HARRISBURG.

Monday Afternoon, April 22, 1861

MORE FLAG RAISING .- Col. F. K. Boas. one of our most patriotic and loyal citizens, to-day had a liberty pole planted in front of his law office, from the top of which now floats a large and handsome American flag.

Captain A. H. EMBY, of the Wyoming artillerists, requests us to return the thanks of his company to the ladies of Harrisburg, for the kindness and liberality with which they have charge of their houses and machines, and not contributed to the comforts of his command.

THE services of the Washington Rifles of Mt. Joy, Capt. J. K. Waltman, formerly of this city, have been accepted by the Governor, and will go into encampment at their own expense near Mt. Joy, until called into active service.

A FINE COMPANY of military arrived here this morning from the Wyoming Valley. They had the full complement of men, and were uniformed in red shirts, cap and gray panteloons, with dark stripe. They attracted much attention.

COURT.-The regular term of the Court of Quarter Sessions met in this city at ten o'clock this morning, and received the reports of the muse of history will smooth down her fairconstables of the several townships. MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION .- In accordance with a suggestion of Gov. Curtin, I hereby call upon all patriotic citizens to meet at once at the office of the District Attorney, to organize themselves into a Vigilance Committee, to arrest spies and disaffected strangers. Citizens be WM. H. KEPNER, Mayor. prompt.

A Rediculous rumor prevailed to some extent in our city this morning that the water in the reservoir was poisoned. Such a statement naturally enough created the greatest alarm, and we are told that many families in consequence discard the use of the water altogether. We can asure our readers that there is not a word of truth in the report, and that

We warn river, it was recalled to this city by a telegraphic dispatch, and the cars switched off to the Pennsylvania Railroad—it being determined to send the troops to Washington via Philadelphia was presented with small pocket testaments, instead of Bultimore.

RIDICULOUS RUMONS .- We hear frequent rumors about certain men connected with the telegraph offices, and doubts are expressed as: to their loyalty. We can assure the public at large that no fear need be apprehended whatever. The Governor controls the lines, and Col. Berryhill, whose loyalty cannot be doubted for a moment, has taken up his quarters in the principal office, and is there in person day and night. No dispatches are permitted to pass unless they are of the right stamp. All Union men can depend upon this. We speak not only from a personal knowledge, but by authority.

THE "Ross GUARDS" will meet at the Exchange at 7 o'clock this evening for the purpose of perfecting their organization, and receiving additional names to the muster roll .--The company is not, as inadvertantly stated by us yesterday, composed exclusively of members of the Hope Fire company, but embraces members of different fire companies and others not last Saturday evening, Dr. Bailey offered the firemen. The roll of the company is rapidly following resolutions, which were unanimously filling up, and their services will no doubt be tendered to the Governor in a few days. Persons desirous of signing the muster roll are city of Harrisburg appropriate the sum of five thousand dollars for the support of those vorequested to be present at the meeting to-night.

THE "BUCKEYE BOYS."-Two full regiments of the Ohio State volunteers arrived here last Saturday evening, and are quartered in the State Capitol buildings. They are a fine looking set of men, and commanded by experienced officers. In a conversation with the Quarter-Master this morning, he informed us that they are the advance troops of seventeen regiments, formed by Ohio in response to the call of the President. The quota of the State was thirteen regiments, but hearing of the refusal of the State of Kentucky to furnish men, they immediately volunteered to fill the quota of that State, and hence the additional four regiments. In addition to this the Governor of Ohio has by a duly authorized person and properly ordered another levy of thirty-five thousand men to be held as a reserve in case of emergency.

GOOD ADVICE TO THE FIREMEN.-We endorse the following proclamation of Mayor Kepner | &c. - We had the pleasure of spending an hour and commend it to the sensible consideration of this morning at "Camp Curtin," above our the firemen of the city of Harrisburg. The city, and found it, as we had anticipated, full hands of the firemen, and we have no doubt the main road leading to the Comp was alive they will respond to the appeal of the Mayor, who is one of their best friends:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, MAYOR'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, April 22, 1861. I deem it important to urge upon our noble hearted firemen the adoption of some means to prevent the running of their apparatus except in case of need. The numerous false alarms, tend to keep up as well as to add to the numerous except already prevailing in the painful excitement already prevailing in the community; and too much care cannot be exercised to restrain that excitement within proper bounds. I would suggest to the firemen that each company select a committee to take allow the latter to be taken out under any pre text until it is clearly assertained that there is fire. This will tend to allay much confusion and aid in preserving quiet.

I would again urge upon all liquor dealers to be cautious in the sale of intoxicating drinks. Whenever it is known that one in this business has sold to a minor or to one already under the influence of liquor, his establishment shall be losed and he himself placed in the hands of the District Attorney to be dealt with to the full extent of the law. WM. H. KEPNER, Mayor.

