He spoke of the crisis now upon us, and said there should be no party lines known—that patriotism alone should animate the hearts of the pople. He pictured the loss of forts and Government property in the South.

His speech was eloquent, and was rapturouely to place the military of Pennsylvania in an ef-applauded. After the conclusion of which, he nominated the following gentlemen as officers: President—Wat. H. KERNER. Vice Presidents—Hon. Wm. Dock, Gen. Wm. H. Keim, Rudolph F. Kelker, Charles C. our gallant volunteers and clitzens generally, in rallying at their country's sall to march to its defence, is conclusive evidence that they are not degenerate sons of sires who lought for llberty and honor in the Revolution and in the war of 1812, and is a certain guarantee that the Keystone State will be found now, as she was in the late war with Mexico, foremost in the maintenance of our national rights;

A motion was then made to adopt the same.

Mr. BERGNER moved to amend the report of the committee by adding the following resolutions, viz:

Resolved, That we hail with proud satisfaction the manimous passage of the following resoluthat we adopt the same as our motto, viz: Resolved, By the Senate, Sc., That the faith, credit and resources of the State, in both men and money are hereby pledged to any amount and to every extent which the Federal Govern ment may determine to subdue the rebellion ; to punish the treason ; to enforce to laws ; to protect the lives, liberfies and property of the people, and to maintain inviolate the Constitution and the sovereignty of the nation. The amendmont was agreed to and the reort of the Committee as amended was unaninously adopted.
