

HARRISBURG:

Thursday Afternoon, June 27, 1861.

TO ADVERTISERS.

The circulation of the DAILY TELEGRAPH IS FOUR TIMES LARGER than any other daily published or circulated in this city, and it therefore presents greater inducements for the patronage of advertisers than is offered to them through any other medium. Lef those who want buyers, try advertising in the TELE GRAPH.

THE MORNING TELEGRAPH Is issued every morning and contains THE LATEST TELE-GRAPHIC DISPATCHES received during the night.

INVITATION ACCEPTED .- The Citizen fire company have accepted an invitation to participate in the fourth of July parade, and appointed a committee to make the necessary arrangements. The entire fire department will be out, and make a handsome display.

WHIPPED HIS WIFE.—A fellow named John Hassinger was before Justice Beader this morning, charged whipping his wife and inhumanly abusing his mother-in-law, while under the in fluence of drugged liquor. This is Hassinger's second offence. The Justice sent him to prison for twenty days.

THE DOG LAW. The police officers are to be commended for their vigilance and activity in enforcing the provisions of the dog law. A large number of owners of unmuzzled canines have been fined since the ordinance went into effect. Two more-Leonard Fessler and J. Walborn-were "put through" last evening.

ATTENTION, HIVERS .- An adjourned meeting of the Hope Hose and Engine Company, No. 2, will be held in their hall this (Thursday) evening, at the usual time of meeting. Punctual attendance of the members is requested, as business of importance will be brought before J. E. FOUGHT, the meeting. Secretary, pro tem.

MILITARY PARADE.—The military display in this city on the fourth of July will be quite attractive. In addition to the City Zouaves in full uniform, the Union Cadets, Roberts Guards and Ellsworth Cadets, a full regiment from Camp Curtin will participate in the parade .--Our "country cousins" should be on hand to see the sights....

PROPERLY PUNISHED. - This morning Ann Lee made information before the Mayor against John A. Grey for abusing and assaulting her. On a hearing of the case Ann failed to sustain he charge; and it appearing that she was prompted by revengeful and malicious motives, the Mayor very properly dismissed the defendant and ordered the prosecutrix to pay the costs Served her right.

MUSIC FOR THE FOURTH.—The committee to make arrangements for a fourth of July celebration find great difficulty in procuring a band for the occasion, the best of them in neighborregimental bands. The State Capital Band, of this city, demand fifty dollars to play on independence day, and the committee, who do not feel warranted in paying such an exorbitant price, decline employing the band on the illiberal terms proposed. In this action they will be sustained by the entire community. Considering the occasion, the demand is an exorbitant one; and in view of the liberality with which our citizens have always sustained the hand, the present course of its members may justly be regarded as mercenary and unpatriotic. If we must pay fifty dollars for a band on the fourth, better have a good one from abroad, and get the worth of our money.

THUNDER STORM-ENGINE HOUSE STUCK BY LIGHTNING-NARROW ESCAPE.-A heavy rain and thunder storm passed over our city yesterday afternoon about four o'clock. In its passage a terrific flash of lightning, attracted by the iron ring of the flag staff on the Good Will engine house, struck that edifice. Starting at the iron band, the electric current pursued a screw-like course down the pole, passed over to the east corner of the cupola shivering it to pieces, then on the tin roof towards the western side of the building; when it took the line of the water-spout, from which it emerged about the middle of the first story, attracted no doubt by the iron work of the engine and hose carriage, running along the whole north-west side of the house, slightly ter to popular patriotism, which they have not damaging the machines, shattering an end of a large beam, and uplifting the flooring, at the same time breaking through the weather-boarding. The "star spangled hanner," which had so long floated proudly in the breeze, was rent. and with pieces of timber scattered in all directions. At the time of the accident there were three women and several children in the upper hall, where a daguerreotypist was operating; and yet, strange to say, "nobody was hurt." The reason of this was owing to One represents Scott as a powerful mastiff keepthe fact that the metallic roofing con- ing watch and ward over Washington, while a ducted away the current. We need not say, cowardly cur personifies the rebel chief; and however, that they were not "soared." It was old Lundy's Lane is asking, "Jeff, why don't this, also, which protected the building from you take it?" The Ellsworth style bears a combustion. One hundred feet north of the portrait of the lamented hero, surrounded by house is a lightning rod on the Park hotel, but it flags, and his own sentiment, "He who noteth is much lower than the top of the flag staff, the even the fall of a sparrow, will have some purring on which attracted the electric fluid. pose even in the fate of one like me." In this connection we urge pirate flag, and the pedal extremities of Lincoln upon owners of buildings the importance of in close proximity to the person of the aforesaid protecting them from similar accidents, by the rebel. The neatest device is that of the Goderection of effective lightning rods, which will dess of Liberty poised in air, bearing in triumph be promptly furnished by our friend Dr. W. the stars and stripes. Of the other designs, Barr, to whose advertisement in the Thirdhaph some are very pretty and appropriate; and attention is invited. Same and the same interesting and impressive character.

VIOLATING AN ORDINANCE.—One Louis Lowengart was before the Mayor last evening, charged with permitting several sheep to run at large within the city limits. He paid the usual fine and costs.

More Muskers .- A number of large boxes, filled with muskets, arrived at Camp Curtin last evening. These constitute a portion of the ten thousand recently proposed to be furnished to Pennsylvania by the United States government.

ARMY WAGONS.-Mr. Wm. Colder, of this city, has a contract with the government for the construction of one hundred army wagons. They are to be built at the Harrisburg Car Factory, and the job will give employment to a number of men for several weeks.

