HARRISBURG:

Friday Afternoon, April 12, 1861.

THE STREET SPRINKLER.—This useful institution will be put in operation on Monday next for the summer season.

THE UNION PRAYER MEETING will be held in the Presbyterian church, corner of Market efficient and reliable constables, is also confined Square, to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon, comto his room by severe indisposition. mencing at four o'clock, as usual.

THE HARMONY CLUB BALL, last night, was largely attended by the lads and lasses of our city, and passed off pleasantly and creditably. General enjoyment ruled the occason, and "all went merry as a marriage bell."

DOESTICKS SAYS that if people were sent to Tophet by popular suffrage, James Buchanan would go by a larger majority than any one who has travelled that road since the man that invented accordeons.

Queen.—A rural editor says that a child was run over by a wagon three years old and crosseyed, which never spoke afterwards. He also publishes some lines which he says "were written by a young man who has long laid in the grave for his own amusement."

LOCAL BILL .-- A bill was reported in the Senate yesterday, authorizing the erection of a ough; and should the bill pass, of which there is no doubt, the authorities will at once take measures for the erection of a suitable building.

Naw RESERVOIR.—Our City Fathers are now considering the propriety of constructing a new reservoir, the present one being too small to furnish supplies of water adequate to the demands of our rapidly extending city and increasing population. Some suggest Allison's hill, and others the Fark grounds, as the location for the new reservoir. No definite action has yet been taken in the matter.

READING AND COLUMBIA RAILROAD.—The work of grading this road, from Columbia to Ephrata, was sub-let yesterday by Col. Moore the original contractor, and the work will be commenced on the several sections at once. The original contract binds Col. Moore to have the road completed by the fourth of July, 1862, and the work will consequently be pushed forward with vigor.

In Luck.-Mr. J. Wesley Diehl, for several years past a popular conductor on the Cumbermaster at Chambersburg. We learn that he was for this exhibition of respect to the memory of not an applicant, but the contest between the ri- one of the greatest statesmen and purest patrivalagrifants became so fierce and bitter, that the ots the world has ever produced. Postmaster General "compromised" the matter by selecting Mr. Diehl, at the suggestion of some of the leading Republicans of Chambersburg. He is a clever gentleman, a sound Republican, and will make a first-class officer.

Corron Growing -We wish all all our farmers would obtain even one ounce of cotton seed. plant it at once, cultivate the plant like Indian corn, save the seed when rise, and there will be plenty for extensive cultivation next spring name of the individual under arrest there?without dependence upon the South for a sup- It may be that he does not belong to this city, ply of it. The experiment may be easily made, and is worth trying. If it succeeds, the example of Pennsylvania will be followed by all the Middle alley last night, participated in by a number of States, and the "Cotton States" will perceive, colored rowdies who regularly frequent that lothat the world is not dependent upon them | cality. The uproar continued for a considerawhich will very much improve their conduct.

Shop Lifters.—Last evening two ladies visited a Second street dry goods store, and while one of them engaged the attention of a clerk, the other managed to slip a pair of kid gloves and several lace collars under her shawl. One of the other clerks, however, noticed the lightfingered operation, and charged her with the theft. The lady indignantly denied the "soft impeachment." but a threat of prosecution and exposure induced her to own up and restore the stolen articles, when she and her accomplice were politely invited to leave the store. The female alluded to is said to have a propagaty for shop lifting, and this is not the first instance in which she has attempted to victimize merchants. A repetition of the offence may lead to exposure, notwithstanding her position in society.

How it Stands .- In view of the fact that the General Assembly of the Old School Presbyterian Church meets at Philadelphia next month, and that in all probability it will not escape agitation on the great topic of the times, and perhaps may be constrained to take new action. an able writer has a five column historical review of the past action of the church upon the aubiect. The conclusion is that the whole doctrine of the Old School Presbyterian Church, upon the subject of slavery, may be briefly summed up in these two distinct propositions I. Slavery is a great moral evil, and all Christians should earnestly pray and wisely labor for its removal from the church, the country, and the world. II. Slaveholding is not, necessarily, and under all circumstances, a sin.