Lieutenant Blakely, of the Union Blues, was examining a Colt's revolver belonging to a member of his company, when one of the barrels accidentally after the accident occurred. Not the least blame can be attached to Lieut. Blakely, and Mr. M'Call fully exhonerated him before his death. We hear since then that Lieutenant Blakely has taken very ill, and fears are entertained that his nervous system is so seriously affected that death may be produced by it.

A gentleman of the city also presented this company and the State Capitol Guard with the nine o'clock A. M. The regular hours for sum of two hundred dollars, which was equally distributed among the members of the two companies.

Such evidences of kind feeling and benevo. lence will long be remembered by our gallant soldiers.

THE PUBLIC GROUNDS, and State, Pine and Locust streets this morning presented a lively and animated scene caused by the military exercisef of the several companies composing the two Ohio regiments. The men gave evidence of good training in the marching evolutions, and we venture to predict that with Minnie rifles and sword bayonets in their hands the gallant "Buckeye Boys" will give a good accout of themselves.

THE CITY COUNCILS AND THE WAR.-PROMPT Action.—At a meeting of the City Councils adopted:

DESCRIPTION OF CAMP CURTIN. -THE MILITARY, redit and decorum of the city are both in the of bustle and activity. Throughout the day with pedestrians, military and civic, and omnibusses, carriages and other vehicles of all sizes and patterns, bearing passengers to and from the Camp. The main entrance is effectually guarded by sentinels, who permit no person to pass unless they produce a permit from the proper officer. In consequence of this regulation many of our citizens are disappointed in gaining an entrance, and are only enabled to witness the domestic economy of the interior by an occasional glimpse through the open gates.

We arrived upon the ground shortly after the reakfast hour, and found the troops mostly disengaged from duty, scattered promiscuously over the grounds in groups, many reading the extra Telegraph, and others discussing the condition of affairs generally.

The tents, about a thousand in number, occupy nearly all the available ground northwest of Floral Hall. They are regularly laid out in ows, with wide streets between, so as to facilitate communicated and insure a constant cir-

In addition to the tents, all the horse and cattle pens belonging to the ground have been thoroughly cleaned, weatherboarded and filled with straw for the accommodation of the

FLAG RAISING AT PATTERSON.—A gentleman informs us that two large American flags were raised last Saturday by the hands employed in the Pennsylvania Railroad Machine Shops at Patterson, amidst the greatest enthusiasm. Excellent music was furnished on the occasion by the Patterson Brass Band, and several patriotic speeches were made. The Patterson Guard and a company of dragoons also paraded in honor of the event. The fire of patriotism burns brightly in the old Keystone State, and from every hill-top and vale the glorious flag of our country flashes out its meleor hues : Fling it out to the breeze, spread abroad every MILITARY QUARTERS.—The Senate and Repre entative chambers and the Committee rooms of the State Capitol, have been converted into quarters for the military. Last night every hotel, some of the churches, the exchange, and other public buildings of the city, were used for like purposes, the tents at Camp Curtin not being half sufficient in number to afford the requisite accommodation. Our citizens have evinced a commendable degree of patriotism in this emergency, and have freely opened their doors to furnish food and lodging to the brave soldiers who have so nobly volunteered in defence of the liberties we enjoy.

TO THE PUBLIC AND MORE PARTICULARLY THE CITIZENS OF HARRISBURG.—The members of the Rover Guards company, a second Regiment of Ohio volunteers, her leave to tender to the citizens of Harrisburg their heartfelt gratitude for the hospitality and kindness shown them during their sojourn at the Capital of the State of Pennsylvaria. We are now en route for the seat of conflict, to do our duty to our country, her honor and her flag; but no matter where we may go, or however circumstanced, we will ever remember with gratitude the kindness of the citizens of Harrisburg.

THE QUARTER MASTER GENERAL WILL afford the ladies of Harrisburg every opportunity to contribute to the wants and the comforts of the troops encamped in this vicinity. Any instructions on the subject will cheerfully be made public through the columns of the TELE-GRAPH. These patriotic offers of the ladies reflect as much credit on the city, as the offers of the men, and we take special pride in giving the following letter to the public:

Harrisburg, April 21st, 1861. GEO. BEBGNER :- Dear Sir :- As the comfort of the defenders of our lives and homes is the universal theme of the day among the women of the country; and having heard that the hams and meat are not properly boiled for their consumption, we would suggest that a depot for said meats should be established from which we could obtain the articles mentioned, and to which we could retain them when properly prepared. The women of Harrisburg are anxions to do everything in their power for the comfort of our brave soldiers, and all they need is to be shown the way in which to make them-selves useful. There is not a housekeeper, l hope, in Harrisburg or in this State, but would be glad of the opportunity to boil hams or make lint or sew for the soldiers of the Union. Please inform us what we can do in this matte of hams, as we are assured there is much waste of food in consequence of improper cooking or to the following placard it will be seen that rather no cooking at all. There could be a ble and so it could be arranged very comfortably for the warriors and satisfactorily to us. Inform us also through the TELEGRAPH columps where packages of lint shall be deposited, and how to be put up? Making haversacks is not all we can do certainly. (Old linen rags make the best lint.)