CITIZEN FIRE COMPANY.—The committee of arrangements for the fourth of July parade, appointed by the Citizen fire company, will meet at the engine house this evening at eight o'clock. Every member is requested to be in E. W. SHELL, Sec'y. attendance.

APPOINTED CAPTAIN .- We learn that our clever friend Harvey Brown, of this city, who seems determined to figure in military circles, has been appointed a Captain in the regular army. Capt. Brown will make a splendid looking officer, and will no doubt soon qualify himself to discharge the duties of the position creditably. We wish him success.

FAST DAY.—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (N. S.) at their session in Syracuse, N. Y., appointed Friday, June 28th to be observed by the churches under its care as a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer before God, in view of the civil war now raging in our land. In accordance with this appointment, public religious services will be held in the Presbyterian Church, Market Square, tomorrow-morning at ten o'clock.

FINED FOR SELLING FIRE CRACKERS.—Two shop-keepers, Martin Seel and Theodore F. Boyer, were arrested by the Chief of Police for potatoes just received and for sale by the barselling fire crackers in violation of law. They rel or bushel very low. were fined one dollar each. For the benefit of all dealers in the article, we state that the law prohibits their sale except on the third and fourth days of July, and the Mayor is determined that the prohibition shall be strictly

An Item for the Boys.—The Mayor has instructed the police officers to arrest all boys who may be detected in the act of firing squibs and burning powder before the evening of the third of July. The offence is punishable by fine or imprisonment. Let our young friends save their pennies and restrain their patriotism until the proper time comes, and they will then be allowed the largest liberty in the way of exploding squibs and other "villainous saltpetre" arrangements.

BOOKS FOR THE SOLDIERS.-Mr. Alexander McBean, through the generosity of the people of Harrisburg, has been permitted to supply the following companies with the Soldier's Library of twenty-five volumes: Cameron Rifles, Montour Rifles, Tioga Rifles, McKean Rifles, Washington Rifles, Raftsman's Guards, Honesdale Guards, Union Guards, Iron Guards, Kepner Fencibles, Tioga Fencibles, J. D. Cameron Infantry, Susquehanna Volunteers, Factoryville Infantry, Company D, Capt. Chamberlain. Mr. panies, and for this purpose solicits further contributions from the generous. Any money sent to Mrs. Johnson's boarding house, corner of Market and Fourth streets, will be thankfully received and faithfully appropriated.

Good for our "Boys."—A gentleman who recently visited Frederick, informs us that the Cameron Guards are conceded to be the finest looking and best drilled company in the regiment, and that the members conduct themselves in such a way as to win golden opinions from the commanding officers and citizens of Frederick. On the passage of the regiment through the town, our gallant volunteers were warnily welcomed, and literally covered with fragrant boquets, which the ladies showered upon them in great profusion. This is encouraging news for the friends of the "boys" at home. It an opportunity is afforded the Guards to meet the rebels in battle array, we are confident they will bear themselves gallantly and come out of the contest with "brows bound with victorious wreaths." In the absence of Capt. Eyster, which occurs very frequently, the command of the company devolves upon Lieut. George W. Davis, who has proved himself an excellent officer, and is esteemed by the entire corps.

FANCY AND PATRIOTIC ENVELOPES .- The present war has afforded to the inventive genius of our countrymen rare opportunities to minisfailed to improve in the manufacture of badges, cravats, collars, neck-ties, dress patterns, ribbons and aprons—but the chief emblems centre in letter envelopes, which are of every imaginable device. We have been shown some very pretty and unique specimens. The Zouave emblem is in the regular blood and thunder style, with gaudy colors, and bears the motto-

"When thus our hosts go proudly forth, Let foes beware the spirit of the North! others roughly executed in poor teste.

GOVERNOR CURTIN Was in Philadelphia last NATIONAL HUMILIATION. —In compliance with evening and participated in the ceremonies of a resolve of the Baptist Convention recently the annual commencement of the Polytechnic held in New York, that denomination have set College, in Concert Hall, which were of a very apart Friday next as day of humiliation prayer and conference, that God in His wisdom may avert the calamities incident to the existing rebellion against our government. Conse quently, on Friday morning, at ten o'clock Rev. W. S. Wood will preach a sermon in the Baptist church, corner of Second and Pine streets, suitable to the occasion. Prayer meeting in the evening at eight o'clock.

> THER LOCATION -A gentleman direct from Hagerstown informs us that the State Capital Guards are yet in the vicinity of Hagerstown. He saw Lieutenant Charles Davis, who reported the boys all well, and "gay and happy still." The Verbeke Rifles are located near Sharpsburg, some ten or twelve miles from Hagers town. Our last advices represent them to be in good health and spirits. Lieut. Alleman makes an excellent officer, and is highly esteemed by the entire company. "Higher honors wait him."

We have news this afternoon that the State Capital Guards left Hagerstown last evening.

JUVENILE THIEF.—A lad not more than eight or ten years of age was detected in the act of robbing a money box in the butcher shop of Mr. John Evans, in Vine street. On former occasions change had mysteriously disappeared from the box, and yesterday morning guards were posted in the shop, concealed from view, were posted in the shop, concealed from view, with a view of detecting the thief. In a short time the boy referred to made his appearance, took a key from his pocket with which he unlocked the box, abstracted some money, and was about retreating, when the men came from their hiding places and captured him. The lad was confined in the cellar, and a messenger despatched for his father. What disposition was made of the juvenile thief we did not learn. We suppress his name for the present, and sincerely hope that this may be his last offence of the kind. If the lad is permitted to pursue the dishonest career upon which he has entered thus early in life, he will soon become a moral wreck, and a disgrace and heart-break to his parents.
