

Daily Telegraph.

HARRISBURG.

Friday Afternoon, March 22, 1861.

WANTED at this Office an active and intelligent boy, who can read manuscript readily and accurately, and will make himself generally useful.

MILITARY—The Cameron Guard, accompanied by the State Capital Band, will parade to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock.

THE UNION PRAYER MEETING will be held in the Presbyterian Church, corner of Market Square, to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon, commencing at four o'clock, as usual.

SALE OF CITY PROPERTY—A house and lot of ground, located in Grand street in this city, will be offered at public sale at the European Hotel to-morrow evening.

PATRIOTIC—We notice that Messrs. Gross, & Co., and Mr. Scheffer, in Market street, daily display large and beautiful American flags in front of their stores. Business men who exhibit so much patriotism ought to be liberally patronized.

THE GOOD SAMARITAN FAIR is still in successful progress, having been well patronized during the week. The visitors are entertained with piano music by Miss Price, whose performance is highly creditable. The fair will close to-morrow evening, with an auction sale of the articles remaining on hand.

THE VERNAL EQUINOX—Yesterday occurred the vernal equinox, when by the laws of nature the day and night were of equal length, the sun rising at six o'clock in the morning and setting at six o'clock in the evening. For several days there will be no perceptible difference in the length of the period between the rising and setting of the sun, but afterwards the days will gradually lengthen until the twenty-first day of June, when the summer solstice will be reached and the sun will again approach towards the equator. After the equinox the weather generally becomes more settled, and the work of the husbandman begins for the year.

THE FIREMEN OF THIS CITY are under obligations to Messrs Patterson of Juniata, Wilson of Beaver, and Heck of Dauphin, for the zeal and ability with which they advocated the proposition to appropriate each of the companies one hundred dollars. The "boys" richly deserve all the compliments paid them by the above-named gentlemen, for no city of the same size in the Union can boast a more patriotic and efficient body of firemen. Considering the extent and value of the property in this city owned by the State, on which there is not a dollar of insurance, we think the Legislature made a mistake in refusing to grant the appropriation asked.

IN BAD TASTE—The coarse assault of the Look Haven Watchman upon Wm. H. Armstrong, Esq., one of the Representatives from that district. No constituency in the State is represented with more dignity, ability and fidelity than the people of Lycoming county, and they have just reason to be proud of their faithful and efficient representative. We have noted the course of the Watchman for some time past, and are forced to the conclusion that its imprudent and impolitic course is doing more to damage the Republican party of Lycoming county, than the Democratic paper possibly can do. Our political friends in that county better have no "organ" at all than such a one as they are now inflicting with; and this we know to be the sentiment of a large number of them with whom we have conversed lately.

DEATH—The following is from Cumming's "Great Preparation," first series: "Everywhere there is death. Is it not a remarkable fact that there is nothing that you can plant, or build, or lay aside, that death in some of his formulas does not instantly set upon? Build walls of granite, and they decay; and what is decay? the breath of death will instantly begin to act upon them. Build your Houses of Parliament of stone selected by the best judges, and death with his fangs is already gnawing into dust the fabric that cost millions of the nation's wealth. The sweetest flowers that burst into bloom will no sooner reach their full bloom and beauty than death will breathe upon them, and they will wither and be resolved into earth again. All that man builds, all that nature throws up from her bosom, all that is fragrant in the depths, all are under the regime of decay, disease and death."

