GARRISBURG

Saturday Afternoon, March 30, 1861.

A RESOLUTION tendering the symbathy and condolence of the Philadelphia Conference to the family of the lat : Rev. B. R. Waugh, was adopted by that body yesterday.

THE LOCUST STREET METHODIST CHURCH is now undergoing a renovating process, consequently there will be no preaching or Sunday school services there to morrow. The various classes, however, are requested to meet, as usual, in the evening.

THE MONTHLY MEETING of the Sabbath-School Teachers' Union of this city, will be held in the Presbyterian Church, Market Square, tomorrow afternoon at quarter past three o'clock. The following resolution will by presented for discussion: "Resolved, That we regard with great regret the indifference into which children in many places are allowed to fall, in reference to the habit of attendance upon public worship, and desire that teachers should avail themselves of their position and influence to

of Council the following committees were appointed for the ensuing year : Fire-Messis. Stahl, Hacholen and Martin. Gas-Messrs. Verbeke, Maeyer and Garverich. Finance-Messrs. Hamilton, Bailey and Stahl. Ordinances-Messrs. Hamilton, Bailey and Black. Water-Messrs. Bailey, Hamilton and Black. Street Committees-First District, Messre. Bell, Hachnlen and Hocker; Second District, Messrs: Verbeke, Garverich and Builey ; Third District. Messre, Stahl, Martin and Brooke.

AN EXECUTIVE MANSION .- Our neighbor of the Sentinel advocates the building of a suitable he crected at a cost for all not exceeding probably twenty-five or thirty thousand dollars. The State can well afford to pay this sum ; and she owes it to her dignity to provide a better mansion for her Executive than she now furnishes VETO OF THE MAYOR. - An ordinance was recently passed by Council, repealing the one which requires the Cumberland Valley Railroad Company to keep flagmen at the Second and Third Street crossings while trains are passing. The new ordinance requires notice to be given of the approach of trains by the blowing of horns or the ringing of bells. The Mayor vetoed the bill, and his message will come up for consideration at the next meeting of Council. Two or three suits are now pending against the above named railroad company for violations of the existing ordinance.

THE LATE BURNING OF THE MAILS .- The late accident on the Pennsylvania Railroad, through which the mails were destroyed, proved a perfect windfall to the youth of Huntingdon .--Scores of them crowded to the scene of the dis-

POSTMASTER AT MECHANICSBURG.-Mr. George Wilson, said to be a very worthy and 'competent man, has been appointed Postmaster at Mechanicsburg. The Journal of that place warmly endorses the appointment.

DISCHARGED.-The colored man and boy, Jas. Dorsey and Wm. Bender, arrested on a charge of stealing a store box from Cyrns J. Reese, had a hearing before the Mayor this morning, and were discharged. There was no evidence to warrant the Mayor in holding them for trial.

RAILBOAD APPOINTMENT .- Mr. Emerson V. Higgins, formerly a clerk in the State Department under Governor Packer, has been appointed Auditor of the Transportation Department of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad Company at Williamsport. He is a clever gentleman, and we congratulate him upon his good fortune.

ADJUTANT GENERAL .--- A few duys ago we noticed an announcement, made by the Media Advertiser, to the effect that Capt. James Given, of Chaster county, had been appointed Adjutant General of the State. The Chester County Times contains the following emphatic denial of the report:

Not CORRECT. --- Capt. James Given is not ap pointed to the office of Adjutant General of the State, except by a newspaper paragraph. No vacancy exists at present and there will be no haste in making the appointment. When it is made it will probably be some man who has not sought to destroy his party by writing "Back Bone" letters to traduce those who are sus-taining the principles of Republicanism.

