Proposals for a Loan of $3,000,000 to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

In pursuance of the first section of an Act of the General Assembly, entitled "an Act to create a loan and provide for raising the State," approved May 16th, A. D. 1861, and the sixth section of the Act entitled "an Act to provide for the payment of the members, officers and contingent expenses of the Extra Session of the Legislature," approved May 16th, A. D. 1861, and by the authority of the same,

NOTICE is hereby given that proposals will be received at the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, until three o'clock P. M. of Wednesday the fifth day of June next, for the loaning to the Commonwealth the sum of THREE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, for the purposes set forth in the before named Acts of Assembly. The said loan to bear an interest of six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually in Philadelphia, and the loan to be redeemable in ten years from date; and for the payment of the interest and liquidation of the principal thereof a special tax of one-half mill on the dollar has been directed to be levied on all the property in the Commonwealth taxable for State purposes. The certificates of loan shall not be subject to taxation for any purpose whatever; and all certificates of the denomination of one hundred dollars or less shall have coupons attached; those of a larger denomination will be issued either as assignment or coupon bonds at the option of the bidder.

The proposals must state explicitly the amount proposed to be taken and the rate to be paid. The State reserves the right to accept the whole or any part of the amount offered to be taken unless the proposer stipulates otherwise. No conditional proposals will be considered.

Upon the acceptance of any proposal at least ten per cent of the amount must be paid down, the balance, if preferred by the bidder, in thirty and sixty days, when certificates shall issue for the same, bearing interest from the time of payment.

The proposals must be directed under seal to the Secretary of the Commonwealth endorsed "Proposals for Loan."

The bids will be opened at 3 o'clock in the afternoon of the day above named in the presence of the Governor, State Treasurer and Auditor General and such other persons as may see proper to be present, when, after examination of the same the Governor will award the loan to the highest bidder or bidders.

By order of the Governor, ELI SLIFER, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, Harrisburg, May 17, 1861.

GENERAL ORDERS, NO. 2.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, Harrisburg, May 16, 1861.

The Governor of Pennsylvania has received from the War Department, Washington, the second requisition of militia made by the General Government.

"Ten Regiments are assigned to Pennsylvania, making in addition to the thirteen regiments of three months already called for, twenty-three regiments. It is important to reduce rather than enlarge this number, and in no event to exceed it."

Pennsylvania has already furnished to the United States service twenty-five regiments. Of this number at least ten regiments--the amount of the second requisition--have signified a willingness to change their term of service from three months to three years. No more companies, therefore, from this Commonwealth can now be received for the United States Government.

By order of the Governor, Commander-in-Chief, E. M. BIDDLE, Adjutant General.

GENERAL ORDERS, NO. 12.

BATTLE HYMN.

Respectfully inscribed to Lieut. Col. Norton McGinnis, 12th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers.

HORACE B. DURANT. Great God of battles! how to Thee, In this momentous hour, We bow in reverence--I to be Protected by Thy Power! Protect us as we forward go, To battle for the Right, And make us strong to meet the foe-- Be Thine, alone, our might!

Land of our Fathers! 'tis thy name, That nerves each heart and soul; For thee is lit the battle's flame, For thee our anthems roll; Here, in our sacred bosom, rest Our dear and honored dead; Each spot with tender memories blest, Where'er our footsteps tread.

Ah! can we look on earth and sky, And feel that we are slaves? No, never! let us rather die, And sleep in honored graves-- Die fighting, 'till the latest breath, With victory in view, Our glaring eyes last look in death, Fixed on our banner true!

Be with us God! in that calm hush, When, in their stern array, Embodied legions wait to rush Swift on to death's affray! When wrapped in lurid flame and smoke, And clangor stuns the soul, And thunders roar, we then invoke Thine aid--be with us God!

Then, conscious in thy mighty strength, Like lightning on we'll speed, Until the day is won at length, By many a val'rous deed; And when the bloody strife is done, Whilst on the field we stand, From rank to rank the shout shall run-- God, and our Native Land!

