THE CITY HOSPITAL contained but one solitary ledger last night, a perambulating vagrant who voluntarily sought the friendly shelter of that institution.

SHAWL THIEF.—The tobacco store from which a shawl was stolen recently, was that of our them being more than "half seas over," a row which some waggish neighbor had placed at old friend Mr. David J. Krause, and not Kramer as incorrectly reported. The shawl belonged blers were thrown about the room promiscu to "Uncle Davy," and is one of the best quality. The thief, thus far, has escaped detection.

matism. His place will be temporarily supplied by one of the Constables of the city.

THE LEGISLATURE. - Three important measures yet remain to be acted upon by the Legislature. Mr. Williams' movement for the impeachment of the Supreme Court, the appropriation bill, and the apportionment of the State. All these measures will occupy considerable time, and from present indications the Legislature cannot adjourn before the latter part of April.

NEW RAILROAD PROJECT.—A bill has been introduced into the State Senate by Mr. Hamilton, to incorporate a company to make a railroad from any point on the Lebanon Valley Railroad, between Womelsdorf and Reading, to any point on the Pennsylvania Railroad, be. tween Lamon Place and Lancaster city. The corporators live in Reading and Lancaster cities.

THE FAIR of the Good Samaritan Council. Daughters of Temperance, opens at Exchange Hall this evening. Our colored friends will offer for sale a large and varied assortment of useful and fancy articles, and all kinds of refreshments, with a view of realizing "material in this city: aid" towards liquidating the dabt upon their AN ACT to establish a law library in the city hall. The room is elegantly fitted up and presents an attractive appearance.

"A Woman should never, under any circumstances whatever, lose her temper," says popular maxim. This is all nonsense. You might as well tell the wind not to blow on a March day, or the rain not to come down in April. It does them good to "explode" occasionally! A woman, to be good for anything, benefit of the Judges of the Court, and memmust have as much spice and sparkle in her as a bottle of champagne—and if the cork does come out once in a while, with a bang, why that don't depreciate the value of the goods.

THE PHILADRIPHIA CONPERENCE meets to morrow, and it is expected that the proceedings will be of more than ordinary interest. Rev. Mr. Carson left last Friday, and Rev. Dr. Bishop to-day. It is probable that the former will names of the fair and good—names that chrisbe returned to the Vine street church, and a new preacher to West Harrisburg, which is to week after week, in the obituary column. We be made a separate charge. There is much look around us and are startled to see how speculation among our Methodist friends of the broken are the ranks. But so gently has Na-Locust street congregation as to the successor- ture done her work that the day declines unship of Dr. Bishop. This being one of the noted, and twilight is upon us, and lo, the most important charges within the Conference stars are out shining one by one! Who will limits, good judgment should be exercised in there be, by and by, to talk of the old familiar the selection of a preacher to fill it.

A GAVEL PRESENTED TO THE SENATE. - Yesterday afternoon Mr. HALL, Senator from Blair county, on behalf of HERMAN YERKES, Chief Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate, presented to honored, respected citizens who have passed that body, in a neat and appropriate address, a from life unto death—or rather from this state splendid ivory Gavel, heavily banded with of trial to that state of enjoyment—during our gold, on which is the following inscription :-Presented to the Senate of Pennsylvania by press of this city. But the list is too numer-HERMAN YERKES, Sergeant-at-Arms, 1861 .-ROBERT M. PALMER, Speaker of the Senate.-Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of the Commonwealth." Mr. HALL offered a resolution of acceptance, and thanks to the donor for the beautiful gift. The resolution was adopted by a unanimous vote. The Speaker then accepted the Gavel in a neat address of thanks. For the proceedings in full see our Legislative report.

A MURDERER PARDONED .- Governor Curtin has pardoned Richard Jones, confined in the wife. The particulars of the murder are so state article:--Western Penitentiary for the murder of his fresh in the memory of newspaper readers that birds—beautiful, tender and intelligent birds, we need not repeat them. of Allegheny county. HEARTLESS CASE OF INFANTIGIDE.—A heartless HEARTLESS CASE OF INFANTICIDE.—A heartless case of infanticide occurred in Cambria county recently. A young girl named Ann Hartzel, living in the family of Mr. Wm. Smith, one night complained of severe cramp in the stomach, for the relief of which Mrs. Smith gave her some simple remedy. The family shortly after retired to bed, and before they had fallen on it, there is probably the trace of an insect after retired to bed, and before they had fallen on it, there is probably the trace of an insect asleep Ann got up and went out of doors, remaining out about three-quarters of an hour.