THE POLITICIAN—It is a pretty true saying that the politician who lives by his "profession" must kiss the foot of every man in the Commonwealth. He who would climb the ladder of politics must first go down from his position as a man, to begin to come up as the other thing. Intrigue, deceit, treachery, are too often absolute requirements to accomplish an individual in this business. The following description, from Irving's Salimagrundi, is as true at this day as ever it was: "To rise in this country a man must first descend. The aspiring politician may be compared to that indefatigable Virginia insect called the tumbler, which buries itself in filth, and works ignobly in the dirt, until it forms a little ball, which it rolls laboriously along like Diogenes in his tub—sometimes head, sometimes tail, foremost—plunging from every rat and mud hole, and increasing his ball of greatness by the contributions of the kennel. Just so the candidate for greatness. He plunges himself in the mob, labors in dirt and oblivion, and makes unto himself the rudiments of a popular name from the admiration and praise of the vulgar. His name once started, onward he goes, struggling and puffing and pushing it before him; collecting new tributes from the drags and offals of society as he proceeds, until having gathered together a mighty mass of popularity, he mounts it in triumph, is hoisted into office, and becomes a great man, and a ruler in the land."

SOME SHEEP—Mr. Henry Backenstoss, a farmer of West Hanover township, brought to this city to-day a sheep raised by him, which weighed two hundred and one pounds. It was purchased by Mr. Nicholas Reamsbart for the sum of ten dollars.

FEMALE THIEF—Yesterday we noticed the arrest of a drunken Irish woman, who had in her possession two wabs of calico and other articles, supposed to have been stolen. The property was subsequently identified by Messrs. Epley and Nabaum, from whose stores they had been taken. The woman was committed to await a trial for larceny.

THE COST OF LITIGATION—Among the cases disposed of in the Court of Common Pleas this week, was that of Jacob Hartman vs. Benjamin Koppensheffer. This was an action of ejectment for something less than an acre of land in the upper end of the county, worth about fifteen dollars. The jury rendered a verdict in favor of the defendant. We learn that the costs in the case amount to over five hundred dollars!

MAIL ROUTE AGENT—According to general rumor Mr. George B. Ayres, formerly of this city, has been appointed mail route agent on the Cumberland Valley Railroad between here and Chambersburg. There were several applicants for the position, and among the disappointed is one who thought he had "a sure thing of it." In the language of the old song, "doubtful things are mighty uncertain." We sympathize with our Republican friends who are "left out in the cold," and wish them better luck next time.

"TURNIP JUICE" CHAMPAGNE—The drinkers of spirituous beverages have long had reason to suspect the purity of fluids they swallowed, but we imagine few drinkers ever thought themselves victims of turnip juice. The fact, however, was disclosed in the Court of Sessions of New York last week, when a witness in a certain case testified that the wine which had been sold by him, while in the employ of the defendant, was made of what was called "turnip juice." This was "made to sparkle by gas made from vitriol and marble dust, and then labeled champagne." No wonder that intemperate persons so often die prematurely.

A HIT—The Allouez Tribune indulges in the following fling at our "patriotic young men," and the item contains more truth than poetry:

SPASMODIO—The military spirit of the Harrisburgers. Every time the citizen soldiery of the surrounding country give them a grand exhibition of the "pompa and circumstance" and glorious war, we have rumors of several new companies being formed by the patriotic young men of that place, but in less than a month the thing is flat in the mud.

Exactly! The Zouave fever, which raged for a brief period, has already died out; and the permanent organization and equipment of the "Cavalry Squadron" has been postponed indefinitely. As regards the Cameron Guard, it is difficult to muster men enough to make a respectable parade once in a year. Playing soldier is an expensive amusement in which our "patriotic young men" have not the inclination or the means to indulge. It won't "pay" these hard times.

A GOOD MOVEMENT—The custom of attending funerals for the purpose of getting a gratuitous carriage ride, and enjoying one's self in a "promiscuous manner generally," has become so annoying and scandalous in a neighboring city, that several benevolent societies have adopted resolutions not to attend funerals unless the number of "mourners" be restricted to the immediate family of the decedent. Under the system practiced in Harrisburg and other cities, funerals are very expensive affairs. People of limited means are taxed beyond their ability to pay, in order to accommodate, with a "free ride" to the cemetery, persons who make it a point to attend all funerals for that express purpose. The custom is a ridiculous one, imposing heavy burdens upon the poor, and ought to be abolished here, as it has been in most of the principal cities.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY IN THE PITTSBURG PRISON—A PRISONER MURDERED BY A SUPPOSED LAWYER.—The county jail in Pittsburg was the scene of a most extraordinary and bloody tragedy yesterday morning, the particulars of which are detailed by the Chronicle of last evening, as follows:

