INVITATIONS ACCEPTED.-The Mount Vernon Hook and Ladder Company, and the Friendship and Good Will Engine companies, have accepted invitations to participate in the Fourth of July parade. The Mount Vernon boys will turn-out for the first time in their new and beautiful equipments. The "Hivers," whose acceptence we announced several days ago, are preparing for a fine display.

SILVERING IVORY .--- Immerse a small slip of ivory in a weak solution of nitrate of silver. and let it remain until the solution has given it a deep yellow color; then take it out and immerse it in a tumbler of clear water, and expose it in the water to the rays of the sun. In about three hours the ivory acquires a black color. but the black surface, on being rubbed, soon becomes changed to a trilliant silver.

GRADUATES OF PRINCETON .--- Among the graduates of old Princeton for the present year are four young men of this city : John Winebrenner, who took the first honors; John De Witt; Wm. S. Purviance, son of the late Attorney General ; and Charles C. Rawn, Jr. The last named gentleman is now with the Lochiel Greys, gallantly serving his country on the tented field. Two members of the junior class at Princeton-Isaac K. Casey and Wm. S. Murray-are also residents of this city. The commencement exercises of the College commenced to-day.

PICNIC AND DEDICATION OF A BANNER .- On Monday next the Eintracht Singing Association will hold their annual picnic in Haehnlen's woods, at which time the new banner recently presented to the society will be formally dedicated. Col. A. J. Herr has accepted an invitation to deliver an oration, and F. W. Haas will address those present in the german language. Weber's excellent string band will furnish music for the benefit of such as love to "trip the light fantastic." The culinary department has been assigned to Col. Daniel Wagner, who will serve up in good style all the delicacies of the season, in connection with liquid refreshments. This will undoubtedly we the picnic of the season, and all citizens who are fond of occasional recreation and amusement should unite with our social their annual celebration.

SHADE TREES. -During the present season of fervency, when the thermometer ranges in the neighborhood of eighty or ninety degrees, with a prospect of increase, shade is a blessing much beloved and eagerly sought, and anything in relation to the trees affording it will be read with interest. We notice that ornamental trees in various sections of the city are disfigur-ed with the cottony egg bags of a species of city to "see the sights," got into bail company, in the set of the cottony pellets are imbibad too much lacor bounded to m the state while of the lower branches of the maple, buttonwood and linden trees, as to threaten their entire des-truction if not arrested, as each pellet contains thousands of minute eggs. A small engine, filled with warm, pretty strong soap-suds, made out of whale oil soap, and a little decoction of his company when he visited to bacco mixed with it, squirted on them with sufficient force to dislodge or saturate the pellets so as to destroy the eggs in them would reme-dy the evil.

tance of our city, too, there are so many delightful, pleasure-inspiring spots, where the emerald green of the sloping banks and the dense foliage of the beautiful trees invite the tired and jaded inhabitant of the town to occasional recreation, where business and care can be temporarily forgotten amidst the manifold beauties of nature unadorned.

> BEFORE ALDERMAN KLINE.-A girl named Kate Elliott, charged with stealing some articles of clothing from Susan Brown, was before Alderman Kline last evening, who committed her for trial. Kate was one of the party who robbed several flower gardens on Front street a few weeks ago. She seems to have a propensity for appropriating the property of other people.

> A mahogany-colored individual named Wm. M'Vey, in company with some soldiers, visited the house of Johnson Battis, and attempted to force an entrance by breaking in the door. When the parties met in the Alderman's office a compromise was effected, by defendant agree-ng to pay costs, and the case dismissed. Hiram Hantz was up for annoying and threatening Henry M'Manus. He was bound over to keep the peace toward complainant.

A miserable specimen of the "gentle sex,' answering to the name of Sally Miller, was picked up on the street about midnight, in a drunken condition, and sent to prison for thirty days. The man who furnished this woman liquor ought to have accompanied her to jail. Officer Fleck made all of the above arrests.

BEFORE THE MAYOR. - This morning Capt. Quinn was before the Mayor, charged with disgerman filends in the festivities incident to orderly conduct while drunk. The Captain was fined one dollar, which he paid, and then determined to become a "bold soger boy." He accordingly signed the roll of the Kepner Fencibles, and took the usual oath.