About this time two young men, while received. About this time two young men, while passing microscope. The same microscope reveals that the house, had their attention attracted by the the blood rain suddenly appearing on bread, and liu, 12½ cents, which I will sell by the piece at the house, had their attention attracted by the cry of an infant, and after a brief search they found a baby sticking under the pig pen. The child was taken into the house and properly cared for by Mrs. Smith. There were various marks of violence discovered upon its person, and it was apparently fatally injured. It survived but about nine hours. An inquest was held, and a verdict of willful may be a solved for which sparkles on the surface of netts. Cambric Bands, Hemstiched Handker.

RUMORED APPOINTMENT .-- It is currently runored to daythat Capt. Jacob M. Eyster, of this ficer, and will do good service in the army.

SPOTTED FEVER.-A disease, known as the spotted fever, prevails to a considerable extent in this and Lebanon counties. It has proved ligent boy, who can read manuscript readily fatal in a number of instances recently, baffling the skill of physicians, and carrying its victims off quite suddenly.

raftmen from the pine regions started out on a land cruise through the city to see the sights. Among other institutions, they visited a disreputable den back of the Capitol, and all of with the female inmates was the result. Tumously, looking glasses broken, tables and chairs be pitied for overlooking the use of the means upset, et cetera. One of the women undertook to interfere with these amusements, and was THE CHIEF OF POLICE has not been on duty roughly treated. The "yanks" finally left for three or four days, being confined to his without compensating the proprietress of the room by a severe attack of inflammatory rheu-establishment for the damage done to her household furniture. None of the police officers being on duty in that locality, "the play went on" without official interference, and none of the participants were arrested.

Another Row near Dauphin .- Our readers will recollect that some months ago Sheriff Eyster, accompanied by Mr. Wm. McKeesick and others, visited a house near Dauphin, occupied by Frederick Moss, for the purpose of dispossessing him, and that a row ensued, resulting in the flight of the Sheriff and his posse, without accomplishing their object. Yesterday Sheriff Boas visited the house on a similar mission, and was successful. After the family had vacated the premises, McKeesick, between whom and Moss a bitter feud has long existed, made his appearance, when the wife of Moss assaulted him with an iron poker and cut his head severely. Moss and his wife were arrested. brought to this city last night, and lodged in prison to await a trial for assault and battery. These are the particulars of the affair in brief, as we learned them this afternoon.

LOCAL BILL.-Our Senator, Mr. Bouhgter, vesterday read in place the following bill, providing for the establishment of a law library of Harrisburg.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c. That all monies arising from forfeited recognizances in the county of Dauphin, or so much of them as may be deemed necessary and expedient, after the payment of the costs and fees in criminal and civi actions, shall hereafter be appropriated by the bers of the bar of said county. Provided, That the books belonging to said library shall not be removed from said Court House.

DEPARTED AND DEPARTING .- We have been turning over the volumes of the TELEGRAPH for several years past, and the thought presses upon us heavier than a shadow, how like a cemetery its columns are. Names of the wise and true-names of the stout and braveten, hallow and beautify the past-recorded, faces :--

And some are taken from us; all are departed, All, all are gone, the old familiar faces !''

We might refer, by way of illustration, to old, many years connection with the newspaper ous, and to name one would seem to imply the obligation to name all. Simple monumental slabs in our beautifully decorated "city of the dead" indicate their place of interment, while their virtues and good deeds are fondly cherished by those they have left behind.

LIFE EVERYWHERE.—Under this caption deeply interesting and instructive article makes its appearance in one of our literary exchanges. How mysterious the world we live in! How it teems with life! What lessons it teaches of our paper would not comprise all we would creative skill and providential superintendence!

