DROWNED IN THE SWATABA. - Mr. Brown and John Youst, two young men of Middletown, were drowned in the Swatara, at Frey's dam, ou last Sunday. Their bodies have not yet been found.

PRESENTATION AT COLD SPRING .- On the 9th inst, Mr. H. P. Smith, late master machinist of the S. & S. R. R. Co., was made the recipient | tary. of a handsome gold headed cane, the gift of the employees of that company.

SERIOUSLY BURNED. -- Mrs. Spade, residing on Main street, Middletown, was horribly burned, a few days since, by her clothes taking fire while she was burning some rubbish in the garden. Her injuries may prove fatal.

Good IDEA.-An association of ladies styled "the Patriotic Daughters of Lancaster," has been formed in Lancaster, for the purpose of preparing for the wants of the wounded, &c.. of the gallant soldiers of that city and county. We hope to see a similar organization started in this city.

THE VOLUNTERE'S MANUAL: by Lieut. Col. D. W. O. Baxter. This seems to us to be a very complete and thorough treatise on the subject of army organization and drill perfection. It is imbellished with a large number of wood cuts, illustrating the different positions of a well drilled soldier, which must aid the new recruit in acquiring a knowledge of the service. The Manual is published in Philadelphia, by King & Baird.

JOINED CAMP CURTIN. --- The " Lochiel Greys," Capt. Henry M'Cormick, of this city, joined Camp Curtin this morning, to which place they were escorted from their "head quarters" in the Exchange to the camp ground, by the company is mostly composed of the sons of our wealthiest and most respectable citizens, and a finer looking set of young men never tread Bible Society. militaire. We expect to hear good tidings of the " Greys."

PROVISIONS REQUIRED FOR CAMP CURTIN. There are now nearly four thousand men stationed at Camp Curtin, near this city. Some ides of the quantity of provisions required daily to feed this large force may be had from . the amount daily required to feed five thousand men, as reported by the commissary department at Philadelphia, which is as follows:

Fresh beef, 6,500 pounds; Bread, 6,500 Candles, 100 pounds; Coffee, 200 pounds; Candles, 100 pounds; Salt, four bushels; and Beans, thirteen bushels.

MAUCH CHUNK VOLUNTERS.-Last night an. other company, the Irish Infantry, arrived at Camp Curtin direct from Mauch Chunk. This is the fourth company from that patriotic town, which contains a total population of about four
