showing the Cloven Foot. The Patriot and Union don't like the nomination of Cari Shunz as minister to Spain. It assumes the ground that no one ahould be accered the country who did not under stand the language of the country, T this general principle we heartily sub instanoing the partioular appointment Mr. Seurz is to insinuate that he is unand that his appointment is distastef and offensive to the Democracy, because the last eampaign, through his great e orgy, thrilling eloquence, and convincio reasoniag in the cause of freedom, i winning thousands of his adopted fellow citizens to the Republican ranks. The Patriot knows Mr. Shurz to be a well educated man, speaking and writing pro bably every language spoken on the continent of Europe. Either it does know this, or is grossly ignorant of the man But this is not the point at which the editor aims-it it tonom against the Germans generally, because of their support of the cause of rreedom against slavery at the late eleo how to appreciate their impotent malice "Vipers, ye bite a fle !" Disoinanto his Country.-It ap that there is a man representing the United States at Halifax, as a Consul, by the name of Pillbury, from Maine, who refused to raise the American llag at the American Consulate, upon the day of the United States-an omission which has probably never before happened. The stars and stripes did float, however, over the consulate-placed there by especial nd not by the orders of the Unit States officer, who meanly takes pay for services rendered, in an offioial station, while virtually countenancing the doings of the traitors who are endeavoring to break down tho government. The flag was put up by Mr. Chase, a patriotio American citizen residing at Halifax. Mr. Pillsbury refased to raise the na day, but also upon the recent anniversary of Washington's birthday. "Hustle him out!" Efituts of Sedession upon Balit. mors.-Baltimore appears to suffer worse bance and derangement of business the se cession movement has prodaced over the country. The Association for the improvement of the condition of the poor in that overy twenty.five of the population is in those who have ore within the seises only the benevolent action of the As sociation sands that either receive assistance tro other sources, or resolutely keep their sad ${ }^{\text {condanity. }}$ Prontering.-Many of the newspa-pern in the Southera Confederaoy are in pers in the Southera Confederacy are in on rejection, as they may deoide of nejeotion, as they may deoide. The deny the right of the conventions chose in the several States to aot upon the ques tion of socession, to decide upon the Con stitution. "For a convention," says the perform acts and exercise authority the were never contemplated by the elector letia than an unwarrantable assumption of afibitrary power, foreign to the genius of ourinstitutions and repugnant to the wil of the people.' Collection of Revenue.-The Wash ington correspondent of the New York Tribune says Mr. Bates has given no such opinion regarding the collection of the revenue as is ascribed to him, and for the simple reason that the question has not been considered by the Presiden or referred. All these complioated mat ters are adjourned until the departure of the Senate.
TEi Vicksburg Whig says that the the Confederate States prohibiting African slave traffic was adopted in Arrican slave trafic ras adopted in Stases to two. South Carolina and Florida, Apposed giabama, Louisana, and Missippi ad rocated it.

The Peace Policy,
The secession excitement, iike qny other nine days wonder, has our people are seeking some new exciteration being fully understood as one masterly inactivity," the favor and op position to it have alike become silent.- Even the storm of indignation at th and we calmly artait the epacuation. It his poliey is to preserve the Union an lestore fraternal feeling, sarer and mo lasting than a more vigorous policy, an at the same time the Government can be the right to complain, but should cheer fully snbmit. Thanks to the well adjust preserving the sovereigaty of the States we are progressing so well in our anoma-ous. condition that the Repenue laws the only thing likely to produce a jar,If they were repealed, it would make lit le difference whether South Carolina wa without or within the Union, for in ou separate existences as States, we have so great powers, and the General Govern ent so few, that in the ordinary conduc offairs the prospect of civil war is very mote. If the United States were a conolidated Government, or a Government of things which we are now enduring ould not be tolerated a month. But unar our system, these seven States deolar ing thomselves out of the Union, and practically making good their declaration, by the unimpeded organization of a separate government, does not place he slightest hindrance in the way of annsylvania, but she administers her aws, and her citizens buy and and sell, as a times of profound peace. Under any involved in inextricable ounfusion. I this sovereigaty of the States which edorate States to go so far unchegked. in It is galling to true and patriotic Amerians to see their Government plundered oot, but it has been allowed becauso the Government is willing to suffer much be ore making war upon a State, or to em ploy, even in a mild degree, what Virginseverely denounces as "ooercion."- ossibly the confounding of coercion and onforcement of the laws has caused the overnment to neglect its logitimate du werless to put down rebellion, but where e jealously withhold from our Presiach prompt and decisive action as in a entralía Russia.
This
This temporizing polies should dged by its fruits. If it succeeds in jadged by its fruits. If it succeeds in making the secession movement wear self out, and die from sheer exhanstion, ereafter than to march an army upon th bels, and force them into submission a point of the bayonet. If it has no ach effect but gives the new Souther overnment time to strengthen itself, it of | oourse is a failure. The unwillinguess o |

Strona Minds in Weak Bodies.Why is it "no go" with some bright in tellects? A strong mind in a weak bod is like a superior knife-blade in a misera le handle. Its workmanship may ever dge ever so keen ; but, for want of mean to wield it properly, it will not out intend to carve out fame and fortune wit their sharp intellects, should think' of this handles and see to it that their bodies-the wonderful weapon, the human mind-ar kept in sound-jointed, firmly rivited, per fectly cleansed condition.
