HARRISBURG

Tuesday Afternoon, April 16, 1861.

The Union Has Been Assailed!

"WE MUST BE BRIEF WHEN TRAITORS TAKE THE FIELD."

FRIENDS OF FREEDOM TO THE RESCUE.

A mass meeting of the citizens of Harrisburg, and the public generally, will be held this (Tuesday) evening, April 16, in the Court Room, Brant's Hall, to express the sentiments of the people on the present alarming condition of National affairs.

PROVISIONS FOR THE SOLDIERS.—We invite the attention of the proper officers to the advertisement of Messrs. Eby & Kunkel, in another column, who are prepared to supply every kind of provisions, in large quantities, at reasonable rates.

VIOLATING AN ORDINANCE.—A man named Frazier Clendenin was before the Mayor last evening, charged with violating the ordinance prohibiting the running of hand-carts on the pavements. The fine and costs in his case amounted to $2 64, which he paid.

THE ALARM OF FIRE about twelve o'clock last night was occasioned by the bursting of a foul chimney in the bakery of Mr. Finley, on Market street. The firemen promptly responded to the alarm, but their services were not required. No damage was done.

COL. JACOB S. HALDEMAN.—This gentleman left yesterday for Washington. There is some doubt as to his acceptance of the mission tendered to him by President Lincoln, as since the breaking out of war he desires to remain and raise a company of volunteers in York county, where he resides.

MORE SECESSIONISTS SILENCED.—Last evening an individual who is tainted with the secession heresy ventured among the crowd of Union boys at the Exchange, and commenced to talk treason, when he was assaulted and knocked down. One of his chums undertook to defend him, when both were warned to seal their lips and leave. They promptly acted upon the hint and thus avoided the punishment that all traitors merit.

PATRIOTIC.—Some of the carters of our city manifest their Union sentiments by decorating the horses they drive with miniature American flags. We also noticed a number of persons on the streets to-day sporting Union badges. These exhibitions of patriotism are highly commendable, and give evidence of the strong feeling of devotion to the Union which pervades the masses of our people.

MASON A. SHATTUCK, the superintendent of the new machine shops belonging to the Pennsylvania Railroad, has adopted a very just and commendable rule in receiving apprentices, and one which is alike creditable to himself and the company which he represents.

THE UNION MEETING.—A Mass meeting of the citizens of Harrisburg, of all parties, in favor of sustaining the President in his efforts to enforce the laws against the armed rebels of the South, will be held in the Court room this evening. We have no doubt the demonstration will be every way creditable to the patriotism of the people of the old Keystone Capital.

ANOTHER SUDDEN DEATH.—It is our melancholy duty to-day to chronicle the sudden death of Dr. E. L. Orth, a prominent member of the medical profession, and one of our most highly esteemed citizens. He was about yesterday, and last evening, visiting patients, apparently in the enjoyment of his usual health.

THE UNION FEELING IN HARRISBURG.—ENTHUSIASTIC DEMONSTRATION.—A SECESSION ORGAN GROANED.—THE BONE AND SINOW IN THE FIELD. The Military Meeting at Exchange Hall last evening was very largely attended by the young men—the real "bone and sinow" of the city—who rallied at the tap of the drum to manifest their loyalty and devotion to the Union.

THE CAMERON GUARD MOVING.—At a meeting of the Cameron Guard last evening, a commendable degree of patriotism was manifested, and measures were adopted to fill up the ranks of the company, with a view of tendering their services to the Governor.

WHEREAS, The President of the United States has issued a proclamation, calling upon the Governors of the several States to furnish seventy-five thousand volunteers, to aid in the suppression of all unlawful combinations, and to enforcing the Constitution of our beloved country.

COUNTERFEIT NOTES.—A good deal of counterfeit money—both coin and notes—is now in circulation, and in these times of general excitement, it passes rapidly from hand to hand without detection.

THE HARD TIMES JEWELRY DODGE.—The American Agriculturist gives the following exposition of the way in which those who run after cheap jewelry are sold:

Only yesterday we overheard one lady telling another how cheaply she had just bought several covered articles of jewelry. She said: "A large house in New York, to avoid failure, on account of the 'hard times,' had sent out a man to her village to sell off a lot of valuable articles for what he could get, and he was disposing of them at one quarter their value."

SERVICES TENDERED AND ACCEPTED.—A large number of military companies in the State have already tendered their services to Gov. Curtin, and been accepted. The probability is that the full quota required from Pennsylvania is nearly if not wholly made up.

TENDER OF MILITARY COMPANIES.—We submit a list of the military companies which have tendered their services to Governor Curtin, under the call of the President, and been accepted.

