Two Papers a Day.

In order to supply the citizens of this city with all the latest news which can possibly be recieved by Magnetic Telegraph, we have issued for the past week an extra every morning, and shall continue to do so until the present difficulties are settled. Our citizens will remember that the TELEGRAPH is the ONEY paper dispatches. All the dispatches published in the Tory sheet here are either manu factured or taken from the TELEGRAPH.

Appointments by the Governor, BY AND WITH THE ADVICE OF THE SENATE.

Edward M. Biddle, of the county of Cum berland, to be Adjutant General of the Grand Staff of the Militia of this Commonwealth. Gen. Reuben C. Hale, of the city of Phila-delphia, to be Quartermaster General of the Grand Staff of the Militia of this Common Capt. John W. M'Lean, of the county of Erie, to be Commissiary of the Grand Staff of the Militia of this Commonwealth.

The nominations are the very best that could have been made, and were unanimously confirmed by the Senate.

The Governor has made the following additional military appointments, viz.:

MAJOR GENERALS .- Robert Patterson, of Phi ladelphia. William H. Keim, of Berks.
BRIGADIER GENERALS.—George Cadwallader. of Philadelphia. George C. Wynkoop, of Schuylkill. Edmund C. Williams, of Daughia. James S. Negley, of Allegheny.

GOVERNOR CURTIN returned from Washington last evening, where he was detained by the Federal Administration, to assist in counseling and preparing to meet the emergencies of the crisis. So far as the personal efforts of the Executive are concerned, he is deserving of great credit for the manner in which he has been urging forward every arrangement calculated to bring this rebellion to a speedy termination. In his official capacity, Governor Curtin was among the first who urged upon the Legislature of his State the necessity of some prompt action for the support of the Federal Government. He not only urged the action, but sugmeans by which such a support could best be accomplished. The Legislature, confiding in the ability and patriotism of the Governrr, endorsed be ready to meet her enemies in the field. For comes!

Speaker of the Senate.

Speaker of the Senate with so much ability during the session about to close, will resign that laws, is a traitor, and can offer no excuse for responsible position to-morrow morning. Speaker Palmen will doubtless leave the Senate with regret, because he had won so much of the confidence and respect of the entire body as to make his official connection one bound up in been compelled to swallow for the last week. the strongest ties of personal friendship; and We have some hope now that in the future it while every one will regret the necessity of the resignation, his immediate constituents and the people of the State will lose, from one sphere of duty, one of their most faithful and able servants. Speaker Palmer is to go hence to serve the Federal Government as a diplomatic represontative near a foreign court, in which capacity he will as faithfully discharge his duty to his Government as he has in all the former positions he has heretofore occupied.

The Republicans of the Senate, last evening, indicated Louis W. Hall, by a unanimous voteries the successor of Mr. Palmer. Mr. Hall is from the Blair district, and although a young man, he is regarded as one of the most reliable and efficient members of the Senate. We congratulate him on the compliment of his choice from among the veterans of the Repub lican party and the most able men in Pennsyl-

Dauphin County Responds to the Union

We publish on our first page, this afternoon, the proceedings of a very large and enthusiastic meeting of the people of Dauphin county, called to give expression to their views on the crisis, and offer such aid and support to the National Government as were in their power. It will be noticed that the proceedings were characterized by the unanimity and deliberation becoming the occasion and objects, and that from these we can judge the unmistakable loyalty and patriotism of the people of Dauphin county. Among the speakers were Hon, W. H. Welsh, of York county, and Hon. Armstrong, from Lycoming county, both members of the Legisisture, and our eloquent friend and neighbor, R. A. Tamberton. The resolutions, which breathe the right spirit and seek the inculcation of the proper doctrine, were offered by the editor of the Sentinel, Mr. Sipes. With his usual practical good sense and generosity A. Boyd Hamilton suggested the necessity of providing for the families that might be left unprotected by the enlistment of their natural supporters, by moving the appointment of a Committee to solicit subscriptions for that purpose. He endorsed his own proposition by substribing at once $50, and was followed by Geo. Bergner in a like sum. The Committee apnointed to collect such money, should be kindly and generously sustained by the people of this city and county.

MAJOR GENERAL PATTERSON has issued orders to the troops under his command in the city of Union. Is it not rather late in the day, then, Philadelphia, to be ready to march to the sup- for the Patriot and Union to talk of sectional port of the President of the United States at a feeling—and is it not a false piety which dericminates that as "atrogious" which seeks THE moment's warning.

What is our Duty?

When the first gun was fired at Lexington by the hireling soldiery of a titled tyrant, our fathers did not organize themselves into opposite parties, for the purpose of discussing the merits of the cause. They did not propose talse questions of humanity or impracticable issues or policies. They rallied at once to the standard of the Stars and Stripes, and around that banner they swore to maintain the government against which the Revolutionary War was waged. They swore to maintain the government of their own creation, which was thus ruthlessly assailed, because it sought the establishment of free institutions by the equalization of men—their interest, their labor, their influence and the ir power for self-government The small revenue derived from the American Colonies was of smaller importance in the estimation of the British aristocracy, compared to the prestige of their self-anointed power. It which receives and pays for Telegraphic was for the vindication of such power that King George precipitated his troops upon our shores, tors at the South bears a strong resemblance lonies for their own purposes, and therefore the duty which our fathers discharged in the Revolution becomes incumbent now on us, during the threatening of the present rebellion by an aristocracy as insolent and as overbearing as that which has borne England down under a cle, to be bought and sold like sheep in the load of debt, and made her laboring masses shambles.

