THE CITY LOCK-UP was again filled last night with its usual quantum of stragglers. They all had a hearing before the Mayor this morning, who disposed of them in a proper manner. Lorr.-This morning, a purse containing a two-dollar and a half gold piece a gold dollar with silver change to the amount of about ten dollars, and two watch keys. The finder will be rewarded by leaving it at this office. THE WEATHER to day was exceedingly fine and agreeable, bringing to the streets a large portion of our population, who with the great crowd of strangers in town, gave to the sidewalks a scene of activity and bustle gener ally that time cheerful to look upon. A consumption suggests to the employees of the commissary department of "Camp Curtin' the propriety of using tin instead of plinted buckets while dealing out coffee or water to the soldiers. The suggestion contains much force, and we commend it to the favorable consideration of the proper authorities.

ARRESTED ON SUSPICION.-A man named Humphries, who claims to be a native of Maryland, was arrested by some of the Jefferson county volunteers this morning, charged with certain conduct considered as suspicious. He wastaken befere the Mayor, andafter a hearing discharged from custody.

Monn Troops. - Three fine volunteer compaplanearrived here last night, one of which was from Bedford, and the other two from Brookville, Jefferson county. DEPARTURE OF TROOPS .-- About one thousand of the volunteers stationed at "Camp Curtin" vill leave this evening for Camp Scott at York.

MAIL FROM BALTIMORE. - A mail was received from Baltimore to-day by the Western Virginia Railroad via Littlestown, which brings papers up to Wednesday afternoon.

More Military. - The Danville Guards, accompanied with an excellent Brass Band, the Scranton Keystone Guards, and a company from Bedford, arrived here at noon to-day, and joined Camp Curiu. The Scranton company bore in their ranks a large wooden eagle, which attracted much attention.

SAFELY RETURNED. - Messrs. M'Clure and Barrett, mail agents between this city and Baltimore, have returned safe from the rebels, where they were detained since Saturday last. They represent Baltimore to be in the very worst condition, and business entirely suspended.

WE ARE under obligations to Major Geo. A. C. Seiler, one of the assistants in the Adjutant General's office, and Mr. S. S. Child's, a private in the Carperon Guards, detailed as clerk to Captain Sammony U. S. A., for information furnished in reference to military officing at Camp Curting The departments with which these gentlemen are connected are among the most active at the Camp, necessarily investing them with a large amount of duty, which they perform with an alacrity that is highly creditable.

It is a handsome acknowledgment of the hospitalities extended to the troops by the ladies and others of our citizens during their brief stay among us:

LANCASTER, O., April 23, 1861. To his Honor, the Mayor of the city of Harrisburg,

Dear Sir. - We have heard here to day that the Ohio volunteers, en route for Washington city, were hospitably received at Harrisburg, and their comforts and necessities kindly provided for. And further, that the ladies of your city furnished the boys with changes of clean linen and cures for the sick. As the father of one of the boys of company A., Capt. Stafford, of this place, I say to you, citizens of Harrisburg; and to the, ladies of Harrisburg, more especially, the God of right will bless and re-A house and lot in Highspire, the property ward you.
