VOL. XIV. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY AFTERNOON, APRIL 1, 1861. NO. 74.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BANKS.

In obedience to instructions by resolution of the Senate, the Committee on Banks, so far as it was possible within the very limited time afforded them from the pressure of other duties, have inquired into the extent of the suspension of specie payments by the banks of this Commonwealth...

The suspension was sudden and unexpected, not produced by any of the ordinary causes. The necessary, yet general, alarm produced by ambitious and designing politicians, the bold and unscrupulous efforts to precipitate the Southern States of the Union into a separate confederacy, and thus destroy our nationality...

Your Committee addressed circulars to all the Banks in the State, and most of the information we have derived from the answers of their officers, and some personal examinations before the Committee.

The suspension was sudden and unexpected, not produced by any of the ordinary causes. The necessary, yet general, alarm produced by ambitious and designing politicians, the bold and unscrupulous efforts to precipitate the Southern States of the Union into a separate confederacy, and thus destroy our nationality...

Your Committee are aware that about one-fifth of this specie was drawn from the banks of Philadelphia in one day of the excitement, which was well calculated to produce alarm; yet they believe there was no such general distrust in the public mind within this State as justified a course in direct violation of the obligations of those institutions to the people, which could only produce panic and financial distress throughout the country.

Most of these banks had an abundance of specie to enable them to pass through the monetary crisis, and a compliance with the law on their part, would have inspired confidence where it was wavering, and prevented much embarrassment and suffering; and if it were not for the great injury which would inevitably be inflicted upon the people in their business relations by compelling such banks as have thus violated the law to yield their charters to the State, your Committee would recommend their forfeiture with little hesitation.

The annual and quarterly reports, as well as the personal examination afforded us, incomplete as it has been, lead us to the belief that, with one or two exceptions, the banks of Pennsylvania are as safe and sound as those of any other State in the Union; and nothing but an utter disregard of obligations, solemnized by an oath for their performance, could endanger the public interest.

The Commercial Bank of Erie, having lost the confidence of the people, should be compelled to apply its assets, as far as they will go, to the redemption of its paper, and to surrender its charter to the State. The Monongahela Valley Bank, at McKeesport, which has encountered embarrassments, is taking in its circulation; and those who control its affairs profess that they will be ready to resume specie payments; but men of tried and acknowledged integrity should have any voice in the management of their affairs.

the borough of Lewisburg to sell the books, wares and merchandise of transient dealers not residing in the said borough—thereby enabling any person to bring within the limits of said borough any amount of goods and have them sold at auction, without requiring from the owners thereof any tax upon capital, dividends, license or commission.

The resident merchants and others who pay their regular annual license, would be subjected to an unjust competition at their doors, and that, too, by a class of transient dealers who, without this proviso, would be wholly exempt from all liability to contribute to the revenue of the Commonwealth. As the proviso imposes no restraint upon sales of goods of any but those of transient dealers, it can operate in no way injuriously to the interests of resident citizens, but, on the contrary, is intended mainly for their protection.

Instead of repealing this wise and salutary provision, I should greatly prefer to see it made applicable to the general auction laws of the State.

For these reasons I am constrained to withhold my approval of this bill.

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, Harrisburg, March 27, 1861.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania: GENTLEMEN: I return to the House in which it originated, bill No. 120, entitled "an Act to change the place of holding the elections in the township of Texas, in the county of Wayne."

For the reasons more fully given in my message to the House in refusing my assent to bill No. 120, entitled "an Act to change the place of holding the elections in the township of Texas, in the county of Wayne," I return to the House in which it originated, bill No. 845, entitled "an Act to change the place of holding the elections in the township of Highland, in the county of Elk," and refuse my approval of the same.

operation. It is the want of respect for that opinion which leads to prejudice, begets oppression, and ends in tyranny, rebellion and revolution. It cannot be presumed that the Legislature, under any imputed state of circumstances, are as well informed upon the question of changing the place of holding elections, as the people who are to be affected by such change, and as long as these general laws—which were so wisely and cautiously framed, remain upon the statute book—I shall not feel inclined to disturb them by special legislation.

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, Harrisburg, March 27, 1861.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania: GENTLEMEN: I return to the House in which it originated, bill No. 186, entitled "an Act relating to auction sales in the county of Union," with my objections.

The fifth section of the Act of 11th of April, 1840, provides for the appointment of an auctioneer in the borough of Williamsport, who is required to pay to the State one per cent, on all property which may be sold exceeding ten thousand dollars together with twenty-five dollars per annum for his commission.

For the reasons more fully given in my message to the House in refusing my assent to bill No. 120, entitled "an Act to change the place of holding elections in the township of Texas, in the county of Wayne," I return to the House in which it originated, bill No. 845, entitled "an Act to change the place of holding elections in the township of Highland, in the county of Elk," and refuse my approval of the same.

Medical

SOMETHING MORE VALUABLE THAN SILVER OR GOLD, IT WILL RESTORE THE WEAK, REINSTATE THE BLOOD IN ALL ITS ORIGINAL VIGOR AND PURITY.

PROF. O. J. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL, AND BLOOD RENOVATOR.

In precisely what the medical profession, who please to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates, and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to the attack of disease.

Chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects and yet it never follows, by least of its effects, any of those morbid influences which are so common to the use of other tonics.

There is nothing in it equal. Also, Liver Derangement, Torpidity and Liver Complaint, Disorders of the Kidneys, or any general derangement of the Urinary organs. It will not only cure the debility following CHILLS and FEVER, but prevent all attacks of malarial, bilious, and other fevers, and cure the disease, if already attacked.

MOTHERS should use it, for it is a perfect relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with purity and ease. There is no mistake about it. THE CORDIAL IS ALL WE CLAIM FOR MOTHERS, TRY IT!

And to you we appeal, to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters before it be too late, but also your own and husband's, before the former from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave, rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are so often mired up with the excitement of business, that it falls not for you to see, would they but attend to the downward path until it is too late to arrest their fall.

Read what the Press say after thoroughly testing the matter, and no one can have a doubt. PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL.—It is recorded in classics that Pyæche once sent to a climate warmer than the West Indies to procure a sample of the beauty of Proserpine. After some time the messenger returned, and as soon as he felt the heat of the box was removed out flew all the life that death is held to. Fortunately he was found in the bottom of the box. Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial cures the complaint of the story, for it invigorates the blood, aids the organs of digestion, imparts strength to the nervous system, and for the cure of the blood, as to the delicate and the weak, it is a healthy tonic, composed entirely of vegetable productions and while it is exhilarating as pure wine, so it is invigorating as the tonic, and it is a delicate and safe remedy for the complaint of the story, for it invigorates the blood, aids the organs of digestion, imparts strength to the nervous system, and for the cure of the blood, as to the delicate and