COMPANY E, 12TH REGIMENT, PA. VOLUNTEERS, Camp Scott, York, Pa., May 21, 1861.

The Cabinet of President Lincoln.

There seems to be a hearty concurrence of opinion and action between the constitutional advisers of President Lincoln. They have fully come up alike to the public peril and to the public expectation. Mr. Seward long since appreciated his position, and anticipated the future in which we now live. He admonished foreign governments that under no circumstances would the present Administration maintain relations with any nation recognizing the Southern Confederacy, and his published letter to Mr. Dayton, our new Minister to France, is a chart by which none can be led astray. Secretary Chase has brought to the Treasury, that came to him after the spoliation of Cobb dishonored and discredited, a genius and a courage that have elevated it in the confidence of our people and the world. Mr. Cameron has taken the War Department, left to him by Floyd a reeking corpse of corruption, and breathed into it a life and energy that recall the best recollections of the world. Comprehensive, clear, bold, and vigilant, he preserves his equanimity and good nature in the midst of the tempest.

The Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Wells, sensible of the great truth expressed by Mr. Everett in his last speech, "that no nation can ever wage war without a navy," is at his post directing the vast preparations for increasing our navy, so as to make it equal to the demands upon it in its own waters and in distant seas. The Postmaster General, Mr. Blair, and the Secretary of the Interior, Mr. Smith, having less to do with the immediate war operations of the administration, vigorously direct the vast internal affairs in their hands, so as to render the policy of the administration efficient to back the friends and damage the foes of the republic. The Attorney General, Mr. Bates, has already shown his zeal in the good cause, and his judgment and experience as a thorough constitutional lawyer.

Thus, it will be seen, that the President is well and willingly maintained by his Cabinet. The crisis has developed the best qualities of his advisers. It has extinguished all divisions and rivalries, and the cause of the country has clothed them with the panoply of the country's confidence and the elevated hope of inevitable triumph.--Washington City Sunday Morning Chronicle.

TO GOOD TO BE TRUE--Important news reaches us from the Texas frontier and Northwestern Louisiana, indicating that the rebels of that region are experiencing an unexpected "fire in the rear," which, if true, is likely to prove anything but agreeable. It is stated by the New Orleans papers of Saturday and Sunday last, that Captain Montgomery, so well known in connection with the Kansas troubles, has organized a force of three thousand men in that State, made a descent on the Texas frontier, and already captured Fort Washita, which had previously fallen to the hands of the rebels. Forts Cobb and Arburck were also expected to be occupied by Montgomery. The substance of instructions from the War Department, through Major Emory, of the Regular Army. The Texans in that region were thrown into the greatest state of consternation by this sudden and unexpected movement, and were widely calling for arms and money to organize a defence against expected incursions from Montgomery and his men, in connection with the unfriendly Indians. Expresses were sent off in every direction for aid, and a number of citizens of Shreveport, La., had written to Gov. Moore of that State, asking him to interfere for their protection, and if necessary telegraph for arms to the Montgomery Government.

GEORGE COPWAY'S INDIAN WARRIORS--Geo. Copway is in Washington, and has tendered to the President a number of Indians of Michigan. He has made a selection of one hundred tall, fleet Indians, whom he proposes to use as scouts and runners for the army, and to occupy the advanced posts from Cairo to Eastern Virginia. They are not to be armed, except so far as is necessary for self-defence, but from their fleetness and knowledge of forest life, are to be employed as messengers and auxiliaries to the army on the outposts. He says they all understand the position of the government.--He comes strongly backed by the members of the extra session of the Legislature of Michigan. The State of Michigan will equip them. Their acceptance is under consideration.

GERMAN REFORMED CHURCH--The Maryland Classis of the German Reformed Church will meet in Middletown, Frederick county, to-morrow. The opening sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. Heiner, of Baltimore.

APPOINTMENT OF NAVAL SURGEONS.

WASHINGTON, May 23.

The Virginians are voting on Secession to-day, and of course there is little or no opposition to it in this neighborhood.

