In some places the grain had been injured by the severe freezing weather, but it is jured by the severe freezing weather, but it is now rapidly recovering, giving promise to an abundant harvest. abundant harvest.

MORE FLAG RAISING. - A handsome United States flag was raised to the top of a pole one hundred and seventeen feet high in front of Cockley's tavern at Dauphin, yesterday. The Dauphin House, over which Mr. Cockley presides, is not only a well-conducted establishment; but we are assured, from this evidence, that its enterprizing proprietor keeps step to the music of the Union, "one and indivisible." The sessions of the convention will be opened by a sermon by Rev. C. F. Schaeffer, D. D., President of the last convention of this body. As this body is composed of delegates from nearly all the Lutheran Synods in the United States, some interesting and perplexing questions may arise in reference to the delegates from the seceded States.

YORK COUNTY AROUSED .--- The state of feeling in ancient York county may be inferred from the following incident : A few days ago Mr. Lilly, residing a few miles from Hanover, in York county, having gone into the town to attend to some business, ventured to assert that, though a Northern man, he sympathized very much with the South. One of the bystanders mmediately drew out his watch and said :-"You have just two minutes and a half to leave the town." As he began to demur, he was told that if he preferred a ride he could have it, and some one ran for a rail. He took the hint and vamoosed !

The soul inspiring strains of martial music resounds through our streets, groups of young and old men are seen discussing with earnest counte-nance the war news, while their clenched fists, compressed lips and determined looks show that the feeling of intense sorrow which here-tofore burdened their hearts has given place to the most bitter indignation.
