HARRISBURG.

Thursday Atternoon, March 28, 1861.

MAIL AGENT .- We learn that George C. Ferree, of Altoona, has been appointed a mail agent on the Pennsylvania Railroad between that place and Harrisburg.

CLEANING UP.—The Supervisor of the middle district is now engaged in cleaning the streets. To day he operated in Third street, which has been in bad condition for some time past.

ADJUTANT-GENERAL. -The American published at Mcdia, announces that Capt. Givin, of West Chester, has been appointed Adjutant-General of this State by Governor Curtin, and warmly endorses the selection.

Hon. Robert M. Palmer, Speaker of the Senate, who it was reported was to be Minister to Eucador, will be Minister to the Argentine Confederation. Such is the purport of a Washingten telegram.

CAVALRY SQUADRON .- The roll of this new company now numbers about sixty persons, all substantial citizens of Harrisburg and vicinity. When equipped, the company will be among the finest looking of the kind in the State .--On Saturday next, a meeting for drill exercise takes place.

PRESIDENT JUICE.—Governor Curtin has ap pointed Ulysses Mercer, Esq., of Towards, President Judge for that Judicial District, in place of Judge Wilmot, resigned. The people of the District will elect next October. Mr. Murcer is a man of good legal ability, and will make a useful and popular Judge.

REMARKABLE CASE OF EPILEPSY.—There is man in Allentown who recently, in the period of one week, had over five hundred attacks of epilepsy-falling fits. The spasms were of such a vio ent nature that the poor sufferer most of the time had to be chained down in bed. He has been afflicted with the disease for many years, and has employed the best medical skill to relieve him, yet all in vain.

SHADE TREES .- We have heard several citizens complain that their shade trees were spoiled this season by itinerant trimmers who called at their doors and professed ability to trim the trees in a skillful manner. When too late to remedy the mischief it was discovered that the persons were pretenders who knew nothing whatever concerning the business they had undertaken. The better plan is to have such work done by men who are known to be practical gardeners.

CADETS OF TEMPERANCE.—At the last meeting of the State Capital Lodge Cadets elected for the ensuing term : W. A .- Geo. Washington Fenn: V. A .- Wm. T. Bishop. Jr.; T.-Oliver B. Yoder; A.T.-Charles. Kepner; S .- Galen W. Seiler; A. S .- Wallace W. P. Sriler; W.-Elias Z. Kepner; A. W.-Geo. M.Sponsler; Corresponding Secretary-George W. Fenn.

APPLICATION FOR PARDON.—The counsel in the case of Finn, convicted in Luzerne county of tampering with the ballot-box and election returns, met at the Governor's room in this city recently, to urge a pardon. His Excellency referred the matter to the Senator from the season. We now give them some information Luzerne district. The editor of the Wilkesbarre relative to dresses and dress goods. A fashion Record of the Times, who seems to be booked up. says, "the scene before the Governor was extremely rich, but particulars are withheld for the present." The result of the application is will create some commotion among ladies not stated.

Another Assault in Tanner's Alley .- We learned this morning that a white man, a stranger in the city, while passing through Tanner's alley at a late hour last night, was assaulted by two colored fellows, one of whom cut him with a razor, inflicting a slight wound. The man fled and got away from his assailants without sustaining any further injury. The supposition is that they intended to rob him. He was too much frightened at the time to take particto recognize them. Strangers who venture into dress will soon be the rage, and from specimens that dangerous locality at night, alone and seen yesterday one feels compelled to say that without protective weapons, invariably get in-

Very few rooms are heated higher than sixty-five degrees when the thermometer is within twenty degrees of zero, while the temperature of the body is always at ninety-eight in health; so that if a man comes into a room which is thirty degrees colder than his body, he will rapidly cool off, too much so often, even if the external clothing is not removed. CONFIRMED .- Among the appointments con firmed yesterday by the United States Senate, was that of George Bergner, editor of this paper, as Postmaster for Harrisburg city. Mr. Bergner designs taking possession of the office on Monday next.