We hope the rumor may prove sentatives from Lycoming county, has accepted true. The Captain is a first-class military of an invitation from the Young Men's Christian Association of this city, to deliver a lecture on Tuesday evening next. An effort is making to secure the Hall of the House of Representatives for that purpose, and we have no doubt it will be granted. As an eloquent and entertaining lecturer, Mr. Armstrong has few equals, and we can safely promise our citizens a rich intellectual and literary treat. > "TRUSTING TO LUCK."-The poor deluded man who supposed a basket of provisions, his door, was an answer to the prayer, "Give us this day our daily bread," was greatly to understood in that beautiful petition. But this extreme of his belief in Providence, ludicrous as was the light in which it caused him to appear, was wisdom compared with the no tion of such as "trust to luck." That was, at worst, a perversion of a most consoling doctrine of Christianity, while the doctrine of "luck" has no starting point from anything but ignorance and folly of the sorriest kindnay, worse than this, from atheism itself! For what is "luck" but another word for "fate?" The man who trusts to the one trusts to the other, endeavor, as he may, to hide the fact f.om the world and his own heart. He who blindly trusts to luck, chance, fate, or even Providence, in the sense above considered, is a simpleton! Providence helps him who helps himself! Your true man works as well as prays; and shrinks instinctively from the very thought of such atheism as "trusting to luck," or chance.

THE LION AND THE LAMB OF MARCH,-There are some people who fancied that because Miss March "came in like a Lamb," that she would retain her sheepish demeanor until the close; but they should have a greater reverence for old laws and wise sayings than to suppose that | chief to March would not "spread" herself before giving way to the blended smiles and tears of April. She has shown herself as blustry and vigorous, so far, as any of the Marches which have gone before. Two weeks ago she was in the mildest and meekest of moods-smiling gently upon church-goers, not even flirting a ribbon, or displaying a well turned ankle by little flirtation of the zephyrs with wide-spread crinoline. The maples were wooded into leaf, windows were thrown open to the warm air, and the canaries chirped away in the fond belief that Spring had come in earnest. But the delusion vanished early in the month-March began to feel her oats, and to snort and kick up her heels, and was soon in such full blow that the entire skill of Professor Rarey could not have brought her to her knees and compelled good behaviour. Snows and bluster have been the order of the day for two weeks and it must be the Lion part of the month we are now having.

The Great Pan-tec-na-thec-a

AT Brant's Hall, Morrison's Great Pan-tecna-thec a, which opened at Brant's Hall, on Monday evening, is one of the most splendid affairs that it has ever been our lot to witness. Every scene advertized is represented to view with a distinctness and vividness actually startling. Washington City, the Capitol, the new Senate Chamber, the Hall of Representtatives, all the public buildings of Washington, the President's House, with the famous East room and all its furniture, is brought before FIRST THREE MONTHS of Pregnaucy, asthey are sure you as plain as though you went to visit to bring on Miscarriage, but at any other time they are

Of the thirty-three views of American scen ery which are represented, there is hardly one but that is worth the price of admission There are five splendid views of Niagara, almost surpassing the Falls themselves. So clear is the water painted in these pictures that you can actually see the rocks beneath the water. The scenery of the White Moun tains is sublime. The views in the Mammoth Cave surpass all that we have ever imagined of this wondrous cavern. The great voyage acros the Atlantic from New York to Liverpool creates the most intense interest from begining to end. We might go on to describe the rest of this Exhibition, but the limits of say. It is one of the best exhibitions ever seen at Harrisburg, and all who do not see it will miss the rarest treat of a life-time.

DESTRUCTION VS. DRY GOODS .- Many of the readers of this paragraph may recollect the intense excitement produced by the burning of the Cumberland Valley Railroad bridge in 1845; also the great flood in the Susquehanna in 1848, and the general excitement and loss of property attending the carrying away of that portion of the old bridge on the Harrisburg side, opposite the corner of Frent and Market streets, which is now occupied as a Dry Goods store by Messrs. Union & Bowman. The special object of this notice is to call public attention to their large and new stock of Spring Goods, just received and opening this day, which they are prepared to dispose of at destructively low prices for cash. A portion of these goods are from the Underwriter's auction sale of British goods damaged by fresh water on board the ship John Trucks, sunk in the Delaware river. mch18-d2t-
