

Daily Telegraph

Friday Afternoon, April 5, 1861.

When did the greatest "spice" take place? When all Nature "smiled."

Rev. T. H. Robinson, of this city, is announced to preach in Literary Hall, Newville, next Sabbath afternoon at half past two o'clock.

A letter written from Naples says: "Standing on Castle Elmo, I drank in the whole sweep of the bay."

The Union Prayer Meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church, corner of Market Square, to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon, commencing at four o'clock, as usual.

The State Capital Band will meet at their room this evening at seven o'clock, for the transaction of special business.

Governor Curtin has been absent from the capital for several days on a visit to Washington, accompanied by Senators McClure and Finney, and other members of the Legislature.

Patience, of the Louisville Journal, lets pass no opportunity of making a hit at his friends in South Carolina. It is possible to conceive anything more positively atrocious than this?

Local Bill.—The bill fixing the places of holding elections in the second and third wards of this city has passed the Senate.

Spiritualism Legally Considered.—The Pennsylvania Legislature has passed an act making spirit rapping for gain, or lucre, punishable by fine or imprisonment.

Murder at Reading.—On Wednesday morning, about seven o'clock, a colored man residing at Reading, in a fit of temporary insanity murdered his wife while she was in the act of preparing their breakfast.

The Methodist Ministers, appointed by the Philadelphia Conference to take charge of the three Methodist churches in this city for the coming year, are now here and will fill their respective pulpits on next Sabbath.

The Combs of Spring.—Swallows are not needed to tell us that Spring has come. We need no birds of gay plumage and thrilling notes to lure us into the genial sunshine.

Tribe of Respect.—At a meeting of the U. P. Society, of Dickinson College, held April 2d, 1861, the following were adopted: Whereas, It hath pleased him in whose hands our lives are, to remove by death Rev. Beverly R. Watson, a graduate member of the U. P. Society, and whilst we bow in submission to the overruling hand of Divine Providence, yet we would not fail to pay our tribute to eminent virtue and high moral and intellectual worth.

The Chief of Police is still confined to his room by severe indisposition. He is improving gradually, however, and hopes to be on duty again in the course of the coming week.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company have just made a reduction of three mills per mile on all their freight charges, in view of the removal of the tonnage tax.

Our City is again flooded with lottery circulars, offering extravagant inducements to the credulous. We hope none of our readers will allow themselves to be cheated by these swindling concerns.

Good Appointment.—Mr. George W. Patton, one of the Transcribing Clerks of the State Senate, has been appointed Postmaster at Altoona. This is an appointment eminently fit to be made, and we take pleasure in giving it our hearty endorsement.

Somerville, speaking of the unceremonious manner in which tourists attack the food provided for them at the railway stations, says if it be true that "Heaven helps those who help themselves," travelers must receive a vast amount of celestial aid.

In the Hospital.—Mr. George Hill, a much respected citizen of White Deer, Lycoming county, was taken to the Insane Hospital near this city recently. His insanity, which it is hoped is but temporary, was produced by religious excitement.

A Sale of City Property will take place at the European Hotel to-morrow evening. For particulars, see advertisement in another column. An auction sale of valuable articles will also take place at the boiler manufacturing establishment of Denning & Curran to-morrow morning at nine o'clock.

Route Agent.—We learn that Mr. P. A. Fox, of M'Evansville, has been appointed route agent from Harrisburg to Lock Haven, and entered upon the discharge of his duties.

A Popular Institution.—We passed Mr. Jones' beautiful store to-day, and found it crowded with ladies, attracted there to inspect the gay and gorgeous spring dress goods just opened, comprising all the new styles lately introduced in this country and Europe.

The Lumbering Business has had a check for several days past, caused by the cold and disagreeable weather and low stage of water. At this time the river is in better condition, but with hardly water sufficient for rafting operations, though a slight rise and pleasant weather may soon bring along the river-men and their craft, and a consequent revival of the lumber business.

Out of Prison.—Prof. Allen, one of the "institutions" of the Capital City, who has been in prison for two or three months for keeping a gambling den in Tanner's alley, was liberated to-day, the term for which Judge Pearson sentenced him having expired.

Two Men Chased by a Woman.—A rich scene was enacted yesterday afternoon in West Harrisburg. Two well known gentlemen who visited that locality were assailed by a female with stones, and it was a laughable sight to see the coat tails fly from the outraged and wronged woman.

Happy Family.—A domestic scene of a very discreditable nature occurred the other day between John Pauls and his wife, whose names have figured in our columns on more than one occasion. During the progress of the performance tables were upset, glass and queensware smashed, and other articles of household furniture distributed around promiscuously.

Wood's Hair Restorative.—Among all preparations for the hair that have been introduced as infallible, none has ever given the satisfaction or gained the confidence of the public as Wood's Restorative. His Restorative has passed the ordeal of innumerable fashionable salons, and the ladies, wherever they have used it, pronounce it a precious article.

Notice.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of Pulmonary, Bronchial and Asthmatic Affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken at an early stage of the disease, we have prepared a medicine called "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, at this season a most valuable remedy should be used.

W. A. Batchelor's Hair Dye.—This splendid hair dye has no equal—insoluble in water—does not stain the skin or injure the hair—removes the dandruff and restores the hair to its natural color. It is a most valuable remedy for the hair.

Manhood.—How Lost, How Restored.—Just published on the nature, treatment and radical cure of Spermatorrhea, or Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, Nervousness, etc., by Dr. W. A. Batchelor.

A Card to the Ladies.—Dr. Duponoo's Golden Pills for Females.—Invaluable in correcting, regulating and removing all obstructions, from whatever cause, and always successful as a preventive.

These Pills have been used by the doctors for many years, both in France and America, with unparalleled success in every case; and is urged by many thousand ladies who used them, to make the Pills public for the alleviation of those suffering from irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent an increase of family where health will not permit it.

The Great English Remedy.—Sir James Clarke's Celebrated Female Pills.—Prepared from a Prescription of Sir J. Clarke, M. D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

Important to Females.—Dr. Chesman's Pills, New York City.—The combination of ingredients in these Pills is the result of a long and extensive practice. They are mild in their operation, and certain in removing all irregularities, Painful Menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, etc.