- ALLEGHENY COUNTY. Monongahela Artillery—Capt. R. F. Cooper. Negley Zouaves—Capt. O. M. Irvin. Washington Artillery—Capt. J. D. McFarland. Washington Infantry—Capt. Thomas A. Bosley. United States Zouave Cadets—Capt. Wm. G. McCreary.

Marion Rifle Company, Sixth Division, at Port Carbon—Major J. H. Siegfried.

- TIOGA. Uniformed Militia—Maj. Gen. Harding. WASHINGTON. Lincoln Invincibles—Maj. A. G. Williams. Monongahela Artillery—Capt. Potter. WOOD'S MINSTERS.—As we anticipated, notwithstanding the dreaching rain, this celebrated Troupe were greeted with a large and enthusiastic audience, who gave expression to their satisfaction and delight in shouts of laughter and applause.

STATE CAPITAL GUARD.—This company will hold another meeting at Exchange Hall to-morrow night. Handbills were issued to-day inviting all young men in the neighboring towns and villages of the county, who are disposed to arm in defence of the country, to attend the meeting and sign the roll. We have no doubt that by to-morrow evening the State Capital Guard will be prepared to make a tender of services.

FORESTALLING.—We trust that the Market Master will be more watchful on market days than is usually the case. On last Saturday morning a huckster purchased some poultry from a farmer, who had just arrived, at three shillings a pair, and then went to another portion of the market house and sold them for six shillings. Such offenders should be looked after by the proper officer.

ARRIVAL OF MILITARY.—We learn from the Secretary of State, that a number of volunteer companies are expected to arrive here during to-night and to-morrow, when they will be mustered into service, and proceed to Washington. The military, while in the city, will be quartered in the Park grounds.

Written for the Daily Telegraph. OCCASIONAL LINES. My country, torn and bleeding, Why art thou to anger stirred? Why are hostile armies moving? Why is martial music heard? Answer, oh! resplendent Heaven, Glittering in your star lit dome. Is the truth forever given, Here, that Freedom has no home? Shall our banner, bright and glorious; Loose its lustre in the night, And no more to float victorious, Flout its tatters in black night? Hearken! freedom, in this battle, If fraternal blood is shed, And amid the carnage's rattle, You should find a brother dead, Weep not, it is God's decree, Weep not, if in fight he lay, Struggling for the brave and free On some drearied battle day. Arm them, freeman! Lo! the martial Rings its notes upon the air; Arm! for 'tis for all in life, That is beautiful and fair. If we perish, God of freedom, Bless our last expiring breath! While in Heaven, Angela's Drum, Chant us to the realms of death! Where, at least the spirit, soaring, Ransomed through a bloody strife, Will be free in its adorning, Of a pure and endless life. Weep, oh weep, you stricken mother, For a child has cast you forth; Weep, oh sister, for a brother, In the slow but steady North! You have spurred our free proclamings, We have loved you many a year, You have washed all our earnings, Now you part without a tear, And in strife, not valor's calling, You would end our nighting high, Shouting as our temples falling, Shock the earth and rent the sky. Be it so, but more in sorrow, We will meet you in the fray, And as dawn the sun to-morrow, Spreading glories far away— So the light of freedom glancing, On our path will glory shed, And our banners high advancing, Float fore'er o'er slavery's dead! Harrisburg, April, 1861. W. V.

PHILADELPHIA AND ERIC RAILROAD.—The arrangements being improved by the managers of this great improvement—important to Pennsylvania in every sense—are of such a nature as to warrant the assertion that they will soon be able to resume operations upon it; and it is also probable that within the next year the road will be completed and ready for business.

GOVERNOR CURTIN, who has been absent from the State Capital for several days, on a visit to Washington, has not yet returned. The special object of his mission to the Federal Metropolis, in this crisis, is not generally known.

THE MARKET EXPRESS.—Mr. Davis has perfected his arrangements, and is now prepared to carry baskets from the market-house to any given part of the city. The charge for each will be but five cents. Mr. Davis will hold himself responsible for the faithful delivery of all goods entrusted in his care.

PHILADELPHIA AND ERIC RAILROAD.—The arrangements being improved by the managers of this great improvement—important to Pennsylvania in every sense—are of such a nature as to warrant the assertion that they will soon be able to resume operations upon it; and it is also probable that within the next year the road will be completed and ready for business. This is another evidence that the course of the present Legislature toward the great railroads of Pennsylvania was wise and politic. Without that legislation the Philadelphia and Erie would have languished in an unfinished state for years, and the people would have suffered great losses. With it a new field of enterprise will soon be developed, and all the interests of our Commonwealth greatly advanced.
