FROM CHARLESTON. THE FLEET IN THE HARBOR.

GREAT ANXIETY TO HEAR FROM VIRGINIA.

CHARLESTON, April 17.—4.2. M.

There is nothing stirring to-day, but the prospect of the secession of Virginia gives great oy. Nothing has been heard from Virginia to-ay, and there is great anxiety to hear.

The steamer R. Cuyler, from Savannah, reports having passed a steam tug on Suuday, with her smoke stack gone, off Cape Romain, bound South, probably the Yankee. The same day she spoke the steamer Baltic, off Charleston bar. The captain of the Baltic stated, in answer to a hail: "We take Anderson and his command to New York." The Harriet Lane was inside the bar, and both vessels had steam up. There was also a steamer inside, probably the Isabel. Captain Crocker reports that he saw Fort Sumter, but could perceive no breaches in the walls. The outside looked somewhat battered. When five miles away he heard firing, which was probably the salute fired by Anderson on leaving the fort.

office with similar result, the editor barely escaping by the aid of police.

The Daily News was then visited, the crowd having increased its numbers greatly. It is reported that A. F. Stewart has offered a mil-lion dollars to aid the government.

The Express of this evening says it has roliable information that forty-nine were killed and one hundred and thirty wounded at Fort ernor expressed pleasure at the visit, and said he was too hearse to join with them, but he would tell them that he was still under the Stars and Stripes. The Star Spangled Banner was then sung by fifty voices, with fine effect. The Governor thanked the visitors for the courtesy, and said that he hoped that "that patriotic air would be song on all filling occasions forever. The Union must be preserved." A voice exclaimed-"Governor, you have done your duty so far.' The Governor replied, "Yes, and I intend Delaware. now prevailing here is intense, and the few secessionists have been overawed by the determined aspect of the people. A scheme to seize fort Delaware was understand a proposition was made to raise an Irish regiment to tender to President Lincoln for the defence of the country. WILMINGTON, April 16 .- The Union feeling Fort Delaware was undoubtedly projected; but it has been frustrated by the action of the Government. A company had been organized, and the arms were to be taken from the military academy to equip them. This movement was designed with a double effect. It was to get pssession of the academy rifles, so that they could not be had by the people in a sudden emergency, and to arm an efficient company to carry out secession when the time to act should arrive. Our merchants are frowning down secession by a determination to patronize no paper tha does not give expression to Union sentiments Senator Bayard is now on a visit to Virginia, and his friends, who are suspected of secession sentiments are keeping quiet, the Union centiments here being so unanimous as to convince them that there is no hope for the success of any effort to capture Fort Delaware.

Movements of Troops.

Boston, April 17. At a meeting of the Jackson Democratic Club, last night, resolutions were adopted ex pressing upflinching devotion to the Government, and a proposition was made to raise an Irish regiment, to be tendered to President Lin-coln for the defence of the country. BOSTON, April 17.

The steamer S. R. Spaulding leaves this afternoon for Norfolk, with 690 troops, supposed for the purpose of garrisoning Fort Monroe.—
The remainder will leave by the overland train The Webster Bank has offered $50,000 to the State, and the other Boston banks will swel the amount to one million of dollars.

More Troops Coming.

Montgomer, April 17th.

President Davis will issue a Proclamation to-morrow. The Cabinet has had long sessions to-day. It is probable that 150,000 more troops will be called into the field.
