PASSAGE OF TROOPS.

Last evening three companies of United fifty men, and the same number of horses, reached this city from Fort Leavenworth, en route for Washington. This force is under command of Capt. Armstrong and Lieut. Coleburn. The men are all handsomely epuipped, well armed, and in high spirits at the prospect of a fight with the rebels. Many of them carried small flags, which they waved from the car windows while passing the depot, and cheered with great enthusiasm. They expect to be sent into Virginia immediately on their arrival at Washington.

Several regiments of infantry arrived here last evening over the Northern Ceutral Railroad from Washington and Elmira, en route for Military Affairs reported back the joint resolu-Martinsburg, to reinforce Gen. Patterson at that point.

THE BOUNTY TO VOLUNTEERS. -So many conflicting statements have been made regarding this matter that we publish the following portion of General Orders No. 15, issued by the War Department, May 4th, 1861: "Every volunteer, non-commissioned officer, private and artificer who enters the service of the United States under this plan, shall be paid at the rate of fifty cents, and if a cavalry volunteer, twenty-five cents additional in lieu of forage, for every twenty miles travel from his home to the place of muster-the distance to be measured by the shortest usually traveled route-and when honorably discharged, an allowance at the same rate from the place of his discharge to his home, and in addition thereto the sum may be received into the United States service under this plan, and who may be wounded or otherwise disabled in the service, shall be entitled to the benefits which have been or may be conferred on persons disabled in the regular service, and the legal heirs of such as die or may be killed in the service, in addition to all arrearages of pay and allowances, shall receive XXXVIIth Congress—Extra Session. IMPORTANT PROCEEDINGS.

Washington, July 8, 1861.

SENATE. - Mr. Wade (Ohio,) offered a joint resolution that the Secretary of the Treasury all arms imported since the first of May last. States cavalry, comprising two hundred and which have not been actually paid, and all arms tees. Adopted. which may be imported prior to the first of January, 1852, for the use of any State which the Committee on Elections. is in good faith aiding to suppress the rebellion now waged against the United States. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. HALE, (N. H.) presented a petition for the relief of Roger Jones, who commanded at Harper's Ferry, and was obliged to destroy public and private property, to prevent its falling into the hands of the rebels.

The Vice-President presented the memorial of the Chamber of Commerce, of New York, in per month, commencing May 1st; also a bill relation to Harbor defences. Referred to the Military Committee. Mr. Wilson (Mass.) from the Committee on tion legalizing all the acts of the President. Laid over. Also, the bill authorizing the employment of volunteers in enforcing the laws and protecting public property. Laid over. Adjourned. House-Mr. Kelley, (Pa.) was excused from serving as a member of the committee on elections, for the reason, as he stated, that the seats of two representatives from districts adjoining his are contested. Mr. Wickliffe, (Ky.) was excused from service as a member of the post office committee, on account of physical inability.

Mr. STEVENS (Penn.) introduced a bill to divide Pennsylvania into three political districts, and that a court be held at Erie. Referred to the Judiciary Committee. Mr. Vallandigham (Ohio) introduced a bill to repeal the tariff act of 1861, and restore that of 1857. Referred to the Committee of Ways and Means. Mr. Holman (Ind.) presented a bill granting bounty lands to those who have been or shall be engaged in the military service of the

Mr. EDWARDE (N. H.) moved to lay the resolutions on the table.

Mr. VAILANDIGHAM (Ohio) made an ineffectual effort to amend the resolutions. The House voted on Mr. Edwards' motion, and laid them on the table, by a vote of yeas 87. navs 62.

Mr. Hrokman moved a reconsideration of Mr. Holman's resolution, his object being to include general questions of a judicial character. Mr. Burnerr (Ky.) desired a further extension in order that propositions looking to a peaceful solution of the present political difficulties may not abandoned all hope on that subject. The SPEAKER reminded gentlemen that the debate was not in order.

The House reconsidered the vote by which Mr. Holman's resolution was adopted. Mr. Hickman moved an amendment, as above indicated. Mr. VALLANDIGHAM raised the point of order that the resolution changed the rule, which could not be done without the required notice The Speaker, for reasons stated, over ruled the point.

Having procured Steam Power Presses, we as repared to execute JOB and BOOK PRINTING of over tescription, cheaper that it can be done at any other e-ablishment in the country.

Objections being made, Mr. Burnerr said that gentlemen ought certainly not to be deprived of the right to offer such propositions.

Mr. Wickliffe (Ky.) declared in the name of his constituents, and his country, and his God, that the legislation of this House should be left free and untrammelled. He moved to lay the resolution on the table. Negatived -yeas 62, пауз 102.

Mr. Holman's resolution, as amended by Mr. Hickman's resolution, was again adopted. Mr. WASHBURN (Ill.) offered a series of resobe directed to remit all duties and imposts on lutions referring the various branches of the President's message to the appropriate commit-

All contested election cases were referred to

Mr. Curris (Iowa) offered a joint resolution proposing to strike from the Pension rolls the names of all persons in rebellion against the United States, and all aiding or abetting secession or rebellion, &c.

This was ruled out under the resolution adopted to day.

Mr. VAN WYCK, (N. J.) introduced a bill for increasing the pay of soldiers to fifteen dollars reducing the expenses of the Government, viz: that all officers excepting Post Masters and Consuls, having no stated salary, shall pay all the fees collected by them into the treasury; that the salary of all officers, civil, military and naval, shall be reduced as follows: Over $10,000, thirty per cent; over $7,000, 25 per cent; over 5,000,20 per cent; over 3,000 15 per cent; over 2,000, 10 per cent; and: over 1,000, 5 per cent. Repealing all laws granting mileage to members of Congress; restricting the franking privilege to one ounce in weight, and repealing all laws and resolutions appropriating money for newspapers and stationary for members in Congress.

Mr. DEVINE, (N. Y.) offered the following: Resolved, (if the Senate concur.) That the following address be signed by the Speaker of the House and by the President of the Senate, and that the President be requested to approve the same, and transmit a copy to the Gover-nors of the respective States of this republic.
