Liaily Celegraph,

RARRIBBURG Thursday Afternoon, June 6, 1861.

FIRST COMPANY CITY GUARDS will meet in the Odd Fellow's Hall, No. 68, North Second street, this evening, for the transaction of business of importance. Every member is desired to attend.

CAPTAIN EYSTER, of the Cameron Guards arrived here last evening, on his return from Philadelphia, and left this morning for Chambersburg. The Captain looks as if soldier-life agreed with him.

SLIFER GUARDS.—This is the name of the company from Lewisburg, Union county, whose arrival we noticed yesterday. The company is pitality of the ladies of this city. named after Col. Eli Slifer, the present Secretary of the Commonwealth, and is made up of residents of his town and county.

Serious Accident.-Yesterday afternoon, Mr. Eli Holingsworth, connected with the Pennhave to be amoutated.

Another Flag. Our citizens continue to manifest their patriotism by displaying the "red, white and blue." This morning we noticed in front of Mr. George W. M'Calla's jewelry store a newly-erected pole, from the top of which will soon float a large and beautiful American flag. Long may it wave!

LABORERS FOR FARMERS.—Farmers have been fearing that they will not be able to employ laborers, but the closing of manufactories dur- ed that another young man, drowned at the ing the present hostilities will enable them to same time, was also found by a party of fisherfind plenty of laborers in the cities, who will be men, after having been in the water nearly two glad to get employment till business revives. There are plenty of men for farmers and plenty for soldiers, and the former are just as useful at the present time as the latter.

RIVER BATHING is very good exercise, and as a sanitary measure ought to be encouraged; but boys who indulge in it should seek some retired locality, where their persons will not be exposed to the full view of lady promenaders on Front street, as is the case almost daily. If the boys disregard this friendly hint, we trust the Chief of Police will take measures to abate the nuisance-for such it really is.

THE OLD SOLDIERS of our city, always among the first to do honor to the memory of the patriots and heroes of seventy-six, design holding a meeting shortly to make arrangements for their annual celebration of Independence Day. Let our citizens generally follow the example of the veterans who "fought and bled in freedom's cause," and get up a demonstration suitable to the crisis and creditable to the city.

lowing communication, handed to us, this rent as she is by rebellion, distracted by dismorning by a prominent and influential gen of all loyal and patriotic citizens:

Mr. Editor :- In yesterday's issue you speak of the abundance of strawberries in our mar-ket, and say that those of our own growth are perferred because they are much richer in flavor than the southern ones. This is true; but there is another reason why the produce raised by our own people is and should be preferred. That reason lies in patriotism. No man who loves his country more than he does the dollar will aid the enemies of that country so much as to purchase a single article brought from the south, when the same thing can be had from our own citizens. Every cent spent in the buying of strawberries, or any other edible brought from the south, is really and truly helping the traitors to execute their wicked designs against our government. If we refuse to assist them in this way, they will learn the quicker how utterly dependent they are upon the indusbrought from the pestiferous south, when we have many in the same business who are taxed to support the families of the volunteers who have gone to put down the very rebellion instigated by those who send their produce to us and use the money against us? Is it right?—They have refused to buy any article manufactured in the north; let us refuse to buy any vegetables grown in the south, lest the poison of secession bring on a disease worse than death—the disease of disunion.

APPOINTMENT. -- Mr. Wm. C. Ross, of Middle-United States Arsenal, at Philadelphia.

Jeff. Davis has notified the Federal troops to quit Virginia in ten days. It is understood they will not comply.

PREACHING THIS EVENING. - Rev. E. Reed, an aged and much respected minister of the Philadelphia Conference, many years ago the preacher in charge at Harrisburg, will preach in the Locust Street Methodist church this evening at eight o'clock, PATRIOTIC EMPLOYMENT. - We had occasion to visit the house of a friend last evening, and found his worthy lady up to the elbows in dough, making bread and pies, which she informed us was intended for the volunteers at Camp Curtin. STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL .- The ladies of the Presbyterian church, Middletown, are now engaged in holding a Strawberry Festival at the Town Hall, which will continue until Saturday evening, the object being to liquidate the debt existing upon the parsonage. They extend a cordial invitation to the citizens of Harrisburg to aid them, as they have made ample provision for the entertainment of all. The afternoon train down and the nine o'clock train up will afford a fine opportunity to those of our citizens who desire to assist the ladies in this laudable object.

CARE OF STOVES AND PIPES .-- Those who have taken down their stoves and pipes should take care that they are placed in dry situations where they will not be exposed to dampness, otherwise they may be more injured by rust than by constant use during the winter. By covering stoves with a thin coating of warm linseed oil, however, rubbed on with a woolen cloth, they may be set in cellars without injury. THE APPLE TRADE. — The hucksters continue to supply our citizens with an inferior quality of apples, at prices which give them a decidedly silvery taste, and render them a luxury which poor people cannot afford to indulge in. THE COMING HARVEST.-Every day we meet with agriculturists who inform us that the crops in this region, unless visited by drawbacks in the shape of drought, will be of unuand wish it to be distinctly understood that sual excellence. This state of things holds good all along the line of our railroads so far as information reaches us. The appearance of the suburbs within our observation confirms Brown, drowned some five weeks since in the these statements. Everything growing appears to be growing finely, and the markets are stocked with a plethoric supply of summer vegetables. Corn hereabouts is generally above the ground, potatoes ditto, while grass promises extremely well. As forage of all kinds is likely to be dear during the coming winter, abundant crops will be a blessing.

> A WARLIKE MAGAZINE. - The Atlantic Monthly for June is essentially a war number; warlike in the tone of its leading articles, in its verses, and in the purposes for which it is published, for the Boston papers tell us not only that this "army number" has "been expressly prepared by some of our ablest writers," and that "it is prepared to send twenty thousand copies to be distributed among the soldiers," but that a large instalment had already been despatched to Fortress Monroe, in advance of publication, accompanied by such light reading as Smile's "Self-Help" and "Twelve Years of a Soldier's Life." Massachusetts sends men to improve their minds. Certainly the Bay State deserves to wear the laurel.

THE LITTLE WANDERER.—The little girl, Mary Furmen, who arrived here the other night from Elmira in search of her mother, has not yet succeeded in the object of her mission, and the affair still remains involved in mystery. All efforts to find her mother have proved abortive. and the probability is that she never resided in this city. The little wanderer was kindly provided for by Mr. John Williams and his wife until yesterday afternoon, when she was taken in charge by our kind-hearted and benevolent friend Judge Ives, who designs accompanying her to the north with a view of ascertaining the whereabouts of her parents, who, it is supposed, live in Williamsport or some in this city. The little wanderer was kindly it is supposed, live in Williamsport or some own in that section of the State, having moved from Elmira a few months ago.

FLAG RAISING IN "OLD DERRY." - A few days ago a large and beautiful pole, with the stars and stripes floating from its top, was raised by a number of the gallant young men of Hockersville and vicinity. The demonstration was one every way creditable to the patriotism of the participants. Among the crowd collected on the occasion was an individual who had for some time been spotted as a secession sympathiser, and when the fact was made known to ington reads thus: "Dress—A regular dress will be appointed by the board, which each nurse will be required to adopt—no hoops being allowed in the service. A committee on outfit will be appointed to superintend the outfit of the nursing corps, which will be regulated by the amount of baggage allowed to each individual."

Buy Home Products.—On frequent occasions, recently, we have condemned the practice, induged in to a considerable extent, of giving aid and comfort to the rebels by purchasing southern products, in preference to articles of superior quality grown upon free soil at home. It is gratifying to know that our course in this matter meets with general approval. The following communication, handed to us, this
