the animadversions of the censorious.

How different the leading principles of the Administrations, Judge TANEY inaugurated ! Mr. VAN BUREN'S policy an issue in the canvass, and it was cer- tion of the American Union ! tainly not desired to be made an issue by General HARRISON. That the people were averse to the re-establishment of the United States Bank was indicated by the nomination of Gen. HARRISON over Mr. CLAY at Harrisburg-the former known to favor a restoration of the deposites to the Bank restored to its former privileges exchanges of the country, and a uniform circulating medium. After events have lowing prediction : shown whether the exchanges could regunder the "great regulator."

dministration were the final disposition of the Bank of the United States, the little and big Tariff, and the proposed antest. Mr. Polk succeeding, the annexation of Texas consummated, against strenuous opposition, based principally upon the theory that our empire was sufficiently extensive, and like that of Rome, might fall of its own extent and heterogeneous elements. The Mexican war was commenced and consummated, for his participation in which, Gen. TAXLOR, as a successful commander, was made the next President. President TAYLOB, the compromise, in tics. accomplishing which the greatest minds of the nation were engaged, was not accomplished, retarded, it was thought by some, by the ambitious views of the then Secretary of State, Mr. CLAYTON. On the accession of Mr. FILLMORE, the nerves of the country were pacified by the acceptance of the compromise of 1850. Contrary to general expectation, Mr.