A New Instruction .- We learn that Mr. George W. P. Davis is now perfecting arrangements for starting a City Accommodation Ex- he had ordered the "aforementioned pyramid" press. The idea is a good one, and no doubt of the plaintiff for the entertainment of a party will be well patronized by our citizens. Mr. of friends, connoisseurs in ice cream, but that Davis proposes to carry baskets from the the sable servant of the confectioner-doomed market house to any section of the city. This enterprise commends itself to the metry and beauty of the structure, and had patronage of our citizens generally, but more otherwise so marred it as to render it worthparticularly to those residing in West Harris- less, and a source of mortification to defendant burg, the vicinity of the Round House, and the in the proposed entertainment of his friends. southern section of the city. By the introduc The Court failing to discover in the violated tion of this Local Accommodation Express, sense of beauty, or in the outraged pride of many an aching arm will be avoided, and many the defendant, any just cause for the non-pay-manitarian enterprise.

The Attention of the reader is directed to the advertisement of Mr. Jones, to be found in another column.

A Gem. - It is refreshing to come across such gem as the following: The first bird of spring attempted to sing,
But 'ore he had sounded a note,
He fell from the limb—a dead bird was him—
The music had friz in his throat.

THE CHIEF OF POLICE, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is now improving gradually, and will probably be on duty in the course of a few days. Mr. Fleck, one of our most RECONSIDERED. -At the meeting of Council last week a motion was made by Mr. Verbeke, and adopted, constituting James Lewis a police officer without remuneration. This action caused general dissatisfaction in community, and last evening the motion was reconsidered and voted down.

NEW POSTMASTERS .- It affords us pleasure to announce the appointment of B. G. Steever, Esq., editor of the Lykens Valley News, as Post master at Millersburg in this county. He will make a useful and popular officer. Mr. Thomas Harper has been appointed Postmester at Wicinisco. Another good selection.

THE WHEAT PROSPECT.—Our exchanges from all parts of the State say that the wheat looks remarkably well, notwithstanding the severe freezings and frequent thaws of the past winter; and that but very little of it is winter killed. lock-up in Middletown. An "institution" of The same may be said of the growing wheat in this find is greatly needed in the ancient bor- this county, and our farmers look forward to an abundant harvest.

> LUCKY OR UNLUCKY .-- A Hollidaysburg paper in alluding to the late accident on the Pennsyl vania Railroad, says: "Mr. John Maloney, of this place, received a cut on the head and some scratches on the face; as a salve for which, we hear it reported that he got $800 damages down cash and a life ticket. Was John lucky or unlucky?"

> CAMBRON GUARD.-We have heard nothing lately of the Cameron Guard. Can it be that the war indications have frightened our "bold soger boys?" If they wish to do themselves credit, let the members of the Guard call a meeting at once, and tender their services to Governor Curtin, in the event of a requisition being made upon Pennsylvania for volunteers to fight the Southern rebels and traitors.

PATRIOTIC.—The Friendship Fire Company displayed their large and beautiful American Flag over the engine house to-day, in honor of the birth-day anniversary of the immortal Henry Clay, whose memory will be cherished while land Valley Railroad, has been appointed Post- liberty exists. > Who is He?—An Elmira paper announces that a young man from Harrisburg, whose name is not given, was arrested there for picking a gentleman's pocket. We know a "nice young man" in Harrisburg who makes a practice of picking pockets whenever a favorable opportunity occurs, but he has not been absent from the city for some weeks. Will the Elmira papers favor us by giving publicity to the

> A DISGRACEFUL Row occurred in Tanner's ble time, and knives and razors were freely used. An equally disreputable scene was enacted, about the same hour, at an Irish dance house in the same vicinity. A "free fight" took place, resulting in broken heads, bloody faces and damaged crinoline. Almost every night this rowdy district is the scene of riot and disorder, and such will continue to be the case so long as the city is without an effective police organization.