A man named John Lewis, committed for vagrancy by Esquire Jancy, of Lawrenceville, was murdered in cold blood by a fellow named Andrew McMullen, with whom he had had no previous acquaintance, and to whom no provocation, whatever, was given for the commission of the dreadful deed. It appears that McMullen is of unsound mind, and some two years since was before the Court on a charge of assault and battery. The testimony showing, however, that the man was a lunatic, a verdict of acquittal in his case was rendered, and he was ordered to be sent to the Hospital for safe keeping. He remained there till about three months since, when he was discharged, apparently cured, and since then he has been leading a dissolute life, passing a part of his time in jail, and the balance among his friends, some of whom are said to be well to do and respectable citizens. Saturday morning he was conducted by the body of the unfortunate, but at the time he gave no indications that his old malady had returned, or that his mind was in the least disturbed. He was placed in cell No. 18 on the ground floor, and every night since he has had one or more persons to sleep with him.

Last night the deceased was brought in and taken to McMullen's cell, where he was locked up for the night. He did not appear to be drunk at the time, and demeaned himself like a quiet, inoffensive man. During the night great noise prevailed in the cell, but unfortunately the man on guard failed to hear it, and no attempt was therefore made to ascertain the cause from which it proceeded. The fact, however, revealed itself this morning, when the turnkey came to unlock the door. On the bed inside lay stretched the body of the unfortunate Lewis, his face covered with blood, and near him lay a bloody handkerchief, which he had used to wipe his forehead. He was still living, but so badly hurt that he could not speak. He had a head that but some three quarters of an hour elapsed ere his spirit had departed for another world. Near him stood McMullen, apparently contemplating his bloody work. He had a piece of stick in his hand, which was covered with the gore of his victim, and looked with stolidity on while the turnkeys working with horror from the bloody spectacle before them. In reply to the interrogatories of one of them, he merely answered that he beat the deceased because he could not speak German, and declined saying more. He was removed to another cell, while his victim was washed and a physician sent for, but before he could arrive he had died.

NOW IS THE TIME to plant trees and grape vines. Those who have such work to do should give it their attention.

POCKETS PICKED—Last night two ladies, while passing out of Brant's Hall, after the "show," were relieved of their money-purses. Now-a-days, when pick-pockets infest every place where large crowds of people congregate, ladies, and gentlemen too, who visit shows and concerts, should leave their money at home.

IN LUCK—Our clever and good looking contemporary of the Clearfield Raftman, Mr. Rowe, has been appointed by the Postmaster General a through route agent between Philadelphia and the West. Mr. Samuel B. Lauter, of this city, at present a clerk in the Surveyor General's office, was an applicant for the same position.—Having failed in this, Sam will no doubt try his luck again. He deserves a "fat take," and we hope he will get it.

A HARD "CASE"—A tramping tyro, with dilapidated apparel, a "battered form," and completely "out of sorts," came here yesterday, got on an extra load of tanglefoot, and this morning was found "rolling" about the streets in a drunken condition. Officer Wickert took him to prison, and placed him behind the "cross bars" of that institution, where he will have an opportunity to get sober, "compose" his mind, and indulge in profitable reflection.

THE OLD STARS AND STRIPES—When every State has adopted its distinctive flag, every county its banner and every town its pennon, the old stars and stripes will float majestically above them all, and inspire more respect than all the rest. Like the scene described in Scott's poem of Marion:

"In the air
A thousand streamers floated fair,
Various in shape, device and hue,
Green, sanguine, purple, red and blue;
Broad, narrow, swallow-tailed and square,
Scroll, pennon, pencil, banner, and
Over the pavilions flew.
Highest and hindmost was decreed
The Royal Banner floating wide."