The military at Alexandria voted yesterday. The result was 128 for ratifying the ordinance, 2 against it, and 4 refused to vote. If this is the whole military vote, the rebel force at Alexandria is not very formidable.

The Secretary of War has accepted three regiments from Pennsylvania above her quota. They are the 12th, 13th and 16th.

The Government declines to accept a regiment of Indians from Michigan, offered by George Copway.

SECOND DISPATCH. WASHINGTON, May 23.

The voting at Alexandria, to-day, is going on quietly. As they vote in Virginia en masse, no one dares to vote for the Union. There are said to be two thousand rebel troops at Alexandria. [If this is correct, the military vote reported above must have been that of only a portion of the troops.]

The President declared, this morning, to a prominent gentleman who had an interview with him, that there would be no invasion of the rebel States before next autumn. By that time the army will be in perfect condition and discipline, and well supplied in every respect.

The New York Thirteenth Regiment now at Annapolis, go to Fortress Monroe to-day. Senator Foote, of Vermont, is pressing the War Department to accept two more regiments from that State.

Information has been received here from Richmond that the extensive cannon foundry there is in full operation.

THIRD DISPATCH. WASHINGTON, May 23.

A letter from Virginia states that there are between 50,000 and 60,000 men under arms in that State. They are chiefly posted at Richmond, Norfolk and Harper's Ferry, or within halting distance of those points.

It is also stated that private advices confirm the report of a large arrival of arms at the South from abroad. These were shipped from Europe early in April, and consist of over 200,000 muskets and rifles, and ample supplies of powder and percussion caps, and machines for making the latter article.

A private company has been organized at Alexandria, Virginia, to convey letters to the North, as after next week all letters destined for the North will lie over at that city. All mail intercourse with points north of Virginia will cease on the first of June. The Post office Department has as yet taken no action in view of the contemplated southern independent mail arrangements.

The appearances indicate that separate offers for bonds or treasury notes, and alternative offers for the former at current rates, and for the latter at par, will exceed the immense amount of the result creates some solicitude that it may not fail of being realized.

Much speculation is indulged in as to the movements of troops for active service; but those who, it is presumed, are best acquainted with such matters, say that no invasion into the heart of any State is now contemplated, and that the operations will be principally confined to the recapture of the public property, in the maintenance of the defensive works still in the possession of the United States.

Much deference is paid to the views of Lieut. Gen. Scott, and it is known that he is not restive to make any forward movement, unless with preponderating chances of success. There may, however, be modifications of this present policy, dependent on circumstances. Joseph Casey, of Penna., has been appointed a Judge of Court of the Claims, to supply the vacancy occasioned by the secession of Judge Scarborough of Virginia. The President has also appointed the following surgeons in the navy: Jacob S. Dungan, Chas. F. Fake, Samuel F. Cowes, Edward Shipper, Wm. Scowder, Phineas J. Hornis, Wm. D. Harrison, Chas. Martin, Francis M. Grinnel, James Suddard, S. Allan Engles, Benjamin Freeland.

SOUTHERN WAR ITEMS.

WASHINGTON, May 23.

A regiment of Tennessee volunteers arrived at Richmond on Tuesday. The Richmond Whig, of yesterday, says: "If the boys continue to pour in as they have been doing for the past week, we will soon have an army here of 60,000 men."

The Athens (Penn.) Post says: "Some 12,000 troops, destined for Virginia, have passed over the road in the last ten days. They are generally well uniformed, and most of them well proportioned men."

The Virginia papers all claim that their side got the best of the late affair of Sewall's Point.

MARAUDING EXPEDITIONS ON THE CANADIAN FRONTIER--MILITARY MOVEMENTS.

TORONTO, C. W., May 23. The Leader says that there will shortly be fifty thousand Enfield rifles in the province, and in view of marauding expeditions on the Canadian frontiers from bodies of men who will not be ruled by the Washington government, recommend that the militia be placed on a better footing immediately.
