--SMALL NOTES .- The Mechanics' Bank of Pittsburg have already issued small notes-ones. twos and threes-and they are getting into circulation fast. The other banks are about to follow suit.

THE GROWING CROPS .- From all parts of our county we have the most glowing accounts of the state of the crops. Never did they look better, and should nothing occur between this and harvesting time, it is thought the crop of wheat will be fully equal to that of last year. The grass crop also looks exceedingly well, the late rains having brought it out wonderfully. The farmers of Dauphin county can serve their country as well, perhaps better, by remaining at home cultivating their broad fields, than by duty in camp or fortress.

VOLUNTEERS EXEMPTED FROM PROCESS. --- By the 34th section of the military laws of Pennsylvania "No execution or other process shall issue against any officer, or non-commissioned officers or privates, of the militia when called into actual service under a requisition from the President of the United States, or in pursuance of the order of the Governor of this Commonwealth, nor shall any such process issue against him until thirty days after he shall have returned from duty to his usual place of residence. or until forty days after he shall have been discharged; and the court, alderman or justice such process shall have been issued, shall quash been proven, and all the costs which shall have accrued in commencing or conducting any such process shall be paid by the person who shall have applied for the said execution or process.'

The patern was furnished by a British officer to an association of patriotic ladies in New York, who have already completed one thousand for the use of one of the reviments from that city now at Washing-"ton. We trust that the example of these ladies will be generally followed until all our troops are protected by the "Havelocks" from needless exposure and hardships on the scorching plains of the South. Experience has shown that troops serving in warm climates, greatly need protection from sun-stroke, which is often quite as fatal and dangerous as the fire of the enemy.

O. EDWARDS, Sec'y. MORE MILITARY .-- Two additional volunteer companies from the north-eastern part of the State arrived here at noon to-day, and are now quartered at Camp Curtin. One or two regiments from Illinois are expected to arrive here some time to-night.

WE UNDERSTAND that a subscription has been started for the relief of the family of Mr. Rose, who was killed on the railroad in this city vesterdey. The family are represented to be in needy circumstances, and contributions for their benefit will be thankfully received at the residence of W. O. Hickok Esq., or at the

Eagle works. A VERY DESTRUCTIVE collision occurred at Columbia, Lancaster county, yesterday, by which

a large number of passenger cars were damaged and destroyed, belonging to the Pennsylvania Railroad. The cars were taken from this station by a single locomotive, and were to be of the peace from which or from whom any divided at Columbia into trains. During the car coupling and changing one of the locomothe same, as soon as the fact of any such per- | tives came in collision with a portion of these son being ordered on public duty shall have cars, causing the damage referred to. Fortunately no lives were lost.

A HARRISBURGER PROMOTED .- This morning Mr. Jacob M. Barr, of this city, was unanimously elected First Lieutenant of the "Pot-HAVELOCK CAP COVERS.-Mayor Kepner this ter Rifles," Capt. J. B. Overton. The "Rifles" morning received by mail from New York a form part of the "Bucktail" contingent, and sample of what are denominated the "Havelock | are composed of seventy seven fine, stout, ablecap covers," with the view to their adoption bodied backwoodsmen who will give a good by the volunteers of this State. They are account of themselves when an opportunity occurs. The company have been sworn into service for three years, unless sooner discharged.

> LOOK OUT FOR IMPOSTORS. -The public should be on their guard against impostors, who are to raise the wind. The rascals are just now engaged in collecting funds nominally for the families of the volunteers, and as excitement and enthusiasm never allow people time to reflect, the dodge is one which no doubt pays well. This swindling operation has been confined to cities and large towns, but it will soon be extended to the country, and we warn people to be on their guard. Give no money to any one, for any purpose, unless you know who you are giving to, or have the most indubitable evidence that it will be applied to the purpose for which it is asked.

PROCLAMATION OF GENERAL BUTLER.

Governor Hicks Replies to Major Brown Benying that he Authorized the Destruction of Bridges.

Arrival of Troops from York.

BALTIMORE, May 15th. The Governor has issued the following procunation :---

Whereas: the President of the United States has called upon me, the Governor of Maryland, for four regiments of Infantry or Riflemen, to serve for the period of three months; the said requisition being made in spirit and in pursu-ance of law; and whereas, to said requisition has been added the written assurance of the Secretary of War, that said four regiments shall be detailed to serve within the limits of Maryland, or for the defence of the Capital of the United States, and not to serve beyond the limits aforesaid; NOW THEREFORE, I, Thomas Holliday Hicks, Governor of Maryland, do by this my proclamation, call upon loyal citizens to volunteer their services to the extent of four regiments as aforesaid to serve during the neried of three months within the limits of Maryland ori n defence of the Capital of the United States, --- to be subject under the condi-tions aforesaid, to the orders of the Commander-in-Chief of the army of the United States Given under my hand and the great seal of the State of Maryland, at the city of Frederick, this 14th day of May, 1861.