STILL SUCCESSFUL. -The grand PAN-TEC-NA-THEC-A continues to attract crowds of people, who are not only delighted with the gorgeous pictures, but gratified with the unbounded liberality of the proprietor, who gives away hundreds of dollars' worth of elegant presents every night. It remains only one night longer.

THIEVING IN THE RURAL DISTRICTS - Solomon B. Fishburn, near Hockersville, this county, had a very unwelcome visitor a few nights ago. Some person entered his office by a back window and carried away a valuable watch; four pair of shoes, two bundles of leather, and a lot of other small articles. Thus far the thief has escaped detection.

NEW BOOKS .- The "Crossed Path," by Willie Collins ; "The Wits and Beaux of Society," by Grace and Philip Wharton; "Elsie Venner," by O. W. Holmes; "Trumps," by G. W. SHOCKING TRAGEDY AT WEST CHESTER .- On Monday afternoon last a quarrel took place between two men on the streets of West Chester, one of them receiving fatal injury. It seems that the largest of the two men had an axe on his shoulder; the other struck him in the face, knocking off his hat, when he took both hands to the axe and dashed it into his skull. The blow would have felled an ox The man fell upon the pavement, and the murderer picked up his hat, put it on, threw the axe over his shoulder, and walked off. The affair was seen of Temperance, the following officers were by a number of people; all feared the man; but followed him at a distance. The crowd increased, and by the time he had gone some eight or ten squares it numbered several hundred. Officer Lynch coming, told the bearer of SUGGESTED BY THE DEATH OF REV. Fahnestock; G.-James H. The wounded man was still alive yesterday, though he cannot recover. His skull is indented, where the axe struck, for three-quarters of an inch.

This change has not been brought about without a struggle. For a year past the leading queens of beauty and fashion-those women who look lovely in any bonnet and every dress-have endeavored to introduce the gored skirt, formerly worn by their stately grandmothers. Their efforts were unavailing for a time, and many ladies hoped the thing would fail. But the devotees of gored skirts persisted, and the year 1861, Spring and Sumular notice of the fellows, and would not beable mer, will witness their triumph. Mad Hog Shor.—Several days ago a mad dog bit another canine and a hog, belonging to farmer who lives near this city in the vicinity of the State Hospital. On Tuesday, the hog exhibiting symptoms of hydrophobia, was shot, and the bitten dog shared a similar fate.-Within two weeks we have heard of mad dogs in various sections of the county.

PARDONED BY MISTARE.—One of the Pitts burg papers states that a good joke is current in that city with respect to a pardon recently granted by Governor Curtin. It seems that a worthy and influential German citizen, who felt a great interest in a fellow-countryman named Miller, sent to the penitentiary not long since for passing counterfeit money, visited the State Capital, about a month ago, for the purpose of procuring a pardon for him. After a consultation with Gevernor Curtin, he went home with the assurance that a pardon would be sent on the following day. In the meantime the papers in the application for a pardon in the case of a young man named Mitchell, confined in the penitentiary for larceny, were also on file in Harrisburg, and the Governor, remembering his promise, but confounding the names, had the necessary papers for the pardon of Mitchell made out and forwarded at the time designated. It is to be presumed that Miller will be released as soon as the mistake is discovered.

Can you resist music wins our heart's rememberance, and we rush involuntarily to the door to enjoy the spectacle. The rain seems like tears of joy, shed by Nature at her release from the iron grasp of winter. We can almost see the little blossoms peeping from their hiding places, and preparing to crown the fair Spring with her first garland. The "first rain" is worth its weight in gold in a poetical as well as a physical sense. It melts away the white sceptre of the Frost-king, and steals his crystal crown to pledge with us his abdication from sovereign authority. It gives us an earnest of the "good time coming," and makes the old trees shake with laughter at the new garments they can already see in preparation for their worn and wounded limbs; and we imagine the air heavy with the sighs of fragrant odors waiting for