Boston, April 16.—About thirty companies, numbering 1700 mea have already arrived in the city and are quartered at Franklin Hall. But let the Patriot be answered with regard their outfits have also commenced to arrive, and to-morrow each man will be provided with in all things tending to the success of its own to defend the Union. It is to defend and relative arrives are required. vindication, and we must give it the confidence and the obedience which are its due in the hour of peril. If any man hesitates to do so, he is not of those who are loyal, and can only see in the movements of the traitors at the South, a conspiracy to change the form and own interests, unworthy of his citizenship and should not be trusted. The case is too plain and the facts too apparent and starling to be misapprehended, and therefore the duty of every man is clearly set before him, and he can as clearly manifest his willingness in its dis-

The restoration of the peace of this Union can only be accomplished by the most complete and confirmed enforcement of the law. To do so on any other principle-to readjust and reconstruct without asserting the power of a fixed nationality, would be to bind these States together with a rope of sand, and leave the administration of their affairs to the presumptive promises of every prowling political demagogue and mountebank in the land. In gested and pressed on their consideration the its efforts to vindicate the laws, and to stay the progress of rebellion, the Administration is only attempting to assert this nationality. They are only attempting to protect the lives and his suggestion by providing the means, so that property of the people against the aggressions Pennsylvania is now preparing and will soon of rebellion when they seek the enforcement of the law. These two declarations constitute acthe Union she has pledged her wealth, her tually the policy of the Administration-and resources and her credit. But one more improvement is: necessary to render the Patriot as correct in feeling as it is suggestive in name, and when its editors can properly estimate the real issues of this contest, forced on the people of the free States by the slave power, they will see and freedom or slavery shall control in the councils and the cabinets of this Government. This is the plain and the practical beginning of this contest. It is not whether a mere Republican organization shall prevail in the Governmentnor is it to be the advancement of the Democratic party. What the South have been battling for during the past-what they are preparing to contend for in the future, is SLAVERY —Slavery in the abstract, in principle and in provisions, to prevent starvation of its own sol. will be filled up from the reserved militia.

They have boldly told us so in the charter of their declared rights. They have ordered proclamation of this fact, by making the qualification of a State, before entering into their unholy cabals, the recognition of slavery—while the object of their faith and knees of every free white man in this Union, or cast the fragments of a dislocated and broken Union as a sacrifice at its base. On this point the Patriot and Union made the issue when it joined the Southern wing of the Democratic party, in its assaults on their Northern brethren. The passion which split the party at Charleston, and sent its angry factions forth into the States that are now arrayed in hostile attitudes against each other, was entirely made up of slavery exaction, was aroused to enforce slavery dogmas, and was in visted on to make the Democratic party the mere machinery of slavery propagandism. In that issue the Patriot and Union was for slavery. In that issue the Patriot and Union teemed with the most shameful assaults on that wing of the 1 remocratic party which refused to recognize slavery as the integral and animating substance of Democracy—and in that contest the Patriot and Union aspersed the character and impugned the motives of every man who refused to recognize John C. of every man who refused to recognise John C. Breckinridge, the representative of the slave power, as the embodiment of the only principles calculated to ensure the peaceful development and harmonious progress of the American

CRUSHING OF SLAVERY FOREVER ON THE RAMPARTS ITSELF HAS ERECTED FOR THE DESTRUCTION OF LIB-ERTY? "Are we going to war for the purpose of maintaining the Government?" Yes. Mr. Patriot. "Or is it merely an undertaking to crush slavery forever?" This government, it is now plainly understood among all its friends, cannot be restored and firmly fixed on its old foundations unless the institution of slavery is shorn of the prestige accorded to it by such northere advocates as the Patriot and Union, and therefore, it would be folly for the people of troops will be required at their rendezvous by the free States to engage in a conflict which the 20th of May. had not for its end some object of this description; because as long as slavery exists uncurbed and unrebuked, and as long as dough-faceism of the Patriot and Union quality is cultivated to $20,000 to the Governor, and all the directors flatter the assurance and pander to the exactions of slavery, the advocates of that institu-tion will hold their obligations to the Union as light as a gamester's oath, while the Union itself will become as worthless as a gamester's state, to aid in putting down rebellion.

Governor Goodwin has issued a proclamation tions of slavery, the advocates of that institubond. No doubt the Patriot would be willing and swore to deluge the land with the blood of to accept, as a basis of reconstruction, that part his subjects. This can only be done by restraining the insolence of the advocates of slabe regarded as a traitor. If any man fails to very at the South, and rebuking their allies and supporters at the North. And if we are to judge by the success with which the rebuke is principle of free government, he is blind to his being applied in the North, the restraint will be positive and effectual in the South, when the force of the Government is fully brought to bear against the traitors in that region.

> Youno Men who are anxious to obtain positions in the Army and Navy through appointment, to fill vacancies created by the resignation of southern secessionists, have a fine opportunity of doing so by placing themselves in the ranks in response to the appeals of Governor Curtin and Peesident Lincoln. In this hour of trial, those who offer themselves as soldiers to serve in any position, will be remembered when the hour of promotion arrives. Those who desire honor and position have the opportunity to earn them now.

The organized forces of South Carolina in Charleston harbor, without waiting even for the attempt of the unarmed vessel to carry in provisions to the starving garrison at Fort Sumter, understand that the merit of the struggle is against the influence of slavery, and that the broad plain issue is presented as to whether the flag of the United States has been hauled down in defeat, and the United States garrison sent out in humiliation. The grief and sense of humiliation we feel compels a different tone in speaking of so great an outrage and crime against humanity, liberty order and law, as it justly calls for. The result is evident among our own people. All party and political distinctions must be effaced.