THE SUN GOING OUT—There are now more spots on the sun than have been seen for many years; some of these are visible through a smoked glass to the naked eye. Several stars—some of them of great brilliancy, which, from their ascertained distance, must have been as large as our sun—have totally disappeared from the sky; and the question has been raised among astronomers whether the light and heat of the sun are fading away. As this would be accompanied by the destruction of all plants and animals on the earth, it is rather an interesting question. The sun's light and heat are diminished by the dark spots at the present time about one per cent.

POPULAR SONGS—While thousands of songs have been published, very few comparatively survive. Some fall still-born from the press, some linger for a few days, and some hold out a little longer. It is rare, indeed, to find one outlasting its generation; even the great majority of Moore's have "died and made no sign." Those of Bayley perished still more rapidly. The lyrics of no song-writer survive to those of the extent of Burns. Of living songs the best of his and a few older ones are nearly all that remain. Time has winnowed the bad, the indifferent, and the ordinarily good away, till only those are left which approximate towards perfection. How much better it would be if those old lyrics, which bear the approval of ages, were oftener sung! We do not condescend how ladies of culture can patronize the trashy songs which lumber up their music racks, vitiate their own taste, and outrage the ears of their listeners. We are, at least, certain that if they would sing the really good songs the language affords, there would be less talking while they were at the piano, and probably more sincere lovers at their feet.

USE OF TOBACCO IN PRISONS—We wonder how the prisoners in our county jail would like to be deprived of the use of tobacco and cigars? Such a regulation might be adopted for sanitary reasons, as well as to form a part of prison punishment by cutting off the "luxuries of life."

About two years since, the Inspectors of the Philadelphia County Prison prohibited the use of tobacco in that institution. Since that time, the physician of the prison has given much time in testing the question whether it can be withdrawn at once without injury to those who have been accustomed to its use from youth to old age. It was feared, says the doctor, "by some philanthropic persons, that its sudden withdrawal would induce a mania similar to mania-a-potu, dyspepsia, and a large catalogue of nervous complaints. The sudden disuse of tobacco, opium, alcoholic stimulants, &c., especially when shut up in a cell, must of necessity make the prisoner feel the want of them as a great privation; but why give him tobacco, and refuse to others luxuries, the want of which is deemed as great a privation to them as tobacco is to the chewer and smoker? As to tobacco it is the chequer and smoker? Upon one time large quantities of opium were given, under the erroneous idea that it was indispensable; as some now believe that mania-a-potu cannot be successfully treated without the administration of stimulants in the form of spirituous liquors." The doctor further states, "that after having watched its effects carefully, he is strengthened in the opinion formerly given, that tobacco is simply a luxury, and its use a bad habit. It is in no way necessary to life, as the health of many of the prisoners improved, and certainly not one of them was injured by the prohibition, and he knows of no good and substantial reason why it should be given in any case; and in this opinion many other physicians having personal and reformatory institutions under their own agree." The doctor also says, "that he can allow for the sympathies and prejudices of old smokers and chewers, but at the same time he has no hesitation in concurring in the conclusions of Dr. Morat, that the mass of positive testimony accumulated in India and elsewhere as to the absence of any ill effects from the cessation of the use of tobacco, even to those habituated to it from infancy, shows that it is not needed for the performance of any healthy function in the human stomach, and that the denial from convicts is a wise, sound, and judicious measure of prison discipline."

SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC PRINTING—It affords us pleasure to announce the appointment of our old-time friend, Wm. P. I. Painter, Esq., formerly one of the editors of the Uncle Sam newspaper, to the office of Superintendent of Public Printing. The nomination was sent to the Senate this morning and promptly confirmed. He will enter upon the discharge of his official duties immediately. We have known Mr. Painter long and intimately, and heartily endorse his appointment, confident that he will make one of the most efficient and useful Superintendents that has ever filled that position.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT—MAIL AND BAGGAGE BURNED.—The mail train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, which left Pittsburg for this city on Wednesday evening, was detained several hours by an accident which occurred this side of Altoona. It appears that as the train was passing along near the small town of Peterburg, there were some cattle upon the track, and the engine could not be stopped until it had come in contact with one of the animals. The locomotive was damaged and the baggage and mail cars thrown from the track. The baggage and mail car then took fire from the stove, and the mail matter, together with the baggage of about eighty passengers, was destroyed. Only a few remnants of the mail were saved and brought to this city. We are glad to state that no lives were lost, nor were any of the passengers or employees injured.

MUSLINS! MUSLINS! MUSLINS!—1000 yards of the very best unbleached Muslin, 10 cents; 2000 yards of beautiful bleached Muslin, 10 cents; 2000 yards of the best long cloth Muslin, 12 cents, which I will sell by the piece at 11 cents; 2000 yards of remnant of Calico De Laine, to be sold very cheap; remnants of colored Silk, cheap; De Laine and other dress goods at cost; Broche Shawls and other Shawls at cost; Cassimere for pants; Black Cloth, Cassinette, and a large lot of pants stuff at cost; a splendid assortment of Cambrics, Jaconets, Cambric Bands, Hemstitch Handkerchiefs, which I will sell at auction prices; white and colored Flannel at cost. For cheap goods call at S. LAW'S, Rhoads' old corner.

FELLOW CITIZENS—It is the duty and privilege of every individual to contribute to the advantage and general welfare of the community in which he lives. In brief, we are sent into this world to show that the world is better from our having lived in it. In view of this, Messrs. UNION & BOWMAN take pleasure in announcing to their fellow citizens that they have now received their full and complete stock of Spring Dry Goods; in which they have used much care and judgment in the selections, both in regard to beauty of styles, and large assortment of former prices.

REMOVAL.
DR. D. W. JONES,
HARRISBURG, PA.
HAS moved his office to the National House in Market street, opposite the Post Office. Dr. Jones may be consulted on all diseases but more particularly diseases of a private nature. Dr. JONES has cured a number of private and secret diseases in this city and elsewhere, and a number of them had almost given up all hopes of recovery, and was restored by the use of his powerful vegetable remedies.
GONORRHOEA.
Dr. JONES offers the only safe and certain remedy for Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrhus, (Inflammation of the Bladder), Syphilis, and all other venereal diseases. His treatment is simple, and his preparation will cure Gonorrhoea in from three to five days, and can be had at any time of Dr. JONES, at his office, at One Dollar per bottle, and each bottle is sufficient to cure a mild case.
SYPHILIS.
This is one of the worst of all diseases. Dr. JONES pledges himself to cure Syphilis in its worst forms. This disease makes its appearance in so many different forms, that a single plan of treatment will not reach it in all its stages; and it may require different remedies, according to the nature of the case. Dr. JONES will make a written article with any one—NO CURE NO PAY! The remedies used by Dr. JONES, are purely vegetable, and need no change of diet or hindrance from business.
SPERMATORRHOEA.
This habit of youth is indulged in while alone, and often learned from evil companions when at school, and if not cured will destroy both mind and body. Both sexes fall victims to this disease. The symptoms are general debility, indigestion, (Constipation), Dyspepsia, great Derangement of the Nervous System, and so on till death ensues, if not cured. To such Dr. JONES offers a perfect restoration, with such mild and healthy diet as will perfectly restore the victim of this distressing Disease.
FEMALE COMPLAINTS.
Those suffering from Cold, and Derangement of the Nervous System, can speedily be restored to sound health and vigor.
Dr. JONES may be consulted at all times at his office, personally or by letter, describing all symptoms. All letters must contain a stamp to ensure answer.