When the train containing many members ever ready to take advantage of circumstances of the Legislature from Frederick reached the Relay House this evening, Ross Winans was arrested by the Federal officers and detained. The train came on without him. Governor Hicks was in the cars, and with others endeavored to have Winans released on security. This was refused, and he was placed under guard with the assurance that he should be well taken care of.

PROCLAMATION OF GENERAL BUTLER. General Butler yesterday afternoon issued the following proclamation :

DEPARTMENT OF ANNAPOLIS, Federal Hill, May 14, 1861. A detatchment of the forces of the Federal Government, under my command have occu pied the city of Baltimore for the purpose ge of en nong ot

FINAL ADJOURNMENT.-The House has con- superior officers, forthwith to the General in command, so that he may be able to know and distinguish the regularly commissioned and loyal troops of Margland from armed bodies vho may claim to be such.

The ordinary operations of the corporation government of the city of Baltimore, and of the civil authorities, will not be interfered with, but on the contrary will be aided by all the power at the command of the General, upon proper call being made; and all such authorities re cordially invited to co-operate with the General in command to carry out the purposes set forth in the proclamation, so that the city of Baltimore may be shown to the country to be what she is in fact—patriotic and loyal to the Union, the Constitution and the laws.

No flag, banner ensign, or device of the so-called confederate States, or any of them, will be permitted to be raised or shown in this Deby evil disposed persons will be deemed and taken to be evidence of design to afford and comfort the enemies of the country.

To make it the more apparent that the gov-ernment of the United States by far more relies upon loyalty, patriotism and zeal of the good citizens of Baltimore and vicinity, than upon any exhibition of force calculated to intimi-date them into that obedience to the laws which the government doubts not will be paid from the inherent respect and love of order. the commanding General has brought to the city with him, of the many thousand troors in the immediate neighborhood which might be at once concentrated here, scarcely more than an ordinary goard, and until it fails him he will continue to rely upon that loyalty and patriotism of the citizens of Maryland which has never yet been found wanting to the government in time of need. The general in command desires to greet the citizens thereof as friends and brothers, having a common purpose, a common lovalty. and a common country. Any infractures of the laws by the troops under his command, or any disorderly or unsoldierlike conduct, or any interference with private property, he desires to have reported to him immediately; and he pledges himself that if any soldier so far for gets himself as to break those laws that he has sworn to defend and enforce, he shall be most rigorously dealt with.

The general believes that if the suggestions and requests contained in this proclamation be faithfully carried out by the co-operation of all good and Union-loving citizens, and peace and quiet, and the certainty of future peace and quiet, are thus restored, business will assume ts accustomed channels, trade take the place of duliness and inactivity, efficient labor dis place idleness, and Baltimore will be in fact what she is entitled to be, in the first rank of the commercial cities of the nation.

Given at Baltimore, the day and the year first above written. BENS. F. RUTLER, Brigadier General, Commanding the Depart BENJ. F. RUTLER, ment of Annapolis. E. G. PARKER, Lieutenant Colonel, Aid-de-

Camp. General Butler had a long interview, prior the issuing of the foregoing proclamation, with the Mayor and several members of the City Council. It is said that the conversation showed that the General was more intimately acquainted with affairs here than many sup-

During the afternoon, Gen. Butler made a formal demand on the city authorities for the delivery of a quantity of arms stored in the warehouse of John S. Gutings, at the corner of Gray and Second streets. Marshall Kane refused to deliver up the arms without an order from the Mayor was produced by the officer. Finally, after some altercation, an order was procured and the arms were brought out, making fifteen dray loads. About two-thirds of the fire arms were carbines and the rest were flint lock muskets. There Aguard of Federal troops was placed over the arms, and escorted by a large number of police, they were taken to the fort. A crowd of turbulent men and boys followed, yelling and shouting, for a portion of the dis-tance. Some were armed with pistols and evinced a desire to commit violence, but they were restrained by the police. There was also a large crowd of Union men following on each side of the road, who cheered repeatedly for the troops and the Union and at times groaned the police. Governor Hicks replies to Mayor Brown's charge that he authorized the destruction of the railroad bridges. He denies the charge, and says, the Mayors' communication and the accompanying certificates have induced any person to doubt my true position in the pre-mises, and respectfully ask a suspension of judgment, until a sufficient time be afforded me to collect the necessary proof and show, as I shall be able to do, most conclusively, that the destruction of the bridges was a part of the conspiracy of those acting against the Government, and was known and proclaimed in other parts of the State, before the destruction was consummated, but any person who knows my opinion of George P. Kane and Enoch Lowe, will at once admit that I