A "FAST" PARTY. Several Philadelphians who are here in the capacity of legislative borers, got on a "regular bender" yesterday afternoon, and splurged extensively through the city, disgracing themselves and disgusting our citizens. They sported a fast team, and passed over the principal thoroughfares at 2.40 speed. endangering the lives and limbs of pedestrians, ending the performance by driving through the market houses and damaging their vehicle. The party, six in number, were finally captured by officer Garman and marched to the Mayor's office, where they had a hearing and were fined eleven dollars and costs, the whole amounting to $14 40. The offenders, who seemed to be abundantly supplied with the "spondulix," promptly paid the amount, and bowed themselves out of the Mayor's office. Having paid dearly for their fun, it is not likely that they will attempt a repetition of the experiment. At the special request of personal friends of the parties, who represent them to be gentlemen when free from the influence of liquor, we suppress their names for the present.

SINGULAR SUIT .- In the Boston Police Court, recently, a well-known confectioner sued a "respectable" citizen for the value of an ice cream pyramid. The defendant admitted that it on the way to defendant's house, and had a man and woman will praise Davis for his hu- ment of his bill, gave a verdict for the confec-

STEAM MILL BURNED .- On Saturday night last the new steam mill of Moses Early, in East Hanover township, in this county, was consumed by fire with all its contents. The mill contained about five hundred bushels of wheat and some other grain, and forty barrels of flour. Damage about $10,000. Insured in a Harrisburg company to the amount of $5,000. The mill had been only six months in operation. The origin of the fire is unknown.

noticed the burning of Mr. Thomas Fairman's store in Middletown, upon which he had an insurance of $3,000 in the Lycoming Mutual Insurance company. Yesterday Mr. Painter, the agent of the company, visited Middletown to make an investigation and have the damages (5,686. INSURANCE AWARDED .- A few days ago we appraised, and awarded Mr. Fairman the sum of $1,500-just one half the amount of his in-

FAISE CHARGE. - Last evening a man named Warfield made complaint against Bridget Myers, an Irish woman in his employ, for drunkeness and disorderly conduct. When Bridget appeared before the Alderman she seemed to be the complaint was prompted by malicious motives. The case was therefore dismissed, and the woman furnished with means to procure lodging for herself and child at a tavern.

New Ordinance. - At the meeting of Council last evening an ordinance was enacted providing for the appointment of one person as Collector of City Taxes, and one person as Collector of water rents, for the entire city. The ordinance was this morning approved by the Mayor, and is therefore a law. It will be found at length in onr advertising columns. Last year the city was divided into three districts, and a collector appointed for each.

MEETING TO SUSTAIN THE GOVERNMENT.-We hear rumors that a public meeting will soon be hear rumors that a public meeting will soon by called in this city to sustain the National Administration in its efforts to maintain the integrity of the government, and to denounce the traitors in our midst who, by their advocacy of the infamous heresy of secession, give aid and comfort to the Southern rebels. As the contemplated meeting is to be held irrespective of party, and the feeling here is decidedly in favor of sustaining the government, we look for a large, spirited and patriotic demonstration.

FIRE IN MIDDLETOWN. -The dwelling house of Mr. Henry Longenecker, in Middletown, took fire yesterday afternoon, and was partially consumed. But for the noble efforts of the firemen and citizens the entire building, and seve ral frame houses adjoining, would have been consumed. Mr. Longenecker's property was insured to the amount of $500 in a Columbia company. The agent arrived there a few hours subsequent to the conflagration, and after an appraisement of the damages promptly awarded Mr. L. the sum of $450, which, it is said, cov ered his entireloss.

DISTINGUISHED ARRIVAL.—We had the pleasure, a few days since, of taking by the hand our old townsman ALEK. RAMSEY, now Governor of Minnesota. The Governor, true to the recollection of his birth place and associations of boyhood days, could not visit the old burg without taking with him to his western home a handsome new style dress for lady, and suit of clothes for 'self. His selections were made at the cheap dry goods store of URICH & Bow-MAN, corner of Front and Market streets. †
