BERHAVE'S

Holland Bitters

DYSPEPSIA, Liver Complaint, Fever and Ague, &c.

The successful introduction and use of this celebrated Remedy has been the signal for a literal flood of compounds called "Bitters," offered in various forms, from a quart bottle to a five-gaillon keg, until this word "Bitters" is but another name for "grog," or some villanous whickey mixture. But the really great railer derived from the mignite dose, one teaspoonful, of our medicine, and the entire absence of after proctration, has established for it a reputation which the host of imitations and counterfeits have falled to undermine. It is positively a vegetable preparation, with barely sufficient pure spirits to preserve it.

Prof. WOOD, Dear Sir.—I was induced more than year kgo to try your valuable Hair Restorative for the purpose of cleansing my head of dandruff. I had suffered with it upon my head for years, and had never been able to get saintly thing to do me any good. In removing it; although I had tried many proparations, until I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburg paper. Being there at the time; I called at Gross & Kunkle's drug store, and bought is bottle, and now am prepared to recommend it to universal use, for it has completely removedal dandruff from my head, and an application once in two weeks keeps it free from any itahing or other uppleasantness.—I must also state that my hair had become quide white in places, and, by the use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color. I am now 50 years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, as I ellow a few gray hairs to remain in order to have my appearance comport with my age. My head is now of least touble to me in keeping it. clean, so, than at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, although I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to do so. You can use this or any part of it, it any shape you think proper, it it is worth any thing to you.

H. H. ETTER.

DEAR SIR: 1 here send your a statement that I think; you are entitled to the benefit of. I am a rasident of Blosmington, and have been here for over thirty years. I am now over fifty years of age. For about twenty years, past my har has been turning considerably gray, and was almost entirely white and very stiff and unphant. I had seen a number of certificates of the very wonderful effect of your Hair Restorative but supposed there was more fiction than truth in them: but entertaining a strong desire to have my hair, if possible, restored to its original color and fineness, as it was in my younger days a beautiful black, I concluded I would make the experiment commencing in a small way. I purchased one of your small bottles, at one dollar, and commenced using following directions as nearly as i could. I soon discovered the dandruff removed, and my hair, that was failing off in large quantities, was considerably tightened, and a radical change taking place in the color: I have continued to use it, till I have used three of your small bottles and just begun on the fourth. I have now as pretty a head of dark brown, or light black-hair as any man, or as I had in my youthful days, when a boy in the hills of western Vriginia. My head is entirely clear of andruin, and the hair costed entirely falling off and is as soft and fine, and feela as olly, as though it was just from the hairs of a French champoone. Many of my sequaintances frequently say to me; "Butler, where did you get that the world in the same old gray head.

oomington, monroe oo., mu Wood's Hair Restorative has acquired a reputation from actual test and experiment—which cannot be enhanced by newspaper pulls. In our vicinity it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and received the universal endorsement of all, who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few nostrums which accomplishes all it professes, and all the hald and gray could desire—Columbia Str.

Prost. Wood's Haus Restoractive:—In another cold manwill be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original dolor. The Hair Restorative also cures outaneous eruptions, and prevents the bair falling off. We have seen many authentic testimodishin proof of these assertions some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried this Restorative. Boston Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE. We are not in the habit of ouffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ter they are quack nostrums, but we take great pleasure it racommending Professor Wood's article to all whose hall recommending reviews would article to all whosehat is failing off or turning gray. summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

Wood's Hair Reproparity.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpe chable evides ce; to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to pristine vigor. Where the head had become almost bald because of stokness, the use of this article has produced a heautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all shases. Its ingredients are such as to effect appropriate so injuriously to the chair. It also has curative properties of another description. In, many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of his tempody, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound if it does not cause a mrnifest improvedment, is incapable of doing harm, as its component elements are perfectly innocuous.—Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

A GENURE BOON.—In our capacity as conductor of a rable journal, we are called upon to advertise the oursels for the day, each of which claims to be unadditerated in its composition and infallible in its curalive effects, with what justice we leave our readers to deterreine. In one instance, however—Prof. Wood's Hair, Restorative—we are so well assured of the notable qualities of the article, that we give it our indorsement as all that its inventor and vender claim it to be. Its effect upon a failing head of hair is universally known to be magical. Like lime or guano on exhausted land, it brings its crop wherever applied. Our own thaton is fortunately very healthy, but we advise our friends with sparsely-growing hair to try the Restorative.—Columbia Spy.

ALL HATE DYES ARANDONED.—Word's Great Article has Taken the Field.—Professor Wood stands on an eminence a cheir tonic, has ever before reached. His fame is sudden by tworld-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been baid for years are now, through the use of his preparation, wearing their own natural and luxuriant head covering. So much for chemistry, the chemistry of human life, and the laws which apply to the functions of the system. Prof. Wood studied out the human hair its character, its properties and diseases; and how to restore the decaying vitality to that grained, unless the age of the individual has reached four score, and he believed that the hair could-be naturally revitalized. He tried his own case—almost bald and quite gray, at the age of the tried the could-be naturally revitalized. He tried his own case—almost bald and quite gray, at the age of thirty-seven—he restored his own hair in color, strength; and luxuriance, and the article he did it with he gave to the world. His stook of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could, not have been less than thirty thousand cases the Brandy, some ton thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rumsome very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy. Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom House key, ready for botfling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of bohnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brrndies and Wines.

His business merits the petronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land mare up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it. with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors, and replace it. with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors, and replace it. with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.
