RESTORATIVE CORDIAL.

BLOOD RENOVATOR.

IS precisely what its name indicates; for, while pleasan to the taste, it is revivitying, exhibitanting and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates, and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the o.lly preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all.

MOTHERS should use it, for it is a periect relief. Taken a month or, two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety.

There is no mistake about it.

THE CORDIAL IS ALL WE CLAIM FOR MOTHERS, TRY IT!

And to you we appeal, to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters before it be too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former from faire delicacy, often go down to a premature grave, rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are so often mixed up with the excitement of business, that if it ware not for you, they too, would travel in the same downward path until it is too -late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we condidently appeal; for we are sure your never-failing affection will user ingly point you to Professor WOOP'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR as medy for the diseases enumerated.—"New York Dispatch."

Before noticing a patent medicine, we have to be certain that it will prove itself to be all that it is recommended. And we would say that the Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator of Prof. Wood will stand the test fully, and, in fact, it is without any doubt the first article in market for purifying the Blood and strengthening the system. We have no be relation in recommending its use to all.—"The New Yorker."

LOOK TO YOURSELF IN TIME.—How many in consequence of a false delicacy suffer from suppressed, pain.

Tidl, or obstructed monsuration, and think because they are young that by-and-by nature will work itself clear from obstructions, and all come in right in the end, little dreaming that the seeds of death are already germinating, in the system, because the vital energies are impaired, and the entire a nimal economy deranged, debilitated; and yet, careless of themselves as they are, if a remedy were set before them which would restore all the functions of the system, and reinvigorate the body, they would take it, and thus be in time to save their lives.—Parents, think of this, and at once give them a bottle of Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator.—

Gallery of Art, 724 Arch Street, Philadelphia COMMENDATIONS:

From Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, M. C., Ohio. My family and friends all concur in the opinion that the (Newell) Picture is mere life-like than anything they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by different Artists in various ways, but I have never yet had one which presents so true to nature, all the features and expressions of countenance as this.

From Hon. E. Joy. Morris, late Minister to Italy.

The exquisite finish, beauty and softness of your portraits; conjoined with their durability of color and faith fulness as likenesses, cannot fail to commend them to the attention and patronage of all who appreciate true

Having occasion for a portrait, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia, a miniature in Oil Colors, under the new process discovered by him, and take great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction given me, not only by the accuracy of the likeness, but its artistic finish in all respects; and recommend him to the patronage of those disposed to encourage the beautiful art.

Webster, the 'chief of English lexicographers."—Prof. Haldeman in the Trevelyan Price Ravy.

From Harvey P. Peet, LL. D., Principal Deaf and Dumb Institution, New York, Jan. 24, 1861. "I can hardly express my admiration of its value. I rejoice that it is used so extensively, and should rejoice still more if it should be introduced into all our schools and seminaries of learning, and be recognized as the stannath by every American writer..... No considerations of this nature can overcome the convictions of my judgment in favor of the superiority of Webster."

SENTIMENT OF NEW YORK. More than ten thousand copies of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary have been placed in as many of the Public Schools of our State by the voluntary action lof their several School Boards. Heartily approving the general introduction of this standard authority in Benintions, Orthography, and Pronunciation, now rendered yet more relumble by the Pictorial Synonyms, 10,000 New Words and other attractive and useful features, and degirous of that uniformity of usage in these particulars, which Dr. Webster's works are so eminently fitted to secure, we cordially recommend the School Abridgements, the Primary, the Common School, High School and Academic Dictionaries, to all our schools, as better fitted for their use than any others with which we are acquainted.

[From the Philadelphia Ledger.]

UNION FURNITURE DEPOT.—Every head of a family has a house to furnish, and, no matter whether rich or poor, every one, wants the best Furniture his or her money will buy, and every heme can be WELL FURNISHED if the money intended for that purpose be carefully expended.

The safest way to purchase is to send an order to a fair dealing firm, who have the facilities to manufacture and sell at the lowest prices. But no matter how honest a firm may be, unless they have the best machinery to manufacture and the trade which will enable them to make large purchases of stook and materials at the lowest prices, it is folly to expect them to sell as low as a larger establishment. The "UNION FURNITURE DEFOT" combines, porhaps, the greatest advantages to be found anywhere by housekeepers; its extensive warerooms, which occapy a front of skirt feet on Second street, with ONE HUNDERD feet in depth and skirt feet on Raco street, with EVENTY-THE feet depth, are well stored with an assortment of the best made FURNITURE, of the latest and best styles, which cannot fail to satisfy any family want in that direction. Messrs: GOULD & CO, the proprietors, have every manufacturing facility known to the trade, and anyorder entrusted to them, whether a single article or a general assortment, at whole sole or re-tail is sure to be filled at the lowest price for which the same articles can be procured anywhere, and for much less than is paid at some places. There is some satisfaction, too, when sending orders to them, to know that you have a lair dealing firm to transact business with