COMPLIMENTARY .--- One night this week a charity concert was given at Chambersburg, in which a number of lady and gentlemen ama teurs of that place and Hagerstown participated. Among the number was Mr. George B. Ayres, formerly of this city, whose performance on the occasion created a sensation, and is handsomely complimented by the Chambersburg Transcript, as follows :

The performance of the Gentlemen's Quartette-Messre. Ayres, Burke, Hearde and Artz, gave a high degree of satisfaction to the audimansion for the Governor, and suggests the purchase of a lot of ground on State Street be-tween the Capitol and the river for that pur-sical talents, both vocal and instrumental, by sical talents, both vocal and instrumental, by sical talents, both vocal and instrumental, by sical talents, both vocal and instrumental, by the location designated, which is an excellent one, at a reasonable price, and a building could of Hargerstown may well be provided to the same of Hagerstown may well be proud of the emi-nent ability of Mr. Ayres. We never before had the pleasure of hearing this gentleman, either singing or playing, and do not hesitate about pronouncing him the best male musician in this rollow in this valley.

It will be gratifying to the numerous friends of Mr. Ayres in this city to know that his musical abilities are properly appreciated abroad as well as at home.

THE UNION.

Written for the Daily Telegraph.] The storm is loud on the winter's breath, While howling clangers spread The seeds of an eternal death With the bodies of the dead. Here lowering clouds, portentous fling Their gloom across our path : And ever on our ears doth ring The strife of bitter wrath Shall it be thus, that States like ours. Fraternal once and free, The envy of all earthly powers, The boast of liberty-Our banvers trailed in dust, And wer by passion idly spent. Deprived of Freedom's trust? Forbid it Heaven, while hope's fire Glows beauteous and sublime. That we should build our faneral pyre On Freedom's sacred shrine ! That from our altars, whence the word Of truth, potential given, Shall ne'er again on earth be heard Until 'tis heard in Heaven ! The Union ! Strike no star from where It gleamed to bright and long, Nor seek to 'scape a nation's prayer,

Or list a nation's song. The Union ! Not alone of States, Of rivers and of plains, But an eternal bond of fates-Of harmonies sweet strains Ged save the Union; or if He, Ordaining in His power Has marked the limits of the free. And fixed their brief dim hour : So has He placed on all that live Death's dire and awful doom. But who, among us, would survive The Union in the tomb? WIEN FORNEY

----EXCITING SCENE IN THE PHILADELPHIA CONFER-ENCE. - The report of the Committee on the State of the Church, yesterday, in the Methodist Conference now sitting at Philadelphia, led to a very exciting scene. The report was finally adopted. We subjoin two of its most important features :

Resolved, That we concur in the resolutions of the East Baltimore Conference, requesting the General Conference, at its next se repeal the Chapter on Slavery; and instead thereof, empower each annual Conference, within whose bounds the institution ex ists, to make such regulations upon this sub ject as in their judgment may best subserve the interest of the Redeemer's Kingdom among them. Recolved, In view of our present national diffoulties and embarrassments, and the conse-quent disturbed condition of the public mind on the one hand, and the conflicting opinions of our churches in Delaware and Maryland or this subject, we deem it inexpedient to divide the Philadelphia Conference by State lines at this time. But we recommend all the Quar terly Conferences of the Peninsula, during the coming year, to consider this matter, and give such expression of their working as may aid in determining the action of this body at its next annual session.

FIREMEN'S BILL DEFEATED .--- The bill recently reported in the House, exempting the officers and active members of fire companies in this Commonwealth from military duty, and the penalties imposed for non-performance thereof, was called up yesterday and defeated. The bill was a meritorous one and ought to have become a law. If any class of men deserve to be ex-empted from military duty it is the firemen, who are banded together solely for the public good—the protection of life and property—and render important services for which they re-ceive no reward other than the approval of their own consciences for duties faithfully dis-sharged. Men who devote so much time to the public service, damaging health and risking reported in the House, exempting the officers public service, damaging health and risking life for the benefit of community, should not be compelled to pay the tax imposed for the on Good Friday. It was also customary to non-performance of military duty. The action of the House in this matter was unwise and unjust, and will be generally condemned.
