I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquosa, imported by Udolpho Wolfe, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated Echeman Scorapres. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Luquosa, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves.—

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE—When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this patiful disease, it too often happens that an Ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, affecting the head, throat, nose, skin, ac, progressing on with frightful rapidity, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings by sending him to "that bourne from whence so traveler returns." It is a melancholy fact that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercury, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miserable.
